

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

The Senior Citizens met Wednesday at the United Methodist Church for their Christmas Turkey Dinner served to 51 members and guests by hostess: Rachel Wallace, Cora Heckman, Bernice Osmin, Helen Russell and Sarah Terbury. Prayer was given by the Rev. Ray Abbaugh. President Sarah Terbury was in charge of the business meeting. She thanked Carroll Wallace for plowing the church parking lot. As New Year's Day comes on the first Wednesday of January it was decided to cancel the January meeting.

Members brought a dollar instead of the gift exchange and $30 was given to the committee: Florence Wilson, Pertaglia White and Marian Hussey. They are to decide what families and buy supplies for Christmas baskets. For the program Mrs. Albert Lamphier showed slides of their travels in New York State and Virginia.

The United Methodist Church School program, "Star of Joy" will be given next Sunday, December 15 at the 9:45 p. m. Worship Service. The Choir and congregation will participate.

Christmas parties for Nursery through 5th Grade will be at the Church Saturday, December 14 from 2:00 - 3:30 p. m.

Cluster 5 Methodist Churches representatives met at the Greenwood Church, Sunday, afternoon 3:30 - 5:00 p. m.

Following the morning worship at the United Methodist Church Virgil Hussey was chairman of a congregational meeting. Nominations for Church Officers were accepted including Charles Smith and Clarence Stephens for a three year term as Trustees and Marian Hussey and Stanley Smith, members of the Nominating Committee for three years.

A budget of $7,984.00 was accepted which is $530 more than this year. The pastor's salary was raised 200 to $3,200; his travel allowance raised $100 to $500 and parsonage utilities increased $60 to $360; Church utilities were raised $100 to $750.

The United Methodist Women will meet at the Church next Thursday, December 19 at 1:00 p. m. Members and friends are asked to bring cookies, fruit or candy for Christmas Boxes for shut-ins. All contributions are accepted. For the program, ladies are to bring a Christmas selection.

A Union Christmas Service of Song and Praise will be held at the United Methodist Church, Sunday, December 22 at 8 p. m., with the RLDS Church.

The Church School of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will hold their Christmas program at the December 22 Worship Hour of 11:00 a. m.

Cafeteria Menus at Greenwood Central School for the week of December 9 - 13 are:

MONDAY - Hot Meat Sandwich, Raisin Batter Bread, Buttered Corn, Fruit, Milk choc or white

TUESDAY - Juice, Hamburg on Roll, French Fries, Cake, choc or white MILK

WEDNESDAY - Juice, Turkey with Gravy, Mashed Potatoes, Buttered Green Beans, Cranberry Sauce, Rolls Peanut Butter Dessert, Milk choc or white

THURSDAY - Pizza, Potato Sticks, Tossed Salad, Fruit, Milk choc or white

FRIDAY - Macaroni & Cheese, Egg Salad Sandwich, Stewed Tomatoes, Fruit Milk, choc or white

Dates To Remember - Friday, Dec. 13 - School Musical "Winnie The Pooh"; Dec. 16 Monday night - Adult Education Organization Meeting at the School, Dec. 18, Thursday at 7:45 - Christmas Music Program, A Greenwood Pop and Jazz Ensemble was formed in October consisting of Mike Murchy, Keyboard; Howard Moore, Electric Bass; John Edwards, Guitar and Jim Putnam, Percussion. They will have a concert in March or April.

December 10 Elder Robert Banta issues are being discussed by the speaker at the 11 o'clock worship service at the RLDS Church. Mr. and Mrs. Banta and daughter will be week-end guests of Elder and Mrs. Terry Smith and family

A variety shower for Leroy and Ginny Bassett will be held at the RLDS Church basement Sunday December 15 at 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were married August 29 and he is working for a farmer in Wellsville.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCormick of Niagara Falls were guests of his sister Miss Teresa McCormick and brother, Ted McCormick, at Rexville. While there he received word of the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Dixon, Carry of Bath. The funeral was Saturday at Bath. Attending were: Mr and Mrs. James McCormick, Miss Teresa McCormick, Theodore McCormick, Mrs. Claude Wallace and Mrs. Linford Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson and family of Meadville, Pa., were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Wilson.

