

From Our Files

mira.
Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Yannie are parents of a daughter, born December 19 at Tullar Maternity Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard DeRemer of East Orange, N. J., are parents of a son, James Willard, born December 7.

A daughter, Judy Marlene, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Briggs of Rochester, December 11.

Word was received this week that Sergeant Stanley Ruger had left Shanghai, China enroute for the States.

A telephone call Monday from Wisner Cook Ph. M. 21C from San Francisco, Calif., told his parents that he had just arrived in the States and expects to be transferred to Sampson for discharge. "Wis" has been in the Pacific War Area, for 20 months.

Kalopy Karcanes Hames, Ship Cook 3rd Class, received her discharge from the Coast Guard last Saturday and arrived in Andover Wednesday of this week.

The Friendly Class of the M. E. Church will hold their Christmas Party this Thursday at 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Glenn Ruger with a Christmas Tree and exchange of gifts. Sunday School boxes will also be packed and refreshments served.

The L. L. Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Mildred Woodruff, Monday evening for a Christmas Party. A 8:30 dinner was followed by cards and the exchange of gifts from the tree. High and second high honors were awarded to Mrs. Lynn Trowbridge and Mrs. John Nobles.

Alfred McClure of Wellsville, father of Kenneth McClure of Andover, died at the Jones Memorial Hospital, December 18. Besides his son, he is survived by his wife, Grace; two daughters, Mrs. Mable Runzo of Wellsville and Mrs. Lois Baker of Skaneateles; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Martin of Wellsville and Mrs. Myrtle Jacob of Hilton and a brother, Ross of Wellsville. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Wellsville.

At a recent meeting of the 4-H Club it was reorganized December 12. The following officers were elected: President, Robert Burger; Vice-President, Robert Mangus; Secretary, Wayne Atwell; Treasurer, Robert Perry; News Reporter, Archie Baker; Song Leader, Victor Daley; Cheer Leader, Sonny Lehman.

A Hi-Herald publication including the winning editorial of three weeks previous was accepted by the Quill and Scroll Society of Northwestern University, Chicago Ill., with the result that ACS has received a Quill and Scroll Certificate and Membership in the International Honor Society for High School Journalists. One can become an individual member by doing outstanding work conforming to the requirements of the Society explained in the material which is in Mrs. McFadden's, our Advisor, ownership. When a Charter is granted the advisor of the publication, automatically becomes a member of Quill and Scroll and each school granted a Charter is send a copy of the initiation service which may be held anytime of the year. There are no dues. When a candidate is accepted for membership he pays two dollars for which he receives the gold badge of the Society, a year's subscription to the "Quill and Scroll" magazine and his individual membership certificate. The charters and certificate sent to the Hi-Herald will be framed and put on display.

December 6 a Senior Meeting was held. Mr. Cowardin, a cap and gown salesman, showed his stock of caps and gowns. After modeling one on a senior boy and girl and telling about the material of the gowns which is Palm Beach material, requiring no pressing and a collar that snaps on, he quoted prices $3 for white gowns and $1.65 for dark gowns. The Class took a vote of 100% in favor of gowns. A vote was also taken for the contest sponsored by Daughters of the American Revolution — Patricia Temple, Janice Walton and Betty Spicer, were chosen. Patricia Temple was chosen by the faculty.

The Brownells left yesterday for Daytona Beach, Florida where they will spend the winter months.

Mr. W. F. O'Connell left today to spend the holidays at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William McGee at Bedford Hills, N. Y.

George Sackett was called to Watkins Glen, N. Y., Monday by the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Emma Matthews, the result of a broken hip suffered four weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilkins of Allentown, spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Kemp.

At the Andover Treater "Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs" will be shown December 22 & 23. On December 26 "Irish Eyes Are Smiling".

December 27, 1945

James P. Dean died December 25, 1945 at his home on Chestnut Street. He was born in Andover February 19, 1877, a son of Michael and Theresa McCormick Dean. In 1901 he married Anna Leonard, who survives with the following children: James L. Dean of Buffalo, Mrs. Katherine Dawson of Hornell, Mrs. Virginia Roselli of Hornell, Mrs. Gertrude Lorow of Hornell, Dorothy, Anna and Helen all at home. PFC Lawrence Dean now in Germany and John Dear S 1C now of Luzon; six grandchildren; two brothers, Frank and Mack of Andover and one sister Mrs. Hattie Broderick of Hornell. Burial was in Gate of Heaven Cemetery.

