It seems I was sitting in class the other day and being thoroughly bored and generally disinterested at the time, I started wondering what I was doing here in this class.

I was thinking of all the things I could do other than sit and sleep in a hard chair with my nose in some educational text book. Why wasn't I out on the fresh air taking a hike or hunting or even doing some work around the house or yard? I could probably be off somewhere earning a little of that green stuff that people rely on so heavily these days. It would be so great if I could just slip out and find some secluded place where I could think or write or read, maybe even pick on the guitar. I wouldn't have minded finding someone to engage in a deep, pensive, philosophical discussion. There's been endless questions milling and churning in my head that I could get straightened out if I weren't sitting here in a classroom at a hard desk with my eyes burning out from reading the minute print of this text book.

The trouble is I have all this nervous energy I'd like to get rid of if I could walk or talk or something! Even if I go talk to the principal or some teacher, I would be happy, but you usually have to get into trouble to do that, and then it isn't the kind of talk you wanted to do.

Anyway, after I had thought it over and having seen that there were only five or ten minutes left in the period, I decided that maybe I ought to pay a little attention to the class and try to get interested. Now you ask, "why?" The truth of the matter was there was at least the next day. Most of you should understand that.

Panther Prowl CROSS COUNTRY

by John Davis

On Tuesday, October 22, Andover traveled to Alfred-Almond for a double-dual meet with Scio and Alfred-Almond. Andover gave its best performance of the year even though they were competing without the services of Russ Goddowen, Chris Mattison and Marty Grossman. Charlie Dougherty, by his tremendous work, came through to place second. Other Andover places were:

John Davis — fourth
Scott Wilson — eighth
Terry McCormick — Twenty-third
Andy Jackson — Twenty-fifth

Andover was defeated by A-A, but came through to beat Scio and moved into fourth place in the County.

Then on Friday, October 25, Andover went back to Alfred-Almond for a meet with Friendship and A-A. Again Andover was beaten by Alfred-Almond, but defeated Friendship by a close margin. Andover's late blooming superstar, Charlie Dougherty gave a repeat performance of Tuesday's meet, cutting almost twenty seconds off his time. Charlie took third place, with John Davis fifth; Scott Wilson, eleventh; Chris Mattison, nineteenth and Andy Jackson, twentieth.

On Tuesday, October 29, Andover traveled to Bolivar for the Conference Championship where they clinched fourth place by defeating Scio and Friendship by more than thirty points. Andover's John Davis and Charlie Dougherty each brought home trophies for sixth and eighth places, respectively. The Conference Champs, Alfred-Almond only captured one place in the top ten.

Andover then went to the Sectionals on Saturday, November 2, where they defeated six of the twenty-one teams. With an outstanding performance, Charlie Dougherty took thirty-fourth place out of approximately one hundred and forty runners. Andover will finish their season November 9 at Eisenhower College.

Learning Festival And Book Fair

Andover Parents-Teachers-Students Organization will sponsor a Learning Festival from November 20 to November 23. Students will be able to browse and purchase educational material. The Learning Festival will be open on November 20, 21, and 22 between the hours of 8:45 and 4:00. Material will be on display in the Elementary Library. Thursday, November 21, the Learning Festival will also be held at Open House 7-9 p. m., in the Cafeteria.

There will be magnifiers, simple science experiments, dinosaurs magnets and motors, spelling games, nature collections, history and geography activities, number games, educational handicrafts and many other materials representing all areas of interest to children. Materials may be purchased at popular prices. This is a convenient, easy and pleasant way to provide your children with meaningful learning materials. Wonderful gifts, too.

The Learning Festival Committee invites all students, parents and visitors to attend the Festival. The event will not only help arouse student interest in learning, but will also contribute to a worthwhile project. The school profits from all sales, and the proceeds will be used for the Library Council.

A Book Fair of paperbacks will also be held at the same time.

The Girls' Soccer Team closed the season in third place in the league, after trying their best in all games.

After losing October 22 to Richburg with a 3 - 2 score, Teresa Joyce and Diane Bliss having made the scores, the Andover girls came back and defeated Friendship. The score was 3 - 1 with two goals made by Kathy Haskins and one by Cherie Haskins.

This game earned the team a tie for second place. The girls had hoped for a victory over Belmont for the second place in the league. However, the girls lost 1 - 0 and finished their season with a 7-3-1 record. It was the best season the girls' soccer team has ever had. Congratulations!

Special thanks to Miss Troxell for her fine coaching. Also special thanks to Tracy Grossman and Pam Briggs for being ball girls, and also to Mr. Carmody, Miss Goodrich, Mrs. Copp and Mrs. Peterson for all the support and coaching we needed to have such a season.

Junior High FHA

by Cindy Tomm

The Jr High Future Homemakers of America has been formed recently. However, if any girls still wish to join, they should do so by November 15.

On November 19, this new organization will have a swimming and record hop party. Each FHAer may bring one girl guest. The admission will be twenty-five cents for members and fifty cents for guests. All members are also asked to sign up to bring in refreshments. The party will begin at 6:00 and end at 8:30. Get those dues in now and become an FHAer

On November 13 the Central Western B District will hold its annual Fall Rally. This year it will be at Rushford from 1:30 - 4:00. The theme is "Increasing Membership", with the guest speaker, Amy Nelson, FHA National Vice-President.

It should prove to be an excellent program.

Vacations

The students and faculty will enjoy several days of vacation in November. There is no school on Monday, November 11 due to the observance of Veterans Day. The following Monday, November 18, is the first day of Deer Season and there is no school. At the end of the month there is a Thanksgiving Vacation on November 28 and 29
