Sesqui News

The Sesqui-Centennial Executive Committee met Monday evening at Headquarters at 7 p. m.

Most of the discussion centered about plans for parking, parade line-up, police coverage and hospitality for visiting dignitaries. Plans are progressing very well and all committees are hard at work.

Business people are reminded again to make plans for window displays. Some are already in place or at least begun. We know that Andover will be all sharpened up for her birthday party. Some of the gifts for the Queen Candidates have been turned in, so we know that many more will be coming along soon.

Some of the 40%'s are coming also, and there's room for many more. The Celebration is still in the expensive phase. It takes money to make money, and we want to be able to turn a profit to the Medical Center.

Don't forget to vote — Friday, July 26. Also Motorcade Friday night. Meet at ACS at 7 to go to Hornell, Canisteo, Almond and maybe a surprise.

"Dress-Up" Day again Friday and the Kangaroos will be keeping on Saturday. Sunday there is a dinner to honor the Queen Candidates. There is also a picnic to honor Father Joe. Remember you are all invited. Bring a dish to pass.

MOTORCADES

Friday July 26th, a motorcade will depart from the ACS Parking Lot at 7:00 p. m. for Canisteo, Hornell and Almond. Some cars had Posters or Banners advertising the Sesqui-Centennial last Friday evening. On this week's motorcade, let's try to have more Posters ad-Advertising the Sesqui-Centennial or your Chapter's name.

The Whitesville, Greenwood, Jasper tour was very successful and the motorcade well received in each community. Approximately 35 cars were in last Friday's motorcade. The next evening a smaller, yet lively contingent made an appearance at Woodhull Raceway.

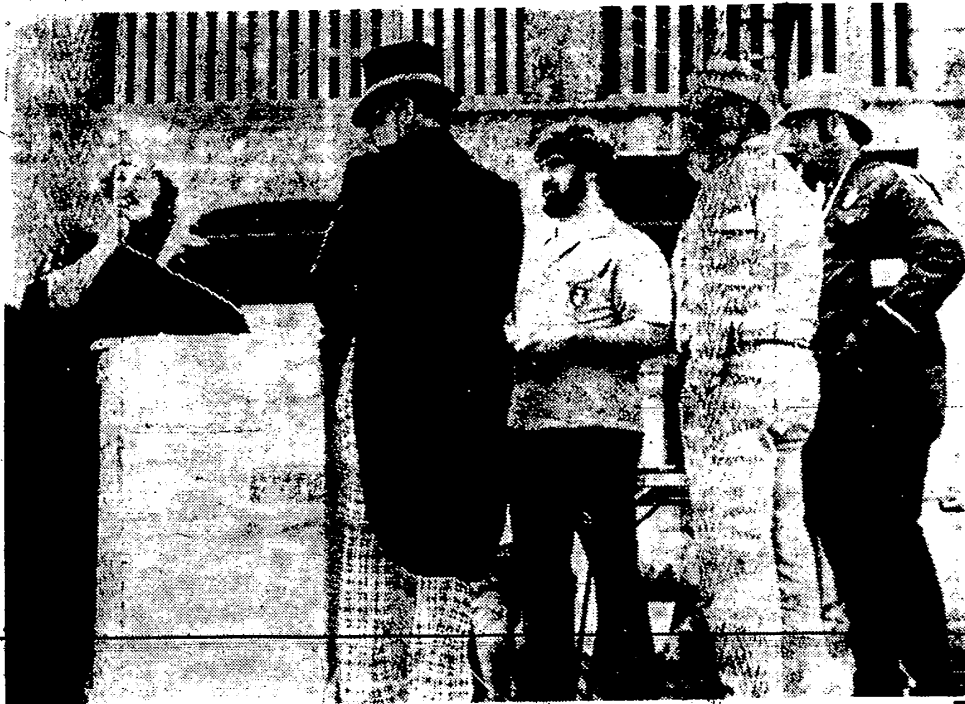

The motorcades this Friday will further promote the Sesqui-Centennial. Let's strive for as great or greater participation as we had last Friday evening. People in each community visited so far expressed great surprise in number of people in motorcades and the colorful clothing.

There will be no Belle or Brother of the Brush participation in the parade at Friendship on Friday, July 26th.

...STYLE SHOW NEEDS HELP...

The Committee for the Sesqui-Style Show needs a few more girls to be models for the Show on Tuesday, August 13th at ACS.

Since several of the fashions we have are smaller sizes — young women about 5 ft. 4" or taller and with waist measurements 21" to 24" are needed. If interested please call Edith Wallace 478-8781.

STILL-SEEKER'S MEMBER CARMINE CEGLIA REALLY COME'S UP WITH A FIRST! Carmine, dubbed "Leo the Lip" (for obvious reasons), shot up the Kangaroo Court Personnel with his trusty "Matt Dillon Special" (a water pistol) and was ordered to be subdued in the "Stocks" by a husky Keystone Kop to await trial later in the afternoon. Pranksters proceeded to cause Leo the Lip with water balloons while he was imprisoned in the stocks.
