

Mary Ellen Corwin and John Walzl Recite Own Wedding Vows

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Walzl

Miss Mary Ellen Corwin and James David Walzl were united in marriage Saturday, March 16, 1974 at 6 o'clock by the Rev. Ray Albaugh, pastor of the Andover United Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Corwin of Andover. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gantz of Conestoga, Pa.

The double-ring ceremony, written by the bride and bridegroom, took place at the Scio Rod and Gun Club in front of the fireplace decorated with candelabra and bouquets of pink carnations, snapdragons and gladioli.

The bride, accompanied by her father, selected a winter white velvet gown and a tiara of white miniature carnation and baby's breath. She carried a long stem red rose.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Claudette Stevens, sister of the bride, chose a burgundy crepe gown and carried a pink rose.

Jeanette Gibson of Rochester, niece of the bride was flower girl in a pink organdy gown. She carried a basket of pink rosebuds.

John Walzl of Stevens, Pa., was best man for his brother.

A buffet dinner was served to 65 guests following the ceremony. Music was furnished by the members of the Yale Jacobs band.

The bride, a 1973 graduate of State University at Albany, is employed by a law firm in Athens, Ohio.

Business Management Seminar Postponed Until Late April.

The business management seminar series, previously planned to begin March 27, at the BOCES Occupational Center in Belmont, has been postponed until April 25.

The postponement is due to the need to reorganize the series into a format different from what was previously planned.

The introductory session held on March 19, while poorly attended, indicated a need to orient the seminar series in two or more levels of detail and sophistication.

A number of business and management people, who have indicated a desire to participate in the seminars, will be contacted within the next week by the Allegany County Office of Economic Development to determine more specifically their preferences for coverage of subject matter in the seminars.

It is expected that the initial session of the seminars, beginning April 25, will be focused upon financial analysis and financial planning.

Anyone interested in participating in the seminars, who is not contacted the week of March 25 by the Economic Development Office, may register his interest in the seminars by contacting the office at 268-7612 in Belmont.
