STAN LUNDINE

FROM THIS DISTRICT -- FOR THIS DISTRICT

THE SOUTHERN TIER NEEDS A CONGRESSMAN WHO:

- * Lives in the district and understands its concerns.
- * Believes that local communities know their problems and can develop appropriate solutions.
- * Knows that the Southern Tier is tired of bloated, bureaucratic, unresponsive government in Washington.
- * Can work for us to make the federal government become part of the solution, not part of the problem.

HAS AN OUTSTANDING RECORD OF ACCOMPLISHMENT:

Established nationally recognized Labor-management Committee, was instrumental in forming the New Economic Process in Chatauqua County, appointed the first Ombudsman in New York State, created a Citizens Advisory Committee and a city Youth Board, rebuilt downtown Jamestown, led Jamestown to All-American City Award.

HAS A CAREER OF DEDICATION TO PUBLIC SERVICE:

Four term Mayor of Jamestown; chairman of Planning Commission; Associate Corporation Counsel; Member of Legislative Committee; New York Conference of Mayors; Community Development Committee; National League of Cities; U. S. Conference of Mayors; Director, Southern Tier West Regional Planning and Development Board.

HAS A CONCERN FOR RESPONSIVE GOVERNMENT:

A long record of working hard to increase opportunities for citizen participation in government, and listening to what they have to say.

TO CONTINUE THIS PRACTICE, TOWN MEETINGS WILL BE HELD THROUGHOUT THE DISTRICT SO EVERY INDIVIDUAL CAN DISCUSS DISTRICT AND NATIONAL PROBLEMS.
