

HI-HERALD

Editorial

by Lisa Marsh

I cannot believe it, half of a year has passed us already. As a senior I'm quite excited, but mostly I'm filled with remorse. Not only am I sad because there are only twenty more weeks until graduation, but looking back to the last five years I've been attending Andover Central. I think of all the wasted time. I remember the courses that I got nothing out of because I put nothing into them. The interesting people that I'm just getting to know. I will have to leave too soon. So many things I can pile onto the "I am named 'Sins of Omission'".

This all sounds so morbid and helpless, but I guess that I want to urge you that have just begun is to take heed and not get a "putting-off" attitude. Look back and see what is important; now look ahead and DO what is important. I know that now since I have gone through my mistakes I have something to strive for.

Senior's Poem Entered

"The Thorn Apple Tree" a poem by the senior Diane Bliss has been submitted as an entry for the New York State High School Arts exhibition through the Bureau of English Education of the State Education Department. The poem will be displayed, if selected as part of the New York State High School Arts exhibition in the Legislative Building, Empire State Plaza in Albany during March.

Diane has written a number of poems through the years as a student at ACS. She recalls her first poem as having been written in fourth grade but remembers her start in poetry as actually beginning in sixth grade. Her collection now ranges from seasonal to humorous to philosophical poems numbering well over sixty. Most are written on the basis of inspiration. Her entry "The Thorn Apple Tree" was also previously printed in the Hi-Herald under the paper's Creative Corner.

The NYSSHA exhibit takes one entry from one of the schools in schools having an enrollment of 750 or under and one entry from schools having over 750 enrolled.

Senior Interview

 as born to Mr. and Mrs. Eve and Davis. This little girl, who was named Marcelle Ann, is no longer a little girl. Marcelle, as she is known to her friends is 5'7" and has long brown hair and big brown eyes. Marcy is the second oldest of five children; her three sisters are: Allison, Cindy and Mary and her brother Tom.

Marcy has been very active in her four years of high school. She has been in Choir, one year Band, four years; Cheerleading, one year; FHA, two years; and G. A. A., one year. Marcy attended BOCES her junior year of high school, and majored in Office Practice. This year, she takes all her classes here at Andover and her major is in Business. There is one thing which Marcy likes to do in her spare time and this is to go to stock car races.

Marcy has not yet decided what she would like to do when she gets out of school, but we all wish her the best of luck in all future endeavors.

Report Cards Delayed

Examinations scheduled for Monday, January 26, had to be rescheduled to Friday, January 30 because of inclement weather. This will result in report cards being issued later than the usual date of Wednesday, following examinations.

Teen Time

by Lisa March

Do you remember turning your radio on Saturday morning to hear the ending of Teen Time when Andover Central students were broadcasting it? Well, if so here is a notice that Scott Wilson and Cheryl Haskins will be Andover's representatives on WLSV, Wellsville Radio Station. February 7 is the date at 10:00 A. M. - 11:00 A. M. Please plan to listen to Scott and Cheryl, and if you have any dedications please give them to either one of them before that Saturday morning.

Panther Prowl Swimming

by Terry McCormick

On January 22 the Fat Catz hosted Alfred-Almond. The Fat Catz were ready for this meet with two weeks of practice for it. The meet started off with Andover taking the first three events.

In the 160 yard Individual Medley Relay Andover came in first with a team of Marty Grossman, John Davis, Russ Godown and Kevin MacCrea. John Davis won the 100 yard Freestyle; Russ Godown followed winning the 160 yard Im. In the 60 yard Free Kevin MacCrea tied for second.

Andover's Divers were the surprise of the meet. Eric MacMichael placed first and Jeff Smith placed third. This was the first time the Fat Catz divers took both places. Jimmie Grossman placed third in the Butterfly.

In the 100 yard Freestyle Russ Godown placed first and Kevin MacCrea placed third. John Davis picked up a second in the 500 Free. Marty Grossman came thru again with a first place in the 100 yard backstroke. Marty did this with a badly sprained ankle. Lenzie Grossman placed third in the 100 Breaststroke.

It was a very close meet with the Fat Catz not having the number of people to pull it out.

Varsity Basketball

by Kal Shaw

The Varsity Basketball Team traveled to Belmont to snap its four game losing streak with a fine 92 - 74 performance. Andover played a fine team game as we had even scoring throughout our team. We started out playing even with Belmont and pulling away in the middle of the first quarter to lead 21 - 13 at the end of the first quarter. At half-time we had a 15 point lead 39 - 23 only to widen the gap by 23 at the end of the third quarter 64 - 41.

Andover's rebounding helped out immensely in this victory. Everyone went in and hit the boards. Andover had help in our scoring department from the whole team. Dale Russell was high man for the game with 21 points; Doug Preston and Bob Wallace who played a fine game, each had 15 apiece. Tim Mead and Scott Wilson added 12 and 11 respectively. Jay MacMichael gave a fine performance on the court at both ends, he added 6 points.

That was a fantastic win Andover. Let's keep the ball moving and win a few more. Our record is 5 wins - 4 losses.

Fans, come out and support our Varsity Team!

J.V. Basketball

by Kal Shaw

In J.V. action Friday night, the Andover Panthers downed the Belmont Tigers by the score of 50 - 54. Andover started out the first quarter by leading 16 - 0. Belmont soon caught up to within 2 at the half. Andover held on to its lead to win the game.

Andover played a fine defensive game as we played our best defense in the first half. We slacked off in the final two quarters but managed to hang on. Andover shot 39% from the field. We grabbed 42 rebounds as we hit the boards very well with 14 offensive and 28 defensive rebounds.

We had very well balanced scoring with Marty Geer leading the way with 13 and Scott Richardson, Steve Dibble, and Tracy Preston each contributing 12 points apiece. This game raises the J.V. record to 5 wins and 2 losses.

Good going J.V.'s and let's see some more of that hustle on the court.

Basketball News

by Kal Shaw

The game on Friday against Rushford has been postponed until February 7. Now that we have a breather from the games, I would like to congratulate the J.V. and Varsity Basketball Teams on the fine effort that they have put out to make this a winning season so far. Our Varsity Team has come along ways these last two years. This year the boys on the basketball teams have really given it their all. We don't have much height in Andover, we have to rely on our skills and determination and this year we have a lot

Grocery Gems & Goodies

by Phil Fitch

In response to President Ford's directive that the Federal agencies develop programs to make them more responsive to consumers, the State Department has created a new position to strengthen the Department's relationship with consumers. The post is that of Co-ordinator of Consumer Affairs and is being filled by Joan Braden.

As coordinator, Mrs. Braden will review proposed policy decisions affecting consumers, help prepare consumer impact statements, recommend departmental policy on consumer issues and serve as the department's liaison with consumer groups.

Mrs. Braden would like to hear from consumers so if you have any comments or suggestions for possible action or consideration by the department, contact Joan Braden, Consumer Affairs Co-ordinator, State Dept., Washington, D. C. 20521; Phone: (202) 632-3258.