James Murphy M. P. of Fort Campbell Ky., was home from Wednesday to Saturday at Thanksgiving. He had been hospitalized with pneumonia. He was with his family Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy of Rock Creek.

Carol Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cook spent Wednesday night with her great-grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Cook and from Thursday night to Saturday of Thanksgiving week with her grandmother, Mrs. Winova Cook at Jasper.

Mrs. Elizabeth Canty of Belmont and Dan Canty of Buffalo, were Thanksgiving guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. William McDonough. Mrs. Canty came Friday afternoon to help her mother. Mr. McDonough is in failing health.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamphier were in Canisteo Sunday-afternoon to attend the rehearsal program of the Hornell Chorus giving the "Messiah" at the Central School.

Mr and Mrs. Arthur Mays and three daughters of Canehtawaga were week-end guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fitzpatrick.

Greenwood Central School News

The Honor Roll for the first marking period has been released by the Greenwood Central School.

HIGH HONOR

GRADE 7 - Gina Ahearn, Rosetta Brown, Hugh Cornell, Bonnie Dennison, Gary Edwards, Thomas Harkenrider, Michael Hulse, Scott Kirk, William Lichty, Michael Putnam, Ronald Warriner

GRADE 8 - David Adderly, Jeffrey Ahearn, James Putnam

GRADE 9 - Annette Ahearn, Sandra Dennison, Howard Moore, Lorne Wright

GRADE 10 - Joel Good, Denise Higgins, Susan Hunt, Narda Mitchell

GRADE 11 - Deborah Cook, Cindy Dennison, Kris Dytche, Joel Harris, Dennise Hoyt, Florence Mullen, Laura Wright

GRADE 12 - Deborah Babcock, Joan Bennett, Romona Ellis, Carol Mann, Jeanne Harbach, Eileen McCormick, Laurie O'Brien, Teri Rollins, Lori Siebert, Cindy Sunderlin, Debra York

HONOR

GRADE 7 - Leon Jarrabet, Lori Lamphier, Dean Mitchell, Melinda Moore, Kelly Murphy, Sandra Skroll, Shellie Simonini, Mark Wallace

GRADE 8 - Thomas Babcock, Cindy Detandt, Cindy Dytche, Sherry Gauss, Ana Harbach, Sandra Hunt, Capille McCormick, Kevin Moore, Twila Neumannsunder, Martha York, Kathy Zuehlin

GRADE 9 - Anita Neenach-

From Our Files

Andover Rebekah Lodge will be held December 17. The members will enjoy a Christmas program and tree. Each one is requested a bring a ten cent present, wrapped and ready to hang on the tree. Tidbits From Our School - The Freshmen held their first party Friday night, December 4. It proved to be a huge success. Dancing was the main feature followed by a delicious lunch by Mary Cable. The Misses Wright, Cross, Fish and Harris acted as chaperones for the young people.

Kenneth Alvord captured his ankle in basketball practice last Thursday night and has not been out since. A number of the high school students accompanied the basketball team to Almond last Saturday night to witness the game between Almond and Andover. Almond won the game 26 to 18. Andover's line up was: Downer, Horpoff, Church, Rogers, Rowland and Livermore.

Howard Dean and Anthony Downer made a trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls last week remaining in the latter city. Anthony is working in the Niagara Electric Power and Light Plant in Niagara.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beach and Karlton of Hornell, passed Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Spicer of Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Updyke and son and Mrs. Anna Wallace of Barney Mills were in Canisteo, Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Brundage and Mrs. Raymond Snyder were business visitors in Hornell the first of the week.

The Steuben Presbytery held a meeting at the Andover Presbyterian Church, Thursday afternoon and evening. The Kings Daughters served a 6:30 dinner.

Miss Radah Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Scott of Cuba and Arthur William Henning of Scranton, Pa., were married November 28.

DeWitt W. Wheaton, 66, died December 9 at the Hurst Farm on Greenwood Hill. Surviving are his wife, two sons Warren and Edwin, two sisters and two brothers. Burial was in the Mead Cemetery at Greenwood Hill.

Rev. Royal MacGowan has accepted the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church at Coudersport, Pa., and begins his work there next week.

Rev. H. D. Bacon, former minister of the Andover Presbyterian Church, now at Portville, has received a call to Port Henry, N. Y.

