

is the most disagreeable of all. The Mercury stood ten above at Noon and 5 below at 5 p. m., a drop of 15 degrees in 5 hours. Tuesday night, minimum was 9 below and Wednesday night reached 10 below zero.

On Saturday, February 22, at 9:05 A. M., over WBBN Buffalo, Prof. Carl Hann, director of the Kenmore School System, will present his school band over the air. Prof. Hann is the son of B. B. Hann of Andover and an Alumni of AHS.

Weekend Specials at the Market
Basket are: Pure Cane Sugar 10 lbs. for 48c; Coffee, Yellow Bag, 16c lb.; Oranges 27c a dozen; Apples "Mac" 5 lbs. for 25c; Potatoes "new", 5 lbs. for 25c; Strawberries 18c pint.

Harold and Howard Barney and Lawrence Hawks of Independence are attending Farm & Home Week at Ithaca this week.

Norman Drew of Independence is back in school this week. He has been out of school for four weeks recovering from a coughing accident.

On West Greenwood — they are still shut in by snow drifts and no roads for horses. The farmers have to carry their groceries from the State Road to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Atwell and family of Elm Valley, spent Saturday with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kusen of Greenwood. Miss Marion Swartz visited friends in Olean over the weekend.

Dr. Robert Common attended the Buffalo Dental Meeting held in Buffalo, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Supervisor E. A. Mullen, Town Clerk A. L. Bloss, Supt. E. C. Howland and Justices W. E. Pease and W. D. Clark represented Andover at the Annual Highway Meeting held in Belmont, Monday.

Mrs. Porter Stephens died at Gowanda State Hospital, February 16. Rachael, daughter of Benjamin and Lucile DeRemer Updyke was born in Greenwood January 31, 1872. On October 1, 1909 she married Porter Stephens who survives with two sisters, Mrs. Eva Blackman and Mrs. Adelbert Hann, both of Andover. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery.

Miss Pauline Martin and Dalton Wereley were in Hornell, Thursday evening where from 7 until 10 o'clock they had charge of a demonstration of Woodruff Cheese at the Opening of W. J. Richmyers & Son Grocery. The Woodruff Cheese is gaining a fine reputation for its excellent quality over the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Sutherland and daughter Betty Jean and son Don Robert of Richburg, Mr. and Mrs. John Nobles and son, Len, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland, James Nobles and family, Mrs. Bessie Babcock and daughter, June and John Cline were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nobles of Shovel Hollow.

30 YEARS AGO

February 7, 1946

Claire C. Backus, Publisher

E. D. and A. R. Baker went to Rochester, Monday to attend the Annual Convention of the New York State Retail Hardware Dealers which is in session in that city this week. Mr. and Mrs. Almon Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harder also were in attendance at the Convention, Wednesday.

Mrs. Bessie Babcock and daughter June of Wellsville, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nobles and daughter Patricia Ann of Elmira, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bledsoe and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Bledsoe and sons Russell and Dale of Halfport were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nobles of Shovel Hollow.

Mrs. Francis Wales of Syracuse and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Allen of Elmira were Sunday guests of Mrs. Wales's mother, Mrs. Emma Hurd.

At a recent all-day Institute of the WCTU, held at the home of Mrs. Mildred Nye, the following hostesses and leaders were appointed for the coming year: February, Mrs. Jennie Williams and Mrs. Elizabeth Clair; March, Mrs. Mispah Greene and Mrs. Pauline Hoyt; April, Mrs. Pauline Hoyt and Gertrude Cheesman; May, Mrs. C. R. Eldredge and Mrs. Mattie Robinson; June, Mrs. Edna McDougald and Mrs. Mildred Nye; July, Mrs. Edith Thorne and Mrs. Ina Church; August, Mrs. Agnes Robinson and Mrs. Margaret Northrup; September, Mrs. Lella Livermore and Mrs. Mispah Greene; October, Gertrude Cheesman and Mrs. Lella Livermore. A very entertaining program was presented by Mrs. Livermore and Rev. Hoyt and a delicious tureen dinner was enjoyed by all.

February 14, 1946

A newly formed Exchange Club held its organization meeting Tuesday evening in Whitesville at which time Harold Boss was elected President; Richard Vogel, Vice-President; Robert Spicer, Treasurer and Robert E. Clarke, Secretary. The Club will meet the second and fourth Monday evening of each month.

R. O. Snyder, local Chairman of the National Clothing Drive held during the month of January, reports that he shipped 2,000 pounds of clothing and shoes that had been donated by Andover people, to the U. S. Procurement Warehouse in Niagara Falls. This clothing will be distributed among those suffering from the lack of protection in war devastated countries of Europe.

Miss Arretta Mae Dunham daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Dunham, and John H. Howland, son of Earl Howland, both of Andover, were married February 8 at the M E Church.

Cpl. Richard Beihl, son of Wm. Beihl of Andover, is the Serviceman's picture in The Andover News this week.

Announcement is made this week that the 1946 quota for the Annual Catholic Church Appeal this year will be one million dollars.

The Rev. W. W. McCall of Hornell will conduct a service of ordination and install Almon W. Wood and R. J. Sootheran who were recently elected to the office of Elder in the Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening, February 17. Mrs. Bertha Hardy, who has already served a term, will also be formerly installed.

Henry S. Livermore died February 13 at his home on Rochambeau Avenue. He was born in Andover October 27, 1883 a son of Elwin and Lillie Baker Livermore. On January 31, 1911 he married Miss Lelia Livermore of Nile, who survived together with a sister, Mrs. Allen Corwin of Wellsville; a niece, Mrs. Mae Green Polmiller of Alford, who lived with the Livermores since four years old. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery.

