

Greenwood News

ed from the District for travel expense to be sent to the District as a love gift. Several coming events were announced. The UMW will serve the wedding luncheon for Irene Sky and Robert Oyer after the wedding, May 29.

A short program of taped Upper Room devotions for Good Friday and Easter was given by Mrs. Albert Lamphier. Refreshments were served to eight members by hostesses Mrs. Joseph White and Miss Permelia White.

Clinton York drove a school bus to Rochester, Thursday to take several adult teachers and school personnel to visit the School of the Deaf. They were members of a committee for the handicapped now required by the State, to keep informed on what is needed in the local school and what can be done about it. There are now seven handicapped children in the District who are bussed to Hornell for a BOCES Class. Most are mental and some physical handicapped. Miss Judy York is working in the Library Media at the Rochester School for the Deaf. The committee was impressed by how much could be done for deaf children.

Stanley Murray returned Tuesday to his work at the Wellsville Division of Alfred A-G-Tech after a week of Easter vacation.

From Our Files

Police Officer; Edward Kilbane extra Police Officer; Pearl Mesler Office Janitress; Andover National Bank designated a depository of funds and the Andover News the official publication.

The Andover Theatre will reopen this Saturday by the Home Enterprise Company featuring "The Farmer Take His Wife" with Janet Gaynor and Henry Ford.

Mrs. Daniel Haist, died April 7. Harriett J. was born October 11, 1863, a daughter of Benjamin and Jane Walker at Cuba. 28 years ago she married Daniel W. Haist of Buffalo who survives. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Andover.

Mrs. Melville Muckleston, National President of the American Legion Auxiliary, addressed an audience of 400 Legion and Auxiliary members at Hotel Statter in Buffalo, Saturday evening, April 4. Those attending from Allegany County were Eighth District Vice Commander, J. Lloyd Parson of Angelica; County Commander Fay E. Boyd, County Chairman, Mrs. C. C. Backus and County Adjutant, C. C. Backus of Andover.

Today is Good Friday. J. N. Wentworth has been confined to his home by illness this past week. Carl Childs is driving his school bus and milk route.

Mrs. Kenneth Alvord has returned to her work in the Post Office after a week's illness with the grippe.

Mrs. George Carpenter is employed as County Nurse again - the position she held a year ago. Miss Dorothy Taft is assisting in the home during her absence.

The Andover High School Easter vacation is in session. School will open Monday, April 20.

The afternoon division of the Kings Daughters of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. Guy Wood, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Leo Snyder and Mrs. Wood were hostesses.

Miss Barbara Childs entertained ten little girls in honor of her birthday, Saturday afternoon at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Childs. Games of different kinds were played and luncheon enjoyed, especially the birthday cake. Miss Childs received many nice gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Snyder and son, Craig and daughter, Nancy Jane are leaving today for New York City for a week's Easter trip.

Miss Anna K. Kasten of Jersey City and J. J. Powers of New York City passed the weekend at the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. James McDonough.

Miss Elizabeth Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Snyder of East Valley, is spending the Alfred University Spring vacation guest of Miss Marie Zubiller at West Point and also expected to spend a couple of days in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Backus and Mr. and Mrs. Claire Backus attended a 5:30 dinner Friday evening at Howell Social Hall in Alfred, given by Alfred University to the publishers and their wives of Allegany County. Mrs. Forrest Gee and son, Lloyd of Canadea, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Calhoun of Penn Yan, Mr. and Mrs. Chares Calhoun of Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cartwright of East Valley were guests of George Calhoun Sunday for his 80th birthday.

April 17, 1938

Donald R. Kemp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kemp and Mary L. Lehman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lehman were married April 10.

Miss Elizabeth Cannon, dramatic instructor in the Hempstead Long Island School, directed a highly successful play staged by the Senior Class on March 27. The Southampton Press states "probably no class before has presented a better show". The scene of the play reproducing the patio of a residence in a university town, was meticulously designed and carried out by a cast of 20 under the skilled direction of Miss Cannon.

In a letter from the "Old Timers Club" in Washington, D. C. reordering cheese, the manager pays Woodruff Cheese a fine compliment. A quotation from the letter reads: "Congressman John Paul Koale and his Minnesota friends are actually starving for the finest cheese that ever was produced."

