ANDOVER'S SESQUI-CENTENNIAL MAKES INTERNATIONAL NEWS AND LAUNCHES LOCAL BI-CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION. The Mayor, Councilor Lance Barrett, with some of the gifts brought from Andover, New York State, (L-R): Dr. Mary Brace, Mother of Andover's Mayor "Mike" Brace, the Mayor, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Janice Kennedy.

Contacts with the "Other Andovers" in the world are gradually spreading.

Following the Mayor's visit to Andover, Massachusetts recently, a party from the Mansfield State College, Pennsylvania, arrived in Andover this week.

With them they brought greetings from the Mayor of another "Andover" of the New World that one in New York State. Dr. Mary Brace, Professor of Home Economics at Mansfield, is the mother of John Michael Brace, the Mayor of the New York State town.

She brought a letter from the Mayor to present to Lance Barrett when he met the party on Tuesday evening at the Bere Hill House Hotel.

Gifts from America included a number of items related to the Bi-centennial Celebration in the U.S.A., and also Andover, (N.Y.'s own 150th Anniversary.

A book, plate and medallion were presented along with the history of the American town, and special greetings from the American Mayor.

The visit of the students was organized by the Council for International Contact and was intended as an educational visit. They have all been staying in Essex and Andover and will be flying home this week.

Accompanying the party was Mrs. Janice Kennedy, American representative of the CIC, and also a Professor at Mansfield.

Everybody has enjoyed their stay in Britain, and they have noticed the warmth of hospitality which they have felt was very genuine. All the students in the party had a project while here, looking at social life, arts, history and education.

Editor's Note: The above Picture and News Story appeared in the 9 January, 1976 Issue of the "Andover Advertiser" in England. The "Lead-Off" Caption in caps was strictly local but everything else is just as it appeared in that Newspaper. The picture was copied and reduced for our use by local Photographer, "Dick" Wittie.

Since our Allen Ancestors came from Wales, England in 1660, we donated the souvenir plate and bronze medallion from our Sesqui-Centennial to be presented to the Lord Mayor and his wife, by Dr. Mary Brace as our part in the program.