Keith Wales, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wales, died at his home in Syracuse, December 26 from pneumonia. He was born in Andover Nov. 27, 1928 a son of Francis and Anita Hurd Wales.

who survive with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hurd of Andover and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wales of Belmont; two sisters, Lois and Gail; and two brothers, Richard and James at home. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Andover.

Lawrence Pierce Clarke, died December 24. He was born Mar. 1, 1903 at Alfred Station, a son of Roscoe and Ellenor Pierce Clarke. On August 5, 1939 he married Marie Clarke of Andover who survives with his mother and step-children Mrs. Ida Cole and Miss Edna Clair of Wellsville; Ernest Clair of Elmira; Elizabeth Clair Louis Clark, Charlotte, Irene and Philip Clark, all at home; three sisters, Mrs. Lois Hadsell of Almond, Miss Ruby Clark and Miss Rena Clark of Alfred Station and one brother, Merl Clark of Alfred Station. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery.

The pictures of Ens. Arthur R. Temple and Lt. Barbara E. Temple son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Temple appear in this week's issue of The Andover News.

Pvt. Craig Snyder is home on a delay enroute from Camp Grant Illinois to Fort Hancock, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pease are parents of a daughter born December 24 at Tullar Maternity Hospital, Wellsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Norton of Angelica are parents of a daughter, Vesta Mae, born December 26

Mrs. Norton was the former Eva Rennells of Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Sutherland of Richburg are parents of a son, Clarence Eugene, born December 21 at Tullar Maternity Hospital. Mrs. Sutherland was the former Sara Nobles of Andover.

Miss Lucille Clark of Whitesville and Donald Rowland were married December 22.

Business places in general were hard pressed Wednesday when a short circuit in the high voltage line west of Andover, sadly disrupted work in various Andover Industries. The intermittent coming and going of the electric current practically stopped work at the News Office when all work is done by electric motors; the Andover Theatre had to stop showing the Wednesday night show and postponed it until tonight (Thursday) while other business places were operating on gas, kerosene and candle lights.

Miss Catherine M. Roche of Wellsville died at her home Dec 23. She was born on South Hill, a daughter of James and Margaret Ray Roche. She is survived by a brother, Dr. William J. Roche of Buffalo. Burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Cpl Max Baker was home from Fort Wright the first of the week.

Word has been received that T-5 Clarence Carson had left Europe for home December 6 and is now awaiting his discharge from the U. S. Army.

From Navy File Clerk to Business Collège in New York City, is the transition to be made by Rose Elizabeth Yannie S1C, who was honorably discharged from the Waves at the U. S. Naval Separation Unit New York City. Miss Yannie was on active duty for 22 months working as a correspondent typist and as a file clerk. Sugar Stamp 39 will be good for 5 pounds of sugar January 1 and will have to last for a 4-month period.

Sgt. Paul Updyke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Updyke of West Union, appeared on the "Breakfast at Sardies" program last week Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coats entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beil and family of East Valley for dinner Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector Yette entertained on Christmas Day at a family dinner, Cpl. H. C. Auckland of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blowers and daughter, Joan of Perry; Mrs. Bernice Page of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Blowers and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Page.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks to all my relatives, friends and neighbors for all their kindness and sympathy during the death of my husband. A special thanks to the Wellsville Ambulance Squad and to Mr. Crowell.

Mrs. Paul Cary

For trusts and estate planning, it's the most bank for your money that offers you the most experienced service. At The Citz, you can rely on skilled professionals who handle all accounts, large and small, with efficiency, discretion and sound, conservative investment practices. And, of course, with complete confidentiality. Stop in at The Citz and talk with our trust officers. They'll work for your best interest.

The most bank for your money.

THE CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST COMPANY
A FULL SERVICE BANK

Member F.D.I.C. and Federal Reserve System

Wellsville - Andover - Alfred - Whitesville - Bolivar - Cuba - Olean