

Roberta Kramer, Manager of "Ye Hubbards Cupboard", Store Outlet in Wellsville, for hand-crafted items made by Senior Citizens in Allegany County, gives State Assemblyman James "Jim" Emery the old "sales-pitch" on a "Humpty-Dumpty" toy at the Fourth Annual Allegany-Steuben Maple Festival sponsored by the Andover Lions Club this past weekend. News Photo

THE SIGNING OF A LOCAL PROCLAMATION! Mayor "Mike" Brace (c) signs the Proclamation designating the past week-end as the Annual Maple Festival Celebration Week-end which was the official Opening for the Bi-Centennial Celebration in Andover. After the Official signing of the Document, Mayor Brace presented it to Past Lion President Leon McNeill (l) and President Dale Green who were Co-Chairmen of this year's Maple Festival. News Photo

From Our Files

the Contract Bridge Club at her home last Thursday. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Oakes and Mrs. Frank Holmes.

Mrs. Bessie Mulcooney entertained the Gay Luncheon Club at her home Wednesday afternoon. The prize was awarded to Mrs. Edith Richmond.

Misses Edna and Doris Honegger entertained a few young people at a get-together party at their home Saturday night. After a delightful evening passed in playing games of different kinds, a lunch was enjoyed by the company.

The Friendly Neighbor Club met at the home of Miss Gertrude Cheesman, Monday evening, where they celebrated the birthdays of Miss Cheesman, Mrs. Henry Livermore, Emily Mae Greene and Miss Syble Winchell with a social evening and supper.

Word was received by relatives of the death Tuesday, March 24 of Mrs. Royce Ruger of Bath. Mrs. Ruger is a niece of Kirk, Glenn & Burr Ruger of Andover. She was also a Past Noble Grand of the Bath Rebekah Lodge.

William McGee and Lawrence Host went to Rochester Saturday night to see the basketball tournament playoff for Central-Western New York Schools.

Twin girls were born at the St. James Mercy Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Houghtling of Rexville last week, March 12. The girls will celebrate their birthdays on separate dates as one little lady arrived before midnight and the other one hour later.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gillfillan entertained at supper Sunday in honor of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kemp. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. James McDonough and daughters Martha and Anne, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kemp and Miss Marion Swartz.

Mrs. Mary Clarke Crittenden, age 66, widow of the late Aaron G. Crittenden, died Wednesday, March 25 at the home of her daughter Mrs. Patrick G. Butler of Hornell. She was born in Independence March 5, 1870 the daughter of Herbert Mr. and Elvereta Austin Clarke. She married Aaron Crittenden, August 30, 1892, who died March 8, 1934. She is survived by two sons Herbert and Merle both of Whitesville; two daughters Mrs. Myrtle Butler of Hornell and Mrs. Elva Cannice of Schenectady; one step-daughter Mrs. Helen Harris of Whitesville; four brothers, Winfield Clarke of Litte Genesee, William D. and Robert of Independence and Howard of Rochester; and one sister, Mrs. Hector Greene of Andover. Burial was in Whitesville Rural Cemetery.

An interesting and unique joint meeting of the members of the afternoon and evening division of the Kings Daughters of the Presbyterian Church was held Wednesday evening with an enjoyable program presented by the school children under the direction of Mrs. Schwarzenbach and Miss Knapp. Also at this time the women presented their money which they had earned for the electric light fund. The amount was a goodly sum which went towards the lighting which is now installed in the church and a good improvement and convenience to the church.

On March 21 the boys Varsity Basketball Squad of Andover High School was entertained at a 6:30 dinner party by Mr. and Mrs. Ray McGill. The occasion for the celebration being Bruce McGill's birthday. Following the dinner cards and monopoly were enjoyed. Those present were: Principal and Mrs. Glenn E. Bretsch, Bruce McGill, Edward Kemp, John Cannon, Edwin Alderson, Joseph McAndrew, Leo Fulkerson, Donald Joyce, Donald Lynch and Phillip Lynch Manager.

Relatives on Voorhees Hill have received word of the death of Addie Mae, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Brown of Lawrence Michigan, of pneumonia. Mrs. Brown was the former Hope Church of that place.

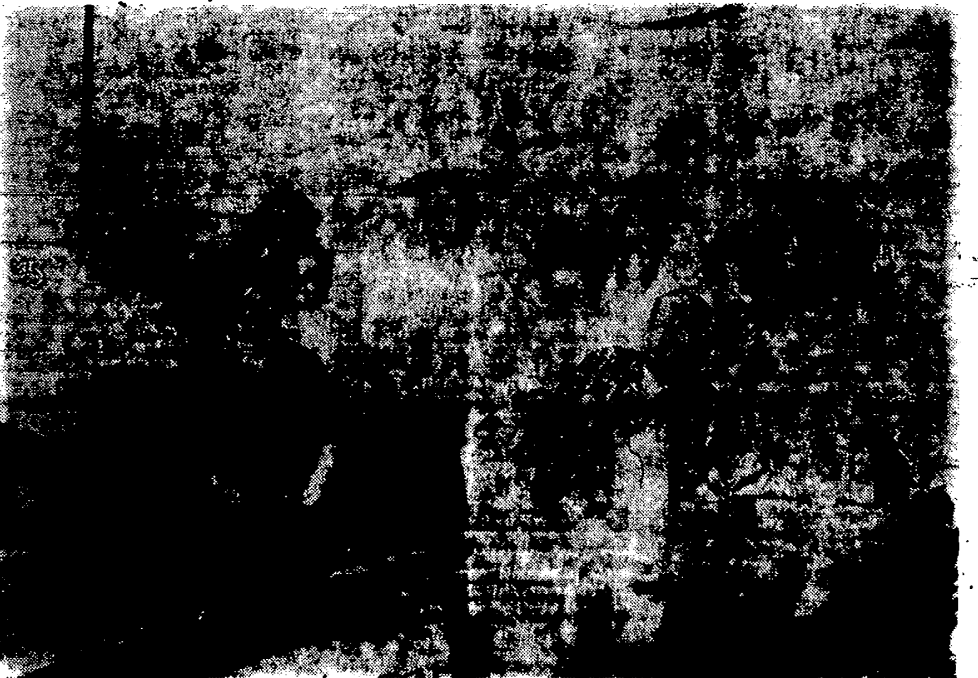

Mr. and Mrs. George Simkin of Voorhees Hill, received an invitation to attend the 50th wedding anniversary of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simkin of Martland, Florida on March 25. The invitations were issued by the bride's mother, Mrs. S. E. Trompson of Blendon, Michigan, who at the age of 94 is having the honor few are permitted.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ryan and family visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simmons of Whitesville Sunday.

The estimated damage to Andover's electric plant caused by the ice storm is placed at $3,000. During the entire time of darkness the Fire Hall was the only place in town to have electricity, made possible through the kindness of the High Voltage Electric Company. "Ernie" brought his DeLco Light System

The Maple Festival "Sugar Shack Krew" get the "Shack" all set up and ready to "Boil-Off" assisted by "Bob" Dunham, Official Tree Tapper for the Festival. Photo by Dale Green

Members of the "Kitchen Krew" of the Andover Rod & Gun Club take a Kwick Break from serving their "Pancake Dinners" in order to pose "For Posterity" and Photographer "Red" Allen, another member of the Club. News Photo

Continued on Page 5