40 YEARS AGO

November 16, 1934

J. H. Backus & Son Publishers. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Casey and Dr. Howard Leahy are moving from the Horan house on Chestnut Street into the J. P. Smith residence on Main Street, recently vacated by undertaker F. C. Mulholland and family. Dr. Leahy will also move his office from West Center Street to a suite in the Smith property. The change of residence of Dr. Leahy will occur during the latter part of this week and the office will be moved next week.

Friday evening, November 9 at the Legion Hall, the Auxiliary members treated the American Legion members to an Armistice Day 7 o'clock dinner. Mrs. C. M. Nottingham and Mrs. Ralph Burgett were the committee in charge. There were thirty-five in attendance. After the dinner, a program of readings by Mrs. Bessie Mulconery, Mrs. Roxie Shaff and Charles Hammond; recitation by R. E. Shaff and Harold Hardy; Commander C. M. Nottingham also gave an interesting talk. Cards and a social evening following the program.

Muriel Early Sheppard of Spruce Pine, N. C., was selected by J. Nelson Norwood, President of Alfred University, to represent him in the inauguration of the new wander Janine Quick, Bonnie Stebert, Donald Simonini, Douglas Warriner, Mark Zuehlin

GRADE 10 - Leon Babcock, Margaret Harbach, Barbara Miles

GRADE 11 - Candy Babcock, Polly Edwards, James Hink, Duane Loney, Larry Neehan James Siebert

GRADE 12 - Stephen Fisher, Phyllis White

President for Winthrop College at Rock Hill, S. C.

George Cook died at his home on Grove Street, Tuesday, November 14. He was born in Alfred May 20, 1855 and was united in marriage Dec. 25, 1875 to Martha Bullard, who preceded him in death.

Mrs. Charles Rogers, died November 11 in the St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell. She was born in West Bingham, Pa., April 11, 1864 and on Oct. 15, 1876 married Charles Rogers. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Emma Hurd of Andover. Victor Perkins was elected Master of Andover Grange and Gertrude elected Master of Juvenile Grange.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Hurd of Greenwood are parents of a son born November 10 at the home of Mrs. Hurd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers. He has eight grandparents.

Miss Louise Rogers was elected President of the Senior Class of Greenwood Union School.

Mrs. Louise Rogers, Norma Brundage, Pauline Rollins, Louise Hyland and Verle Warriner of Greenwood, spent Friday in Rochester.

Miss Grace Young and F. Dwight Young of Greenwood attended a Epworth League Meeting in Batavia, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ruger spent Wednesday evening in Wellsville guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Held.

Howard Perry of Buffalo passed Saturday and Sunday at his home here. Mrs. Perry and Geraldine accompanied him to Buffalo for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kemp and son, Oliver, Miss Marion Swartz and Miss Margaret Powers attended the Lacross game at Hornell Friday evening. Marion and Oliver played in the Harry Williams orchestra for the game.

Miss Helen Folsing has been appointed as Chairman of the Andover branch of the Red Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Northrup of Greenwood Hill, welcomed twin girls at their home Saturday night.

At the 4-H Club meeting held at Andover High School November 5 John Cannon was elected President; Norbert Lynch, Vice-President; Howard McAndrew, Secretary and G. E. Bretch, Local Leader.

Com. Howland and his men were busy on South Hill last week erecting snow fence.

Potatoes are now selling at 15c a bushel.

The Independence 4-H Club held a business meeting at the home of Hilda Clarke. Officers elected for the year were: President, Decatur Clarke; Vice-President, Barbara Bassett; Secretary, Hilda Clarke; Treasurer, Maxine Crandall; News Reporter, Lawrence Hawks and Cheer Leader, Gladys Drew.

Miss Doratheia Snyder of New York City was a visitor at the Folsing home from Saturday until Monday.

Dan Farwell and Dr. Robert Common spent the week-end in Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ruger and daughter, Lois spent the week-end in Rochester guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Kilder.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Snyder motored to Hornell Sunday where they called on their niece, Miss Ruby Swartz who is 14 at the home of Mrs. Snyder's sister, Mr and Mrs. G. H. Webber.

November 23, 1934

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Milligan of Chestnut Street are parents of a daughter, Marion Edith, born November 17.

