Are you looking for a change from a week of exams? Do you have those mid-winter blues? Well then, why not go to the prom? No, I'm not crazy, the prom is January 31. You always thought that this social event was held in June? Your thinking was right, but this year there have been some changes made. There are various reasons for the winter prom — and I'm all for them!

Around June there are so many things going on with graduation and finals that the senior class and the prom committee decided to change the timing. Because we couldn't change the graduation to this (all time in January) although we contemplated it, the prom naturally was moved. Also, the change of date gave the Yearbook Staff a break so that the prom could be included with the covers of the 1976 Memos. The decorating committee is quite happy, too, because the winter scenery gives new ideas for the metamorphosis of the gym into a wonderland.

In past years the prom has had some trouble. We're trying to learn from the mistakes. A few years ago, a handful attended and enjoyed themselves. Last year more than forty couples came but the band did not appeal to the majority there. So the question came up, "what made the proms of other generations so successful?"

This is what we came up with: A prom is supposed to be special; so make it special. Don't try to conform it to ordinary dances just to get people to come. Let it touch the imaginary, yet make it a reality.

With these basics in mind, the prom has been planned, and it is sure to be a success, but only with your participation. Now, I'm not just talking to the high school students, I'm especially inviting particularly you parents. This is those who have already graduated, a community happening of which you are to be a part.

Here is the agenda: "Memories of Tomorrow's Dreams" will be Saturday, January 31 from 8:00 p. m. - 1:00 a. m. From 10:00 p. m. until 11:00 p. m. there will be a traditional intermission (which has been omitted). Special attention will be given at midnight to the crowning of the Queen, who will be voted on by the senior class some time prior to the prom. The decorations will center around the theme and will be set to music by the Rogues a group from Wells-ville that will entertain any age group.

I just can't urge you all enough to attend the prom. I expect it to be the greatest yet, an evening full of enjoyment for only five dollars per couple. Make this good, not only for the seniors, but for yourself, too!

Varsity Basketball News

Andover suffered its third loss in a row against Whitesville. Andover played a fine first half as we were only down by one point at the end of the first quarter and four points at the half time mark. Coach Charlie Young started a whole new first string this game as he went with three forwards and two centers. Andover held its own throughout the first half, the third quarter was our big defeat as we fell behind by 18 points and did not get within 16 points the rest of the game.

Andover's scorers were: Dalg Russell with 16, Scott Wilson with 14, MacMichael 10, Tim Mead 8 and Ray Thompson with 2 points.

Let's go out and break this losing streak against Belmont and get back on the winning track again.

J. V. Basketball

Andover's Junior Varsity rolled on to its fourth win of the season against Whitesville. It was a close game all the way to the end when Whitesville chopped Andover's 10 point lead to 3, before Andover pulled away to win it 77-73. Andover played a good team defense to halt Whitesville scoring spree in the fourth quarter. Andover played a tough zone defense thru-out the game. Andover took the ball to the basket more this game than they have in awhile. This game was a good team effort both in team offense and defense.

Andover got good rebounding at both ends of the court as we put up two or three shots at the basket. Andover's scorers were: Marty Geer with 10 points and Pat Atwell who played a great game with 18 points, Steve Dibble with 16 points, and Tracy Preston with 8 points.

That was a great game — keep up all your hard work.

Swimming

by Terry McCormick

On January 15, the Fat Cats traveled to Addison. One point that should be explained is that this is a six lane pool, so the first five places score. If you can't fill all the lanes you are in trouble.

Russ Godown took the only Andover first places in the 50 and 100. John Davis picked up third in the 200 and 500. Jimmie Grossman placed third in the Butterfly. Lenny Grossman placed third in the Breaststroke. Eric MacMichael placed third in diving. Kevin MacCrea placed third in the 50 and fourth in the 100. Terry McCormick placed fourth in the Individual Medley and fourth in the 100 Backstroke.

It was a good effort by the small Andover team.

Immunization Clinic

by Lori Stein

Starting January 1, 1976, the Public Health Department of Allegany County will no longer hold their clinics in schools. The new law states that all children entering Kindergarten, must be adequately immunized, then boosters wouldn't be due until the ninth or tenth grades.

The Allegany County Health Department now has eight immunization clinics and feels it can provide proper service before school, and if necessary in fall months of Kindergarten. Students transferring, or ninth and tenth graders boosters may use free clinics if they are not treated by a private doctor. The last clinic will be held February 4, 1976. If any person in the community needs a booster or series, please contact Mrs. Charity McCormick. No student will be permitted to enter Kindergarten without all immunizations completed. A free clinic is held every fourth Wednesday at Jones Memorial Hospital in Room-15, from 2:00 to 4:00, for those who wish to get series completed by September. If there are any questions, please contact Charity McCormick. Thank you.

Student Obligations Must Be Met

Students who owe money to the Office must repay it before receiving their report cards after the twenty-week exams. Parents are asked to check with their children to see if they have met all their obligations to the school.

