

Greenwood News

National competition routine. The Desperados range in age from 4-17.

Greenwood Central School Band marched in the Sesqui-Centennial Parade at Andover Saturday and were presented the Second Place Award. The Firemen entered their 1917 truck which was the oldest fire truck in the parade. The local Chapters of the Brothers-of-the-Brush, were also well represented.

The Administrative Board of the United Methodist Church met at the Church Monday evening, August 19.

Sunday, Mrs. Cynthia Bentley played the organ for the Prelude and Offertory. Lisa Woodworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Woodworth, played the organ for the special number.

Miss Judy York has accepted a position of Librarian Assistant in New Industrial Materials Center at Rochester School for the Deaf.

Miss York is a graduate of the Rochester School for the Deaf, attended Gauladet College at Washington, D. C., and has 30 hours credit in Librarians Courses at Mansfield State Teachers College at Mansfield, Pa. She has had eight years experience as Assistant Librarian under her mother, Mrs. Virginia York at Greenwood Central School. She goes for an orientation period August 28, 29, and 30. Miss York has an apartment across the road from the school. Congratulations to Judy York on her new position.

James Murphy was not tall enough to qualify for a Military Police, so both James and Bradley Clarke have signed up to take the Drafting Course at Fort Dix, N. J. Jim has had some experience in Drafting in BOCES.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Akers and daughter returned to their home at Richmond, Va., Friday after spending some time visiting her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamphier. They also spent some time at Delevan, visiting her mother, Mrs. Claude Daggett and sister, Miss Charlotte Daggett and in Buffalo visiting a sister, Mrs. Caruana. Also Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Caruana, Jr., and two children of Buffalo, visited his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamphier last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shaut are on a vacation trip to Nova Scotia in their camper.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hawkins of Ontario, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray and took their son, David home after a week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith and two children spent Saturday at Fantasy Island to celebrate the birthday of their son, Dennis.

Mrs. Roberta Stillman moved from Danville, July 29 to the former Homer Banks house now owned by her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt. Mrs. Stillman is spending some time in Buffalo helping a daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond attended the Pageant of Steam at Canadigua recently.

Mrs. Pearl Hillman returned home from the St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell, Thursday, after a week.

Mrs. Lena Turner was incorrectly reported in the St. James Mercy Hospital, and was taken to the Bethesda Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mullen, Sr. went to Camp Gorton on Waneta Lake for the Staff Show Thursday night. They went to Camp Gorton Friday night and took Michael Holt for the Camp Fire Ceremony.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cook took their daughter, Deborah and Polly Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Edwards of West Union, to the Rochester Airport. The girls flew to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. They were met by Deborah's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ingalls who took them to their home at Lawton, Oklahoma to spend a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Donaldson and sons, George and John left Sunday morning to return to their winter home at Rock Ledge, Florida after spending the summer in Greenwood. Their niece and husband of Alfred followed them down for a two weeks vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brown entertained their family Sunday at an outdoor picnic dinner at their home with all but their oldest daughter, Mrs. Jennie Coddinton and family. Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Drake and seven children of Canisteo; Mr. and Mrs. James Ahearn and six children of Rexville; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Emppson and four children of Andover; Mr. and Mrs. William O'Rourke and two children of Hornell; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Streeck and two children of Pleasant Plains, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cole and two children of Syracuse and Miss Roseta Brown.

Mrs. Daniel Canty of Belmont was a Friday luncheon guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McDonough and took her mother shopping. Mrs. Winifred Saunders of Rexville was also a Friday caller at the McDonough home.

Former Andover Man Receives Promotion

Joseph A. Yannie, son of Mrs. Emilio Yannie of West Center St., who was raised and brought up in Andover, has recently received the appointment as Manager of Component Development, A-47 Office, Group IV Directorate for the "Aerospace Corporation" in El Segundo, California.