Mrs. P. J. Dougherty was given a birthday surprise visit at her home on Chestnut Street Thursday evening by a party of twenty-four ladies. A family gathering and birthday dinner was enjoyed by her family on Sunday.

A. C. McFetridge, 61, of Dansville, died suddenly Sunday in West Palm Beach, Florida, where he had gone to spend the winter. He was formerly proprietor of the Fowler Variety Store. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, two sisters and a brother.

John Lewis Jr., 18, lost an eye in a hunting accident while hunting with his brother, Donald, 13, in the woods near their home in Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Atwell and children of Elm Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Green and son of East Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Neu of Shinglehouse, Pa and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Atwell of Greenwood were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Krusen of Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Nye of Rexville, are parents of a son born Friday at the St. James Mercy Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. O'Connell entertained the 500 Club at their home on Main Street Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dougherty of South Hill attended the birthday dinner of his mother, Mrs. Ella Dougherty.

Will Joyce, T. Dougherty and H. Dean of South Hill were in Alfred on business, Friday.

Mrs. Patty Wood and daughter, Margaret have returned to their home in East Valley after spending three weeks at the Eugene Hand home in Elm Valley caring for Mrs. Hand who was recovering from an operation.

Mrs. Wilson Rockwell and infant son, John, returned from the St. James Mercy Hospital Saturday to their home on South Hill.

Max Baker is assisting Abram Slocum of Voorhees Hill with his Fall work.

E. L. Kent of Wellsville has been trucking potatoes from Voorhees Hill the past week.

Miss Bertha Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher and Burnett Pritchard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Pritchard of Whitesville were united in marriage November 7.

Mr and Mrs. Denzel Baker and children and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rogers spent Sunday in Wayland guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Brewster.

Miss Mary O'Boyle attended a Health Camp Banquet at the Evergreens in Wellsville, Friday night and gave a talk on the activities of the Camp.

Wisner Cook returned Saturday University Glee Club. The trip University Blee Club. The trip included Westfield, Brocton, Silver Creek, Gowanda, Springville and Ellicottville.

Mrs. Irving Giffillan, Mrs. Anne McDonough and Mrs. James Feeley of Detroit Michigan, were calling on friends in Olean Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dawson attended the Niagara-Conesus football game at Buffalo, Sunday and also called on his brother, Emmett at Depew.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burns and daughters, Reta and Mary Teresa were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Joyce of South Hill, Sunday.

Miss Ruth Slocum passed the week-end in Hornell at the home of her aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pranger.

Prices at the Market Basket for Thanksgiving are: Lake Shore Pumpkin, 2 cans 17c; Cheese, Oswego Valley Dairy, lb. 15c; XXXX Sugar 2 pkgs. 13c; Fruit Cocktail 15c Coffee, Yellow Bag, lb. 21c; 15c; Ocean Spray Cranberry Sauce can 15c; Maraschino Cherries, 4-oz. jar 9c; Grapefruit, doz. 49c; Celery Hearts, 2 for 15c; Ham, lb. 16c; Turkey lb. 19c; Veal Roast lb. 17c; Chuck Roast lb. 14c; Spare Ribs lb. 11c; Ground Beef lb. 23c; Bacon lb. 23c.

30 YEARS AGO

November 16, 1944

Claire C. Backus, Publisher. John E. Cannon and A. D. Fuller Co-Chairmen for Andover's War Loan Drive have appointed the following committees to promote sales during the Sixth War Loan Campaign which starts November 20 and ends December 16 are: Earl J. Allen, Everett N. Cair, Arling R. Baker, Hazel Atwood Glenn E. Bretch, R. J. Sootheran, Samuel B. Crandall, John Karcenas, Frank W. Burrows and C. C. Backus. The quota for Andover, on a cash basis is $44,000 or about $60,000 maturity value.

Union Thanksgiving Services will be held in the Seventh Day Baptist Church, Wednesday, November 23 at 8 p. m. with Rev. Eugene Hoyt pastor of the Baptist Church as speaker.

There will be a reception in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Hoyt at the Baptist Church November 16 from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Carlton Green will present a lesson on making pressing pads at the next meeting of the Home Bureau, Nov. 30 at the Grange Hall. Treen dinner will be served and hostesses are: Mrs. Carl-

(Continued on Page 7)