Richard R. Clair, son of Mrs. Beatrice Clair of Andover, has been promoted to the grade of Master Sergeant. Sgt. Clair entered the Army on July 28, 1942. He served in the U. S. until his departure for overseas duty on August 20, 1945 and is now Sergeant Major of the 3160th Signal Service Battalion on Okinawa. This organization has been stationed on Okinawa since May 3, 1945 and took an active part in the bloody campaign to capture the Island. It is now responsible for all communications on the Southern part of the Island. Sgt. Clair has been awarded the American Theatre Ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon and the Victory Medal.

Word has been received by his parents that Sgt. Clyde Kemp was discharged February 9 at Maxwell Field, Ala. Sgt. Kemp has served 39 months as an instructor in the Air Corps. Mr. and Mrs. Kemp will take a tour through Florida before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Lewis of Greenwood are parents of a daughter born February 6.

The Folsing Store will be closed the week of February 25 for inventory — opening March 4 under New Management.

The Fire Company was called out Tuesday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire at the Howland Supply Co. Yards.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Glover have purchased of Mrs. Florence Earley, her house on Rochambeau Avenue, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Tidd.

The Friendly Class of the M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Church, February 22. Mrs. Church, Mrs. Carlyle Myers and Mrs. Harold Emery will be hostesses.

Coach "Bob" Ingerson's Andover Central School Panthers came thru in their crucial game with Richburg Central School, winning 32 to 22 to take their Section of the Class C County Title and earned the right to meet the winner of the other Section of Class C for the County Title later this month. The game was played on the Richburg Court last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McAndrew of Dansville were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. George McAndrew of Elm Valley. Captain and Mrs. J. Robert Common returned Monday from a week's visit with friends in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Malcomery of Roulette, Pa., spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Pearl Mesler and son, Orville.

Specials at the Andover Market Basket: Iceburg Lettuce 3 heads for 27c; Florida Grapefruit 4 for 27c; Chicken, 39c lb.; and Chuck Roast, shoulder cut 27c lb.

February 21, 1946

Mrs. Florence Greene, Chairman of Infantile Paralysis Drive in Andover, announced this week that Andover contributed $684.58 to the drive this year. Mrs. Greene was assisted by Mrs. S. B. Scott, Mrs. A. D. Fuller, Mrs. Porter Richardson and Mrs. R. V. Harder.

Miss Mary Lavery, 87, a resident of Greenwood Hill for the past 75 years, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Guinn, where she and her brother were passing the winter, February 19, following a short illness. She was born in Bloomfield, N. J., May 15, 1858 the daughter of James and Mary McClusky Lavery. She is survived by a brother, Cornelius J. of Greenwood Hill; a nephew, John Lavery of Olean and three nieces, Mrs. Joseph Health of Lake Worth, Florida, Mrs. Niles Hollerson of New York City and Mrs. Oak Esmay of Dorloro. Burial was in Gate of Heaven Cemetery.

Princess Helen Dreda Posch, a registered Holstein Senior 2 year old heifer raised and owned by

Acting Associate Deans To Serve Throughout Spring Semester

Dr. Carol Lucey and R. Theodore Smith, both Jamestown Community College faculty members, will serve as acting associate deans of instructions throughout the Spring semester, it has been announced by Dr. Roger C. Seager JCC president.

They will serve in this capacity in addition to their teaching duties. The position was recently held by Dr. Charles Shoup who resigned from JCC to serve as dean of academic services at Edison State College, Piqua, Ohio.

Professor Smith, who has been a member of the JCC Biology faculty since 1960 and is currently serving his fifth term as Chautauqua County legislator. Last year

R. E. Spicer, just completed a lactation record of 305 days on twice a day milking with 14,669 pounds of milk and 515.9 pounds of fat under the Dairy Herd Improvement Association.

The Andover Exchange Club supports the Veterans Memorial purchase, the Lynch block as a Veterans Memorial Home at their monthly meeting Thursday evening. Following the business meeting, Edward L. Kent gave the Exchangeites a very interesting and information talk on the growing and storage of Certified Seed Potatoes.

he received the State University of New York's Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching. At the same time he received the JCC Board of Trustee's Faculty Award.

At JCC, Prof. Smith has been active in the development of academic programs related to the health sciences and pre-professional education and has served as chairman of the JCC Biology Department.

In 1972 he received the award for "Outstanding Educator in America", for his contributions to the advancement of higher education and service to the community.

As a county legislator he serves as chairman of the County Sewer Agency, Water Agency and Finance Committee. He has also served as district director of the Soil Conservation Service and as a member of the board of Chautauqua Lake Regions, Inc. He currently serves as President of the St. James Board of Education.

He received his B.A. degree Syracuse University and has done graduate work at the University of North Carolina, Kansas State University, the State University of New York at Buffalo, Tufts University, the University of Rochester Medical Center, St. Lawrence University, Alfred University and Syracuse University.

He is a native of Andover, N. Y., the son of Robert Smith and the late Mary Monica Smith of 37 Elm St., and he and his wife, Pat and two sons, Kevin and Jeff reside at Donelson Road, Busti.

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

HARD WORKERS FOR HARD TIMES

WE ARE THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES FOR VILLAGE TRUSTEES AND we want to WORK for YOU!

Karl Graves and Elmo "Al" Barden

WE HAVE —

- * EXPERIENCE
- * ENTHUSIASM
- * AMBITION
- * CAPABILITY

On Tuesday, March 16

Vote the Republican Way -- The Row B Way

POLLS ARE OPEN 12 NOON TO 9 P. M.

For A Free Ride To The Polls Call: 478-8872 or 478-8121