New Teacher

by Paula Stewart

We have acquired a new second grade teacher here at A. C. S. She is a favorite among the small people of our school. Her name is Brenda Scutt.

Miss Scutt is a native of Wells-ville, where she still makes her home. She went to Wellsville High School, and after that she went on to Fredonia State College, where she was active in Student Government. There she received a Bachelor's degree in Science Education. Then she attended the Didsbury College of Education for one year.

When we asked Miss Scutt what she liked about teaching the second grade, she replied that she liked that particular age group.

Miss Scutt has traveled widely through Europe and has visited Florida and Texas. She someday wants to go to Russia & China for a visit. Another thing Miss Scutt would like to do is to publish a Children's book.

In her spare time she likes to cook, sew and read. We at Andover are proud to have Miss Scutt as a second grade teacher.

Junior-Senior Prom

by Nancy Stephens

The Junior and Senior Prom this year is being changed from June to January. We decided that having a winter prom would give a change of atmosphere and maybe make it more appealing to everyone. The Prom will be open to everyone, from ninth grade up. We are planning on selling tickets from door-to-door hoping to get more people out this year.

January 31, on Saturday, will be the night of the Prom at Andover Central School Gym. The time is from eight to one, with an intermission between ten and eleven. The theme of the Prom this year is: "Memories of Tomorrow's Dreams." "The Rogues" is the name of the band and the price is $5.00 a couple and $2.75 single. We are also going to have a King and Queen contest and they will be crowned at midnight. Bands going from door-to-door with tickets, we will also sell them at the door.

The Prom Committee this year is: Seniors — Cathy Swartz, Debbie Buckwalter, Lisa Marsh, Robin Hulse, Melody Weber, Nancy Stephens, Rob Hyland, Brian Halsey, Jay MacMichael and Rick Cahill. Juniors: Anita Winslow, Marry Jackson, Teresa Joyce, Charlie Haskins, Beth Polmateer, Tim Mead and Dave Burns.

We hope you will all consider coming to the Junior-Senior Prom this year. We know that you won't regret it or forget it.

Alfred University Designated Member of S.O.C. Network

Alfred University has been designated a member of a network of some 300 two-year and four-year institutions in the United States and overseas that provide continuing education opportunities to members of the Armed Forces.

The network, called Service-men's Opportunity College (S.O.C.) permits service men and women on active duty to pursue courses of study by means of on-campus attendance or challenge examinations. The program leads to associate, baccalaureate and graduate degrees.

There are currently 250,000 service men and women enrolled in S.O.C. institutions. The network was established in 1972 by the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges, and is now operated jointly by that organization and the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

The student with the highest score who matriculates at Alfred next fall will be awarded a $500 annual scholarship, named for a former president of the University, Dr. Leland Miles. Grocery Gems & Goodies

by Phil Fitch

Hi there Folks — back again with a little more good news. According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Fresh Grapefruit—white, red, and pink are plentiful and coming to market in great numbers and fine taste. The Marketing Service forecast the 1975-76 grapefruit crop at 14% above last season and 9% above the most recent 3-season average.

Florida's early crop is expected to be 12% above last year's, the Texas crop is 51% above last year's short crop, the Arizona forecast is 12% above last year's with the Calif. desert grapefruit crop being the only one that is down by 14% from last year.

Since grapefruit is picked tree ripe, it is ready to eat upon purchase so look for firm, well shaded fruits. Thin-skinned fruits have more juice than coarse-skinned ones and those that are pitted at stem end are likely to be thick skinned. Rough, ridged, or wrinkled skin can be an indication of thick skin, pulpiness and lack of juice. Skin defects such as scars, brown scratches, or discoloration seldom affect eating quality but avoid fruit with soft and discolored areas on the stem end or water soaked areas.

In the grocery specials this week the Meat Department has some fine buys with Wilson's products being featured. Whole semi-boneless Hams are $1.09 a pound; Sliced Bacon is $1.19 for a 12-oz. pkg.; Skinless Wieners are 69c for a 12-oz. pkg.; and their luncheon meats are 89c. Chuck Roast is 89c per lb.; Semi-boneless, Chuck Roasts are $1.09 a lb.; and Center Cut Chuck Steaks are 99c.

In the Produce Department, Florida Green Peppers are 19c each; Canadian Carrots, 2 lbs., for 25c; Waxed Turnips, 12 a lb.; Pascal Ceery is 49c a bunch; and California Sun-kissed Navel Oranges are 89c for a 4 lb. bag.

In the Grocery Department, Eight O'Clock Coffee is 99c a lb.; Tea & White Tea, 2.00; Juice is 49c for a 1-qt., 14-oz. can; Peaches are 3 — 1 lb. cans for $1; Mrs. Filbert's Mayonnaise is 77c a quart; and Red & White, Sweet Garden Peas are $1 for 3 — 1-lb. cans.

Well, guess that just about "wraps it up" for this week, so see you around?

The European Community, primarily West Germany, is the largest single outlet for U. S. poultry meat, last year buying $18 million.

American farmers are using 93 per cent of the total available cropland, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
