

Citizens Of Tomorrow

The above pictures of Greenwood Young People were taken by Woltz Studio last year and were supposed to have appeared in the Andover News. However, the photographer DID NOT enclose the children's or Parents' names and addresses with The pictures so we have no means of identification.

We have had several inquiries about them so are printing them for our readers convenience — and you Folks that are "in the know" will have to put your own names under them.. Fair enough? Or would you like to have us offer a free, 1-yr. Subscription to the person sending us the First Correct List and Identification of all the children in the pictures?
