DAR Essay Contest
 Students in grades 5 - 8 are invited to compete in the DAR American History Month Essay Contest. The topic of the contest is the Declaration of Independence. The essays may be on the reason or purpose for the Declaration and the resulting advantages to our Country; Why it is considered the most important of all American historical documents; or it may be about one of those who signed the Declaration. For fifth and sixth grades, the length of the essay is to be 300 to 600 words; for seventh and eighth grades 600 to 1000 words. Over length essays will be disqualified and all word will be counted. Dates such as December 25, 1975 will be counted as one word. Before you hand in your essay to your teacher, be sure to count the words and note the total number at the end of the essay. All essays must be handwritten in ink and deadline is February 25, 1976.

Bicentennial Contest
 The Allegany County Bicentennial Commission and Allegany County BOCES are sponsoring a contest inviting all students in Allegany County public and private schools to participate. The contest is keyed to encourage student curiosity and investigation about local personalities of the past. The contest involves identifying three persons and the communities with which they are associated. Each school may submit one completed entry. That entry with the correct answers and the earliest postmark will determine the winner.

ning school. No entries will be considered postmarked later than March 5, 1976.
 The primary purposes of the contest are to encourage individual student research as part of a larger cooperative effort on behalf of the schools they represent to develop student awareness of persons from Allegany County who became noted nationally, and to create enthusiasm about Bicentennial activities. If you are interested get in touch with Mrs. Burger in Room 223, and learn something about important people from your town. Also Susan Bliss will coordinate the efforts of the ninth grade third period English class in doing this project.
