Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Ensmann

Linda Leon and Thomas Ensmann exchange Vows in double-ring rites

The First United Methodist Church of Wellsville was the setting at 12 o'clock Noon, Saturday, June 22, 1974 for the wedding of Miss Linda L. Leon and Thomas C. Ensmann. The wedding day and church was the same as the 27th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Leon of Andover, R.D. 2. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Ensmann of 203 Nahant St., Rochester.

The church and altar were decorated with palms and arrangements of white gladioli accented with majestic daisies of yellow, peach and green, for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. William F. Atkins, pastor. Gilbert Parker was the organist.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, selected a formal imported solo-Peau gown fashioned with high neckline of fine-pleated ruffle edged with tiny seed pearls. Alecon lace appliques adorned the bodice with tiny seed pearls. The Camelot sleeves were edged with identical ruffle and seed pearls as the neckline, with Alecon lace appliques on the sleeves. The gown was fashioned with a wide band insert of satin at the Empire waist. The A-line skirt that was adorned with Alecon lace appliques and pearls with Venise lace encircling the bottom edge of the skirt that swept into a chapel length train. Her bouffant imported French silk illusion veil was attached to a headpiece of Alecon lace and seed pearls with Soto-Peau lippy and bow. She carried a cascade bouquet of Phalaenopsis orchids, Faberge roses, green and yellow daisies, Stephanotis, baby's breath and ivy.

Miss Linda Jean Ensmann, twin sister of the groom, of Rochester, was Maid-of-Honor. She was attired in a gown of white imperted, cotton organdy eyelet over peach taffeta, sleeveless with a jewel neckline and Empire waistline with a ruffled overlay of peach taffeta just above the Empire waistline, and fastened to an A-line skirt. A jacket of white eyelet over peach taffeta, fashioned with long puff sleeves tapering to the wrist and edged with peach taffeta ruffle at bottom of sleeves and encircling the entire edge of the jacket completed her attire. She carried Faberge roses, yellow and green daisies, baby's breath with ivy in a cascade arrangement bouquet.

Bridemaids were Mrs. Stephen Halbrook of Rochester and Miss Charlotte Bennett, Sorority Sister of the bride and friend of the couple from Geneseo, N. Y. They wore similar gowns and bolero jackets were worn by the bridesmaids in pastel yellow and green. Miss Bennett attired in yellow, carried a cascade bouquet of yellow gladioli, green and yellow daisies, baby's breath and ivy. Mrs. Stephen Halbrook dressed in a green gown, carried identical bouquet with ice green gladioli, yellow and green daisies, baby's breath and ivy.

Stephen Halbrook of Rochester, served as best man and usher were. John Ashman, brother-in-law of the groom, from Saratoga Springs; Douglas Hudson of Rochester. Ring Bearer was Master Hans Ashman, nephew of the groom from Saratoga Springs.

A reception was held at Hill Top in Richburg for approximately 80 guests. The bride's buffet table was centered with the wedding cake and an arrangement of yellow, green daisies and peach carnations with fern and double candleabra of white daisies and white candles. Similar arrangements with yellow, green and peach daisies centered the guests tables.

Following a wedding trip to Saratoga Springs, the couple will reside at 15 Foster Ave., Clifton Springs, where the bride holds the position as a teacher of the second grade in the Red Jacket Central School at Shortsville. She is a graduate of Andover Central School and State University of Arts and Science of Geneseo.

The bridegroom graduated from Canastota High School and attended State University of New York Agricultural & Technical Institute at Delhi and is employed by the Lincoln First Bank of Rochester. Pre-wedding events consisted of a surprise variety shower given by Mrs. John Ensmann and Miss Linda J. Ensmann, sisters of the groom.
