Elected Captain Of Andover Rescue Squad

James R. Haugh, former Chief Station Engineer at Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation's South Greenwood compressor Station who retired April 1, 1974, was elected Captain of the Andover Rescue Squad at their annual meeting. Other Officers elected were: Merle Fox, Lieutenant, and Doug Miller, Secretary-Treasurer.

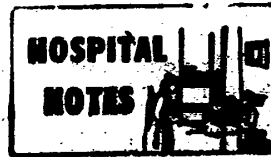

Late Wednesday evening, April 17th, the Rescue Squad was called to take "Jim", their newly elected Captain, to the Jones Memorial Hospital suffering from a respiratory infection.

Monday, the Rescue Squad took "Jim" to the Olean General Hospital for an X-ray lung scanning test, returning to the Jones Memorial and was discharged on Tuesday. And, according to the Doctor's report, "Jim" did not have a heart attack as was suspected but instead his problems were the after effects of the current "bug" that has been making the rounds in this area.

Happy convalescence Jim were week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Post and also their brother, Howard M. Post. They enjoyed immensely the many worthwhile attractions and activities of the Maple Festival.

Thursday of Easter week, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Scovago, daughter Lori and son, Anthony were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Post. They immensely enjoyed the Easter Sunday Morn Service at the Baptist Church and also the Good Friday evening Service at the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church. They returned home Sunday P. M., to Long Island and were about two hours ahead of all the hard winds and rains that not only Andover, but many other places on their route experienced.

Mrs. George Sackett is a medical patient in the Jones Memorial Hospital.

R. O. Snyder was admitted to the Jones Memorial Hospital Wednesday as a medical patient.
