The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints was the setting Saturday, June 22, 1974 for the marriage of Miss Lee Ann Feenaughty of Greenwood and S. Glenn Dickey of Cameron, R.D. The Rev. Carol Bassett of Canisteo Road, performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with candelabras and a centerpiece of white gladioli, carnations and yellow, aqua and orchid daisies.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Feenaughty, Sr., of Greenwood. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Dickey of Cameron, R.D. Soloist, Miss Annette Pritchard of Greenwood, was accompanied by the organist, Mrs. Clair Rollins of the Canisteo Road.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of imported nylon organza over taffeta with victorian neckline empire waistline, Juliet sleeves and chantly lace accents on the neckline, sleeves and waistline. An A-line silhouette skirt was cascaded with two rows of chantly lace. Her floor length mantilla veil with the same motifs accented the dress giving it the soft illusion look. She carried a nosegay of white roses, carnations and aqua daisies with white streamers.

Miss Laurie Holt of Greenwood was maid-of-honor. She wore a floor length aqua formal gown of chiffon over taffeta, with victorian neckline, empire waistline and short puffed sleeves. The bodice of the gown had a lace yolk with ruffles, same motifs accenting the sleeves, with an A-line silhouette skirt accenting the gown. Miss Debra Henry of Hartsville, cousin of the bride, and Miss Darla Nye of Greenwood, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical in style to that worn by the maid-of-honor in maize and orchid respectively. The attendants all wore picture hats of nylon with satin ribbon around the crown of the hat to match their gowns. They carried a single white rose with matching streamers.

Gary A. Davis of Canisteo, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Frank Burdick of Alfred Station, brother-in-law of the bridegroom and Charles L. Feenaughty, Jr., of Greenwood, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon for 100 guests was held at St. Joachim's Parish Center, Canisteo. The couple left for a wedding trip of undisclosed destination. Upon return, they will reside at 12 Eighth Street, Canisteo. The bride is a 1973 graduate of Greenwood Central School and is employed as a secretary by Greenwood Agway. The bridegroom is a graduate of Canisteo Central School and is proprietor of Dickey's Quaker State Gas Station in Canisteo.

Guests attended the wedding from Andover, Canisteo, Hornell, Rochester, Cameron, Greenwood, Hartsville, Leroy, Alfred Station and Rock Ledge, Florida.

The Greenwood Central School Band went to Andover Thursday to march in the Fourth of July Parade.

Miss Teresa McCormick of Rexville, celebrated her birthday, Sunday with a dinner party at the Cameo Restaurant in Wellsville. Guests were Mrs. Gertrude McKinley and Leo McCormick of Greenwood, Mrs. Helen Murphy, Theodore and Teresa McCormick of Rexville.

Miss Eugenia Laura Cerrillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cerrillo of Rexville, became the bride of William John Freberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Freberg of Troupsburg, Saturday, May 25, 1974. The Rev. Otto Vogt performed the double ring ceremony in St. Mary's Church, Rexville.

The altar was decorated with baskets of gladioli and chrysanthemums. Mrs. June Rollins of Canisteo, was the organist.

Mrs. Judy Austin of Hornell, was matron-of-honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Romona Ellis of Greenwood and Doris Freberg of Troupsburg, sister of the bridegroom. Robert Sawyer of Troupsburg was best man and ushers were S2/C Byron Cerrillo of San Juan, P. R., and Dereh Cerrillo of Rexville, both brothers of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta gown fashioned with an empire waistline. The bodice had a lace overlay with an inset of chiffon at the neck. The high neckline and wrists of the long chiffon sleeves accented by the lace overlay and Alecon lace trim. The floor length veil was trimmed with matching wide Alecon lace. The gown and veil were designed and fashioned by the bride's classmate, Miss Darlene Warriner of Greenwood. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and pink carnations surrounded by baby's breath.

The matron-of-honor was attired in a pink floral print with short sleeves. The high neckline and sleeves were accented with a daisy trim. She wore a pink picture hat and short white gloves. She carried a long stemmed yellow rose with baby's breath and pink streamers. Bridesmaids wore similar gowns of blue and yellow print with picture hats to match their gowns. They wore short white gloves and carried identical flowers as the matron-of-honor tied with streamers to match their dresses.

The bride's mother wore a pale pink lace gown with a blue chiffon train. The groom's mother wore a street length light blue suit.

A reception was held at the Greenwood American Legion where a buffet luncheon was served to about 125 guests. Decorations were balls and bells and candles to match the attendants gowns. The wedding cake of two — three-tiered cakes, joined by a bridge over a sparkling fountain and encircled by lacy mums and red roses, highlighted the decorations. Mrs. Marjorie Herrick of Greenwood, catered the luncheon and made the cake. Hostess was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Violet McCormick of Andover. Music for the reception was furnished by Mrs. Donna Hughes at the organ.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Greenwood Central School. The bridegroom is a 1972 graduate of Elkland High School and is employed at Ingersol Rand at Painted Post.