Invitations were mailed this week to the members of the Andover Fire Department and their wives or ladies to attend the "Jubilee Dinner" which is to be served in the Odd Fellows Hall by the ladies of the Baptist Church April 23. The banquet is in celebration of the final payment of the big La France Pumper, purchased by the Department some years ago.

Mrs. Alice Lever died April 12 at her home on Dyke Street. She was born August 28, 1859 a daughter of Simeon and Rachael Adams Hann and married Charles B. Lever October 20, 1878, who died October 2, 1921. To them were born one son, John C. Lever, who survives with three grandchildren Charles of Buffalo, Marion and Dorothy of Andover; one sister Mrs. Sophronit Dowson of Eliza bethtown, Pa.; three brothers Charles Hann of Hornell, Adelbert of Elm Valley and Fred of McFall, Mo. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Andover.

The Annual Meeting of the Allegany County Rebekah District No. 1, was held in Andover Wednesday afternoon with District Deputy President, Mrs. Clara Howland, presiding. There were 40 Past Noble Grands in attendance. Following the regular routine of business Officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. Belle Updyke, District Deputy President; Mrs. Myra Rogers, District Deputy Secretary and Mrs. Madison, District Deputy Treasurer, all of the Whitesville Lodge.

The Allegany County Y.M.C.A. voted favorably to accept the offer of the Allegany County Board of Supervisors to purchase Camp Shenawann for $5,000. The transfer of property will take place in May. The property consists of 30 acres of land, camp buildings and all equipment. When purchased by the County it will be renamed as Camp Eggleston and will be operated under the supervision of the Allegany County Park Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nobles of Towanda, Pa., were weekend guests of Andover relatives.

The series of Union Services of the Protestant Churches of Andover for the past two months closed with a Sunrise Service in the Methodist Church, Easter Sunday.

The regular meeting of American Legion Auxiliary will be held April 21 with a luncheon at 1:30 in charge of Mrs. Bessie Mulconery and Mrs. Bertha Hardy.

The following people have been chosen for speaking parts in the Junior Play "The Arrival of Kitty Leo Fulkerson": Jean Millsbaugh, Alan Tuttle, Carolyn Dolan, Bruce McGill, Hilda Clarke, Maxine Crandall, Raymond Briggs and Edward Kemp.

Miss Edna Joyce of Independence has been spending the Easter vacation with her sister, Mrs. Wilbur Sly in Wayland.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum and Fred Slocum of Davis Hill, attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, William Peake at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clarence Hobar of Harrison Valley, Tuesday.

Howard Burdick of Elm Valley left Tuesday for a few days visit in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kemp and Ray Geer motored to Cleveland Ohio on business, Friday, returning Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Woodruff and Miss Pauline Martin attended a 6:30 dinner party at the home of Al Norden in Wellsville Monday evening.

Jack Dolan and daughter, Wanda attended the funeral of his father, P. J. Dolan at Mt. Morris Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Isa Conner and daughter, Vivian and son, Bill, motored to Alliance, Ohio, Saturday guests of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Reardon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perry and family of Canisteo were Easter guests at the home of his brother Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perry. Miss Gersidine accompanied them home for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Green and sons Howard Dale and Clifford Green and John Clair of East Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Greer and son, Clayton and daughter Orpha were Easter Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Abwell of Whitesville.

Miss Margaret Dougherty and Tracy Dutcher of Towanda, Pa. spent Easter with her mother, Mrs. P. J. Dougherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Robinson of Rutherford, N. J., are spending the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Robinson

30 YEARS AGO

March 28, 1914

Claire C. Backus, Publisher Mr. and Mrs. Francis Vickers have purchased the Orvis property on Elm Street occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Milligan. They will take possession in the near future.

Mrs. Carl Childs gave a dinner party at the Diner, Monday in honor of the 18th birthday of her daughter, Barbara with eight girls as guests. The table was beautifully decorated. The color scheme being green and yellow and was graced with a decorated cake. Miss Childs received many lovely gifts.

John Baker and Robert Burges participated in the County FFA Ping-Pong Tournament held in Wellsville, March 18. The boys played doubles and placed fourth in the tournament.

The students of Andover Central School are making Porters for the Andover Exchange Club Mistletoe Show which is being held some time in April.

