Independence Has A Glorious Thanksgiving

A day of dedication was manifested unto the Lord by the brothers and sisters of the Mennonite faith as they rededicated the church in Independence community.

Ninety years ago, after fire destroyed the meeting house of the Seventh Day Baptist, they rebuilt with faith and hope and love. And the building became a new house of God.

The Seventh Day Baptist brothers and sisters in recent years have become few in numbers. So, with the influx of several Mennonite families, the need for a place of worship for the Mennonite community was recognized. A transfer of properties was made late in 1973. Alterations were made, including a lowered ceiling with inset lighting in the sanctuary and a full basement with Sunday School rooms and a dining area with kitchen.

Rev. Floyd Aldrich of Andover is acting as pastor to the S.D.B. congregation who still use the church for their services on Saturdays.

Robert Buckwalter and Glenn Brubaker, co-pastors of the Independence Gospel Fellowship Church were assisted at the morning Dedication Service by Rev. Floyd Aldrich and Harold Lefever, Melvin Kauffman, Bishop of the Penn-York District gave the Dedication Message.

A Thanksgiving tureen dinner at noon allowed everyone present an opportunity to appreciate the new basement dining room area.

At the afternoon Thanksgiving Service, Carl Cristman, the Warriors, Harold Lefever and Robert Buckwalter assisted. Testimonials were offered by members of the congregation and the Thanksgiving Message was given by Irvin Weaver.
