Grocery Gems & Goodies

by Phil Fitch

Well Folks, now that Deer seasons is over with for another year perhaps things will settle down again for us and we can get back to the business on hand — namely "Grocery Goodies".

This week's biggest news is in the meat line with round steak being featured at a fantastically low price which should give people a chance to stock up a little in the freezer. Pork roasts and spare ribs are also a good buy this week as they are below the $1 a pound level although an increase is predicted in the near future.

In the produce line, citrus fruit from Florida and California are being featured and should be plentiful over the Holidays; with celery, lettuce and radishes at new low prices.

In the staples line, prices are still increasing in retail outlets for sugar but several large manufacturers have announced recent cuts in wholesale prices which should affect the market in the near future and, as buyer resistance builds up — the price is bound to decline in the future. And, don't forget to take advantage of the coffee specials this week as it is priced below 9¢ a pound with the market demand increasing all the time.

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation to all my friends and relatives for their visitations, cards, flowers and gifts I received while I was in the hospital.