Mrs. Mildred Woodruff and daughter, Joan, Mrs. Guy Hulst and daughter, Nancy and Miss Lois Honegger called on Mrs. Florence Martin at Alfred, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nobles and daughter, Patricia of Elmira passed the weekend at the Nobles home in Shovel Hollow. Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Sutherland and family of Richburg, Mr. and Mrs. John Nobles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Kemp and son Roland, were also visitors at the Nobles home, Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Williams, Mrs. John Nobles, Mrs. Lynn Trowbridge and Mrs. Hattie Conley attended the funeral of Mrs. Ola A. Emerson held in the Seventh Day Baptist Church at Alfred, Thursday.

Mrs. Walter Harris of Rochester spent a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Burns and other relatives.

Miss Florence Meyn of Washington, D. C., was a guest of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Meyn. Miss Meyn has recently been discharged from the WAC.

April 4, 1944

The Annual Meeting of the Andover Fire Department was held Tuesday evening of this week. The following Officers were elected for the coming year: Charles J. Sutor, President; Grant L. Fuller, Vice President; Francis Vickers, Secretary; Orville J. Whitaker, Treasurer; Albert J. Rogers, Chief; William C. Snyder, 1st Assistant Chief; Leo Marvel, 2nd Assistant Chief; George Galt, Foreman; Lewis Howe, 1st Assistant Foreman; Raymond O'Loughlin, 2nd Assistant Foreman; Clifford Howland, Trustee for 3 years. Following the reports by the various committees and officers for the year, the outgoing Chief, Carl Childs thanked them for their cooperation during his three-years as Chief of the Department. The meeting was proceeded by a supper served by a committee from the Firemen's Auxiliary of which Mrs. Claire Jackson was Chairman.

The Allegany Farmers Grange opened its meeting in Andover this morning with devotions in charge of Mrs. Grace Clark. The welcome was given by Earl Atwell and response by Elmo Leach of Whitesville. The afternoon session is on the theme "Planting and Seed Time" in charge of V. E. Stevens, Assistant Farm Bureau Agent. In the evening the Pomona Degree will be conferred on a class of candidates by Canadea Grange, followed by the Speaking Contest of the Future Farmers of America.

The Boy Scouts will collect Waste Papers in Andover Village this Saturday. If you have a large amount call E. J. Sootheran and the boys will get them for you.

A deal was closed this week whereby the Steuben Silk Mills of Andover are now the owners of the Albert Godde Bedin Mill property on Rochambeau Ave., which consists of two large buildings formerly owned by that company as silk mills. The Steuben Silk Mills came to Andover from Bath four years ago under the capable management of Mayor E. J. Allen and F. V. Conrad & have enjoyed a steady growth. They are now operating 90 looms and the necessary other departments such as spinners and winders to keep the looms going and have 55 persons on their payroll.

Carl Honegger was elected President of the Andover Rod & Gun Club for the coming year at the Club's Annual Meeting held last Friday evening at the Legion Hall. Other officers are: Gerald Hann Vice President; Myrian Phillipson Treasurer and Harold Sherman Secretary. Clifford Bixby and Eugene Butler were re-appointed Game Committee and Carroll Reger and George Sackett re-appointed Fish Committee. Duane Wilson County Fish Chairman of Wellsville was the guest speaker for the evening.

A daughter, Beth Ellen was born April 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cable at the St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo DeRemer are parents of a daughter, Linda Ann born March 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles Sherman are parents of a son born April 1 at Tullar Maternity Hospital, Wellsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith are parents of a daughter, Mary Ellen born April 2 at the St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell.

The Lucas Baker of the WAC daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Baker of Hornell, formerly of Andover, and Felix Congelli of Wellsville were married March 26.

Elmer Wood, son of Hornell, father of Mrs. George Wereley of Andover, died April 1. He was born in Blue Hills N. Y., June 16, 1872, a son of George and Evalise King Snyder. In April 1894 he married Rose L. Dickens, who survives with the following children: Evelyn J. Snyder, Mervin Tracy Snyder and Mrs. David Kutner of Hornell and Mrs. George Wereley of Andover, three brothers, Frank of Machias, Byron of Leon, and George of Salamanca, two sisters, Mrs. Jess Galfrith of Machias and Mrs. Warren Day of Arcade. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Almond.

Mrs. Mildred Woodruff and Mrs. T. R. Bassett attended the funeral of Mrs. Affin Allen Jewett at Belmont, Monday.

