Creative Corner

The silences in sleep are soft and Like feathers floating into dreams They touch our hearts and souls with fire Or float us softly up, and even higher.
To the very essences of peace - But all at once our dreams must cease.
Into nightmares, deep we plunge Where dragons roar and monsters lunge - These nightmares make us cold with sweat,
They show us fears that must be met.
These nightmares come with day's cold light,
And make us long for the peace of night -
The peace so silent and so deep Into which some nightmares creep.
Nightmares to be fought away,
To be faced again in the light of day,
But now forgotten, seeming slight
In the peace of sleep at night.

TELL ME

War is something cold and gray
It stills the birds
It darkens day
There's nothing real about a war
Just men dying, more and more
And at the bloody battle's end
Take a look around, my friend,
See war's glories on the ground,
Men dead and dying all around Tell me please, a better way Than what's happened here today
Tell the child and tell the wife Of the man who lost his life - Explain to them and tell me why
All those men had to die.
Answer me and I'll be moved Tell me, what did it prove?
