

Cavanaugh-Gavin Exchange Vows In California Naval Chapel

Mrs. Robert D. Cavanaugh

The Chapel of the Naval Station, Treasure Island, San Francisco, California, was the setting on July 24, 1974 for the early evening wedding of Miss Kathryn Gavin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gavin of Grove Street Andover and ETR'S Robert D. Cavanaugh of Wellsville, New York. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cavanaugh of the Welmer Trailer Court, Wellsville, New York.

The Rev. Kevin J. Cortney celebrated the Mass for the double ring ceremony.

The bride chose a floor length gown of white polyester acetate over taffeta. The bodice was a bubble acetate with short puffed sleeves edged in white ruffles ruffling. The high neckline and waistline were adorned in white floral lace with white pull-through ribbon. The full skirt ended with a deep matching flounce. Her headpiece was a white garden hat adorned with Alencon lace which featured a large bow of bridal illusion ending in fingertip streamers. She chose red roses for her flowers.

Miss Cecilia Gavin, of Grove Street, Andover, accompanied her sister to California and was her only attendant. Her gown was identical to the bride's only of turquoise blue. Her headpiece was a garden hat which matched the color of her gown. She selected a single pink rose.

ETR'S Michael Jones of Palm-dale, California, was best man for Mr. Cavanaugh. Photographer for the occasion was SN John J. Jastrum of Atlantic Highlands, New Jersey.

The bride was a 1973 graduate of Andover Central School and before going to California, was employed at Grastorf Associates in Wellsville, New York. Her husband is a 1970 alumni of Wellsville High School and had attended Allied University. Bob was previously employed at Short's Service Station on the Andover Road, before entering the Navy.

The bride was entertained at showers given by Mrs. Charles Gavin and Mrs. James Gavin at her home on East Greenwood Street in Andover. A shower in her honor at the home of Mrs.

George Cavanaugh, given by Mrs. Leah Dillon at the Cavanaugh home. Also a shower given by Miss Rose Billings and Miss Cecilia Gavin, at her home in Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Cavanaugh are residing at 69 Tinian Road, Midway Village, Daly City, California.

The couple will be honor guests at a reception to be held in Andover upon their planned visit to the area later in the fall.

Receives B.A. Degree

An estimated 868 students received degrees in July at the University of Iowa. University-wide commencement exercises are not held in July, but several of U of I colleges held brief recognition ceremonies for their graduates.

Timothy Wahl, Andover, R. D. 1, received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Speech and Dramatic Art.

Diplomas are being mailed to those graduating students who did not pick them up July 29.

The July graduates as well as those to be graduated in the winter, will be invited to participate in spring commencement exercises to be held May 17, 1975.

"THE PLAYERS" Elect Officers

THE PLAYERS, the Wellsville-based amateur drama group held their first meeting of the season, Monday evening at the Nancy Howe Library. William Heaney was elected President for the 1974-75 season; John Boyle, Vice-President; Diane Converso, Secretary and Ray Stevens, Treasurer.

Any persons interested in directing productions and presenting plays for consideration should contact Mr. Heaney at 365-2996 or Mr. Stevens, at Stevens Fashions in Wellsville by September 8th.

At the next general meeting plays and directors will be selected and tryout dates announced.

The Wellsville Volunteer Fire Department that won the $60 First Prize in the "Marching Unit" category in the Andover Sesqui-Centennial Parade. News Photo

The Canisteo American Legion Color Guard that won First Prize in that Division. News Photo

The Greenwood Fire Department Truck that won First Prize for the "Oldest Apparatus" in the Parade. News Photo

Use the Classified Ad Section. Keep On Buying Savings Bonds.