"STILL-SEEKERS"

Well folks you missed a hell of a good game last week between the Streakers of the Brush and the No. 1 Chapter — Still-Seekers, and you guessed it, the Still-Seekers won. The score was 12 to 9. We sure enjoyed playing someone that knew what they were doing — good game Streakers.

Well we have noticed that all you writing Brushes have gone into retirement. Let's get on the ball. Leo needs somebody to get after.

To the Ding-Bats — don't worry about the famous Still-Seekers we are around and it was nice to see that you consider us famous. We accept your compliment. We are sorry we couldn't make it to your contest, but we had other commitments. You know how it is?

"RIVER-GAMBLERS"

"RIVER-BOAT BELLES"

The River Gamblers and River Boat Belles gathered at the Don Gavin garage after their Chicken-Bar-B-Que was completed on Wednesday evening.

Allison Davis our Queen Candidate was with us. We discussed her heritage and find that Allison is the fourth generation of her family on both her Father's and Mother's side to live in Andover. Allison graduated from Andover this past June after attending all her school years here. Shortly before graduation Allison started working for her Uncles, Jim and Charley Joyce at Joyce Western Corporation doing clerical work and she plans to continue to work there. When you go to the polls, Allison and our groups would appreciate your support.

We are busy shaping up the plans for our float for the big parade on August 17 which will soon be here.

Two of our faithful members did very well at the Bean Bag Throw. Bob Dunham and Duff Kibbe. We are proud of this, but saddened to learn that Bob put his winnings on the bench in front of him — turned to speak to friends and when he reached for his money someone had beat him to it! Too bad Bob — better keep your money in your hot little paddy from now on.

Thanks to everyone for your support at our Chicken Bar-B-Que — and only two more to enjoy. We are hoping to be able to take in some of the activities the week of the Centennial — so NO Bar-B-Que on the 14th of August.

Appreciation

I would like to express my sincere thanks to our Andover Ambulance Crew and a special thank you to Merle Fox, Gary Hoagland, Jim Haugh and Douglas Miller.
