A Parents' Booster Club for the School Band and the annual PTA Membership Drive were among the topics discussed during the regular business meeting of the Greenwood Parent Teachers Association last Thursday evening.

Scott Kickbush, band director and instrumental music teacher, announced plans to form a booster club for the marching band. Parents of band members are invited to attend a meeting scheduled for Tuesday evening, October 8 at 7:30 p. m., at the school. Mr. Kickbush reports there is a need for help remaking and making new band uniforms. The parents will also be asked to serve as chaperons on the trips with the band and help during the practice sessions of the marching band.

In announcing the kickoff of the Annual Membership Drive, Mrs. Mattie Lounsberry, Chairman, reported a splash party in the school swimming pool will be the reward for the class or classes with the highest parental membership in the Greenwood PTA.

With the students helping to win over parents, the membership committee is conducting the Annual Drive from September until November 26. The drive which started Thursday evening with the enrollment of dues paying members, will be continued at the Annual Open House to be held in November. Those parents wishing to join may send their dues to Mrs. Mattie Lounsberry, R.D. 1, Greenwood, N. Y. The membership dues are $1.00 per person.

Funds collected through dues and fund raising projects are used for various programs in the Greenwood School. In prior years the group has sponsored a milk program for deserving children in the lower grades; provided material and assisted teachers in making visual aid material for use in the class room; provided special movie presentations; and given awards at graduation.

Meetings during the past years have acquainted the parents with the almost unique media centers of the school; demonstrated to parents the workings of the departmentalization program in grades four through seven; and held panel discussions with students, teachers and parents. Each year one meeting is given over to a workshop to help teachers prepare classroom materials.

A Family Fun Night is once again being planned which opens the gymnasium and swimming facilities to the parents and teachers for an evening of fun.

The organization is a member of both State and National Parent Teachers Associations.

The Membership Committee will close the drive this year during the last half of November with a personal canvas of parents in the District.

Plans for the up-coming Fund Raising Dinner were also discussed at the Thursday meeting. The PTA committees and Scholarship Fund Committee will meet Tuesday, October 1 at 8 p. m., at the school to work on plans for the dinner.

Any person who is not already a member of the committee and would like to help with the dinner is welcome to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Juanita Pulos, vocal music teacher, invited parents to join with the high school Chorus in singing at the Annual Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Following the business portion of the meeting, Principal Gary Moore, introduced the members of the faculty.

The next regular meeting date will be the Annual Open House to be held during American Education Week in November.

Children's Pictures This Year Taken In Color

For many years the News has been running a pictorial feature of the youngsters in this area as "Citizens of Tomorrow". In the near future we will again be publishing free a picture of all the children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the following locations:

GREENWOOD - Friday, Oct. 11, 1974 - 1 to 6 P. M., at the Town Hall.

ANDOVER - Monday, Oct. 14 1 to 6 P. M. at the Grange Hall.

LIVING COLOR

An expert children's photographer will take the pictures to assure uniform quality and size for best reproduction - and this year will be taken in natural living color. Please dress your children colorfully to take full advantage of the beauty of color photography. The pictures will run in black and white in the newspaper.

NO COST TO PARENTS

There are absolutely no strings to this invitation nor are there any charges to the parents - they do not have to be subscribers or even readers of this newspaper to participate. Neither are the parents obligated to purchase any of the color pictures taken.

Those who might desire color photographs may obtain them by making arrangements with the Studio Representative when they select the pose they wish to see printed in the News.

There is no age limit and older children and family groups are especially welcome.

APPOINTMENTS

Appointments may be made by calling - Greenwood - Brenda Cady - 225-9975 Andover - Mrs. Paul Neuroth - (478-4904)

While appointments are not necessary to have your children photographed it could avoid your having to wait. Check this date on your calendar now and help us make this a memorable community feature.

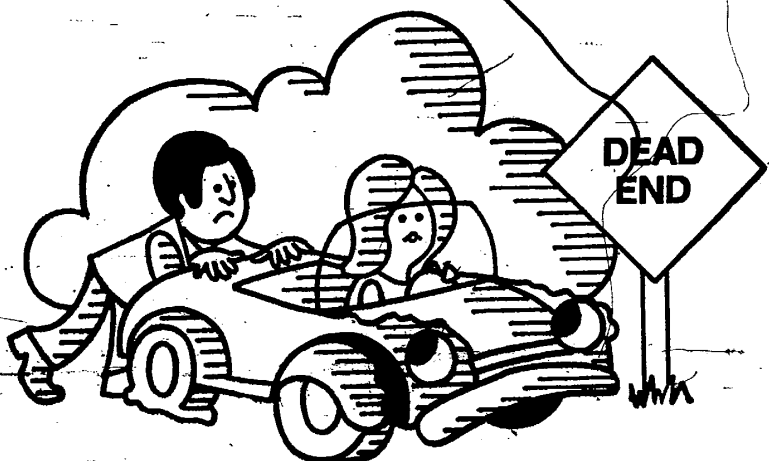

Photography will be handled by the Dansville, N. Y., office of Woltz Studios, Inc.
