Coach Tom Kumar said that though several small scrimmages have been held at the school, there has not been an official Meet for at least five years. The track wasn't in good enough shape, but right now it is fantastic. We owe it all to the work of our Principal and the Town Highway. They brought in the Town Grader, took off some cinders and rolled the track. A new long jump pit has been made and Kumar said if we get some hurdles and a few things like a cross bar for the pole vault, we will be in great shape for next season. Our Track Team went to Cohocton last week and came in third.

The Sportsman's Corner by Clark Webster, Remington Wild Life Expert HELPING OUR WILDLIFE OUR EARLY SETTLERS THOUGHT OF AMERICA AS THE LAND OF UNLIMITED WILDLIFE. BUT BY THE TURN OF THE CENTURY WE BEGAN TO REALIZE GAME WAS A FINITE RESOURCE. THROUGH DESTRUCTION OF HABITAT AND LACK OF INTELLIGENT MANAGEMENT, OUR WILD BIRDS AND ANIMALS WERE IN TROUBLE. HUNTER CONSERVATIONISTS SUCH AS THEODORE ROOSEVELT BEGAN TO CHANGE ALL THIS. THEY FOSTERED THE IDEA OF INTELLIGENT GAME MANAGEMENT THROUGH THE PITTMAN-ROBERTSON ACT (A SPORTSMAN SUPPORTED EXCISE TAX ON FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION ESTABLISHED IN 1937). OVER $400,000,000 HAS GONE TO WILDLIFE RESEARCH AND MANAGEMENT. TODAY, THANKS TO THE HUNTER, WE HAVE AGAIN LARGE POPULATIONS OF DEER, ANTELOPE, WILD TURKEY, ELK AND OTHER WILDLIFE. THE HUNTER HAS EARNED THE NAME "WILDLIFE CONSERVATIONIST."
