

HALL OF FAME

Another outstanding student in the Hall of Fame this year is Judith Ann Bliss. "Judy" is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bliss.

Among Judy's many activities are band, choir, Red Cross, Student Council, Hi-Herald, F.H.A., Future Nurses, and Camera Club. Judy has been in G.A.A., and participated in girls sports. She played the part of Celia in the Junior play. This year Judy is co-editor of the yearbook.

Not only is Judy publicity chairman for the PTSA, but she is also on the Student Class A pass selection committee. She also won the Betty Crocker Award this year and was in the ninety-ninth percentile in the National rating.

Judy plans to attend Mansfield next year to study Elementary Education.

Best of luck to someone we know will succeed!

Goldfish eating at Harvard, 1939. Panty raids at Vanderbilt, 1952. Streaking at the University of Maryland to the University of Florida, 1974. Even though streaking is quite a bit more daring than the fads in 1939 or 1952, there are still a great number of participants.

Streaking is, I believe, a reflection of our society, a society that is accepting premarital sex, porno movies, divorce as easy as marriage, and violence. If our society did not accept such things, there would not be an over-abundance of them.

Why don't these "runners-in-the-raw" direct their energy elsewhere? I'll admit it was somewhat funny at first. However, streakers are mainly college students, students who will hopefully be the leaders of this nation.

Will these leaders emphasize such things as poverty, racial discrimination, drug abuse, and war or will streaking and fun be uppermost in their minds? Studying and solving domestic and society problems should begin.

Well our girls basketball team is going all the way this year. After finishing a fine season with a 6 wins 1 losses league record, they met with Scio on Monday, March 18 in a play-off game for first place in Allegany's Southern League. The game was a thriller to the end, played at Alfred-Almond. The final score was 49 - 47 with our Andover girls pulling out on top to take the title. It was a fine team effort put out by both teams. High scorer for Andover was Teresa Joyce with 15, followed by Diane Bliss with 13, Kathy Haskins with 7, Harriet McCormick with 6, Beth Polmateer with 5, and Terri Polmateer with 2 points.

The win put Andover in Allegany's first place bracket to play Canisteo at Caledonia on Saturday, March 23 for Sectionals. A special "thanks" goes out to Mrs. McNeill for picking us up and carrying us as far as she did, Mr. Weatherly our faithful bus driver, all the boys who scrimmaged with us and helped out and the spectators for all their support.

Asked how it felt to have the number one team, Coach Troxell replied, "It sure feels good". Best of luck and anything else you need to see you through Sectionals.

Every now and then throughout the school year, you have probably heard about a new club that was started at the Andover Central School. They are trying to raise money for an overseas trip. Can you guess what it is? Well, here's another clue; they have been selling sweaters and bulletin boards. Do you know yet? Right, it is the Spanish Club.

The Club consists of nineteen members and two advisors. They are: Debbie Baker, Marsha Baker, Lisa Brown, Linda Mulconery, Craig Dodge, Cindy Tomm, Sara Pantan, Mike Bliss, Tom Weibezahl, Sue Weibezahl, Hal Carson, Scott Bundy, Rob Hyland, Tim Mead, Teresa Joyce, Brenda Vosburg, Brian Halsey, John Davis, Cindy Davis.

All are extremely excited because their trip is only weeks away April 12 through April 20.

Remember to give them a helping hand if they come to your door trying to sell something or if you happen to walk by their booth at the Maple Festival.