Mr. Yannie has been a "Member of the Technical Staff" for the last several years after having joined the Aerospace Corporation in October, 1964. Previously he was employed as a Senior Field Service Representative with the Defense System Department of the General Electric Company at Vandenberg Air Force Base.

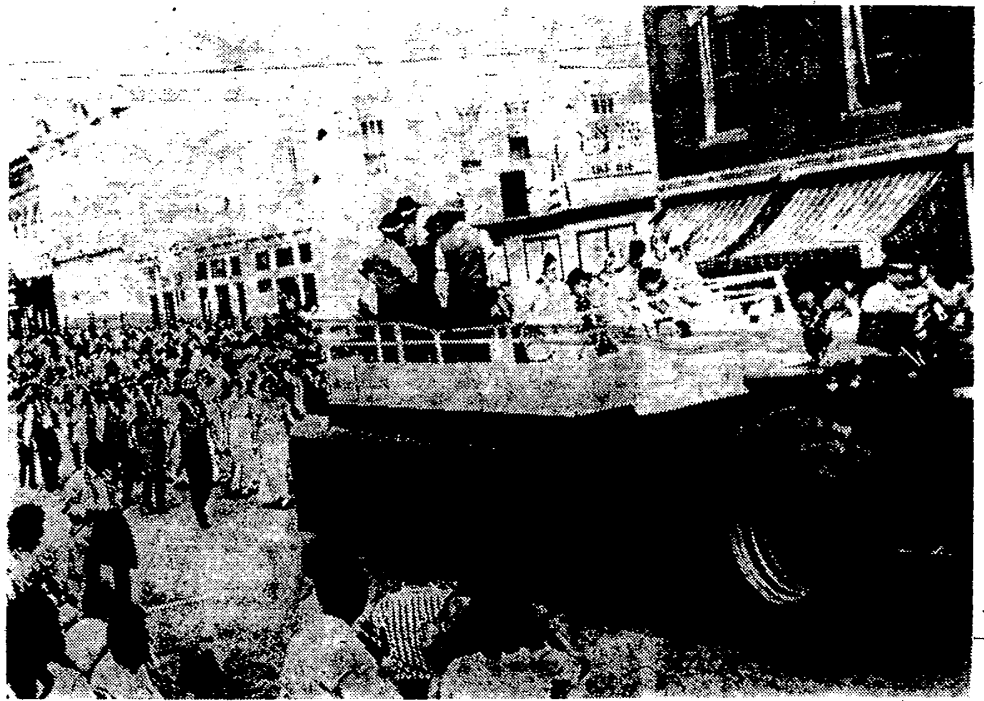

Mr. Yannie received his B. S. degree in Physical Science from the California State Polytechnic University at San Luis Obispo. He is a member of the American Institute of Astronautics and Aeronautics and the California Society of Professional Engineers.

Named To Dean's List

Lynn Panton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Panton has been named to the Dean's List for the Spring Semester at Syracuse University, majoring in Home Economics Education. She dully enrolled in the School of Education in the College of Human Developments.

Miss Panton had an average of 3.88 out of a 4.0 average. She will be a Senior this Fall.

Commercial Printing at The News Printing House.

The River Gamblers and River Boat Belles Float that won the 1st Place Trophy in the "Best Appearing" Class. News Photo

ANDOVER

QUAKER STATE

We Specialize In:

SHOCKS AND TIRES
MUFFLERS AND PIPES
WHEEL ALIGNMENT
FRONT END PARTS

BRAKES
TUNE-UP
ALTERNATORS
CARBURETORS

COOLING SYSTEMS
WHEEL BALANCING
NEW CAR SERVICE
AIR CONDITIONERS

"OVER 15 YEARS EXPERIENCE"

In Auto Mechanic Field

We Have Modern Equipment To Service Your Car!

Won't You Come In and Give Us A Chance To Serve You?

Bob Butler, prop. — Corner of Rt. 21 & Rt. 17 — Phone (607) 478-8401

QUAKER STATE MOTOR OIL