

Mr. and Mrs. David K. Alvord

Jean Dunning and David Alvord United in Marriage June 1st

The Blessed Sacrament Church of Andover was the setting at 1 p. m. Saturday, June 1, 1974 for the marriage of Joan Shepard Dunning of Andover, formerly of Hornell, to David Kenneth Alvord, also of Andover.

The Rev. Joseph Florio, associate pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before the main altar decorated with two baskets of multicolor gladioli and pompons. Mrs. Cheryl Monroe of Andover, was organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Shepard Jr., of Hornell. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brainard Alvord of 13 East Center Street, Andover.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Stanley Shepard, Jr., of Hornell, selected a floor-length gown of light blue chiffon over bridal satin. The bodice featured a yoke of hand smocking edged with white lace interwoven with blue satin ribbon. The lace and ribbon motif was repeated on the Empire waistline, cuffs of the bishop sleeves and high collar. The gathered skirt was edged with a self-ruffle. Her blue illusion veil was caught to a blue Dior bow. She carried a bouquet of multicolored carnations centered with Dutch-ess pink roses.

Mrs. Lynn Stewart of Hornell, was Matron-of-Honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Stephen Shepard, sister-in-law of the bride and Miss Patti Shepard, sister of the bride, both of Hornell. Miss Connie Dunning of Andover, daughter of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and Mary Dunning, another daughter of the bride, was flower girl.

Norman James Alvord, of Wellsville, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Leo George Alvord of Wellsville, another brother, and Stephen Burton of Elm Valley. Junior Usher was Denny Thomas Glass, a nephew of the groom from Wellsville.

Ring Bearer was Michael Leo Alvord, nephew of the groom.

The Matron-of-Honor and senior bridesmaids were attired in formal gowns of powder blue jersey with a white daisy print. Square white crepe collars accented the V-necklines and the Empire waistlines were accented with a cross-over tie sash. They wore white straw picture hats trimmed with blue ribbon and they each carried a long stemmed pink rose.

The junior bridesmaid and flower girl wore white gowns patterned with pink and blue daisies, styled with white collars and tie sashes. Their headpieces were bows with streamers. The junior bridesmaid carried a pink and white basket filled with pink and white pompons.

Following a reception at The Heater in Wellsville for about 150 guests, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada.

The bride, a graduate of Hornell Senior High School, attended State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred. She is employed at the Andover Medical Center.

The bridegroom was graduated from Andover Central School and is employed by his brother's trucking business in Wellsville.

The couple is making their home at 82 1/2 East Ave., Andover.

Sara June Rose and Daniel E. Dodge Exchange Wedding Vows

The Andover United Methodist Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Sara June Rose II, of Andover R.D. 2, to Daniel E. Dodge of Columbus, Ohio, on Saturday, June 22, 1974 at 10 a. m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Rose of Andover, R.D. 2, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dodge of Water Street, Andover.

The Rev. Roy Albaugh performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with vases of pink gladioli and carnations. Mrs. Susan Godown was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white lace gown with a sabrina neckline and kimona sleeves. Her illusion veil fell from a crown of beaded petals. She carried a nosegay of white roses and baby's breath.

Miss Laura Tomm of Alfred Station was Maid-of-Honor. She selected a white chiffon gown embroidered with red rosebuds and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Zoelinda Rose, sister of the bride, and Deanna Dodge, sister of the bridegroom, both of Andover. They were attired in pink gowns and they each carried a long stemmed red rose.

The flower girl, Melissa Rose of Binghamton, niece of the bride, wore a white chiffon gown with red rosebuds. She carried a basket of red rosebuds.

David Dodge, serving with the U. S. Air Force, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Thomas and Timothy Rose of Andover, brothers of the bride. Bryon Rose, nephew of the bride, was the ring-bearer.

A reception for about 150 guests was held at the Alfred Tech Lodge.

The bride was graduated from Andover Central School the day of her wedding. The bridegroom, a graduate of Andover Central School, is employed by Borden Burger in Columbus, Ohio, as the first assistant manager and attends Ohio Institute of Technology.

Following their wedding trip to Watkins Glen, the newlyweds will reside in Columbus.
