Andover Couple Exchange Vows In Double Ring Ceremony

The Hallport Wesleyan Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Penny Jean Matison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Matison of the Elm Valley Road, and Carl Franklin Densmore, Jr., at 7 p. m. August 10, 1974. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lois Densmore of Andover.

The Rev. Wilbur Beers, pastor performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with baskets of yellow and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a formal gown of Chantilly lace over tulle, featuring a high stand-up collar enhanced with a bow, and fitted sleeves with ruffled cuffs. The bodice was highlighted with a Chantilly lace ruffle forming a yoke, and a satin bow with long streamers accented the waistline of the A-Line skirt that ended in a Chantilly ruffled chapel train. She selected a floral petal Chantilly lace and pearl headpiece, to secure her elbow-length veil of tiered English illusion bordered with lace. She chose a bouquet of white daisies and baby's breath centered with red roses which were given to the couple's mothers and grandmothers during the ceremony.

Mrs. Brian Weiss of Wellsville was Maid-of-Honor for her sister. She chose a floor-length gown of yellow tulle featuring a faced bodice, square neckline, and long, full sleeves. A satin bow adorned the back. She chose a Juliet veil, and carried a bouquet of daisies and baby's breath, tinted yellow to match her gown.

The Misses Janice and Jeannette Densmore, sisters of the bridegroom, and Debra Wallace, all of Andover, served as bridesmaids. Each was attired similarly to the Matron-of-Honor, in green, and carried a bouquet of daisies and baby's breath, tinted to match their gowns.

Jerry Colburn of Wellsville, was best man. Ushers were Dan Densmore of Shinglehouse, Pa., and Cleon Densmore of Andover, brother's of the bridegroom and Paul Bailey, also of Andover.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the Andover Grange Hall. The bride, a 1972 graduate of Andover Central School, is employed at Mary's Nursing Home in Wellsville.

The bridegroom attended the same school. He is a press man at the American The Co., in Olean. Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the couple is residing at 27 North Main St., Andover.

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation to all my friends, neighbors and relatives who called on me and also for the cards and gifts I received on my 90th birthday.