The Village Board held its organization meeting Monday. Mayor E. J. Allen presided over the meeting. Appointments made were Mrs. Hazel S. Atwood, Acting Mayor, C. S. Rennells Superintendent Electric Department, Fay E. Boyd Superintendent of Water and Highway Departments, Harry Smith Village Assessor, R. J. Sootheran, Village Attorney, Edward Ryan caretaker of Dump Leona Slocum, Janitor, Albert J. Rogers, Police Patrolman, Eugene Hurd, extra Police, Andover National Bank, designated as depository of funds and the Andover News designated as Official Publication. The following Street were designated to be resurfaced this Spring: Church and Water Streets from Elm to Corporation Line, Baker Street from Main to Grove, Grove from Baker to Town Shed, Rochambeau Ave from foot of hill to Corporation Line. Hill Street is to have a 3-coat wearing surface.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Dunham and Mr. and Mrs. John Howland were guests of relatives in Brookville Pa., over the weekend.

The Kings Daughters were entertained at a 7 o'clock dinner last evening at the Taylor home.

William Dyer has started work of taking down the house he purchased of Mrs. Pearl Brown preparatory to moving it to his lot on West Greenwood St.

Mrs. Willis Jewett of Independence is spending a week with her husband in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown and son of Little Gossens were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Spicer of Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Matteson of Crittenden District passed Sunday with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Carke of Independence.

March 26 a son was born to Attorney and Mrs. William Redberg of Greenwood.

Miss Nancy Jane Snyder is home from Lake Erie College for the Spring vacation.

The Exchange Club will hold their Mistletoe Show April 30 and May 1.

Miss Ina Rogers is entertaining the students of her music classes this Wednesday and Saturday afternoons at the music school at 126 Main St. in Wellsville. Each of the classes held a contest based on attendance and good work every eight weeks.

April 11, 1944

Under the direction of Mrs. Lawrence Corwin and Mrs. Ralph Burgett at the console, the Choir, assisted by guest singers from Greenwood and Whitesville, will present the oratorio "When Christ Arose" in Andover Methodist Church, April 14.

Pvt. Bernard Burger of Fort Dix, passed the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Burger.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ordway have moved from the Lynch apartment corner of Main and Center Streets to Hornell, where Mr. Ordway will reopen his plumbing business.

The Wellsville Feed and Supply Co., who have been doing business for the past six years in the building at the corner of Main and Elm Streets, have purchased the place they occupy from Arling R. Baker, this past week.

Miss Elizabeth Freeland daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Free land of Andover and Herbert L. Cleveland of North Hornell, were married April 6.

Miss Jean Halsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Halsey and Francis L. Brown, son of Mrs. Florence Brown of Greenwood were married April 5.

Undersheriff and Mrs. Raymond Dare of Wellsville are parents of a daughter, Darla Ellen born April 5.

Right Worthy Frances Rogers District Deputy Grand Matron, was in Friendship Monday evening where she, with Grand Lecturer Jay Lamont, made their Official Visit. Tuesday evening she made her official visit to Canaseraga and on April 17 she will go to Burton Chapter in Wellsville.

Oliver I. Kemp of Andover, Lodge No. 766 was unanimously recommended, as District Deputy Grand Master of Allegany District IOOF for the coming year at the Annual Meeting held in Wellsville Wednesday. Francis Vickers of Andover Lodge was named District Deputy Secretary.

A new Ecoupee, manufactured by Engineering and Research Corporation of Riverdale, Md., which has attracted considerable attention in aviation circles, arrived at the Wellsville Airport Sunday piloted by Richard Harder of Andover who recently purchased the plane. "Dick" was accompanied by Ray Snyder and the trip was made from Buffalo to Wellsville in 35 minutes.

Word has been received of the serious illness of Miss Eva Shepherd at her Mission Station in Boanza Belgian Congo Africa.

Mrs. Betty Joe Forrest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ludder recently returned from England entertained the Class of '41 at the home of her parents, Saturday evening. Refreshments were served and a social evening enjoyed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burdick of Elm Valley in company with Miss Elizabeth Felsing of Andover, left Sunday to visit relatives in Rochester and Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Charles Caple and daughter, Cathy, visited relatives in Buffalo from Thursday until Monday.

The Seniors of Andover Central School will present their Senior Play "The Patav", April 12. The cast is: Donald Baker, Patricia Tomada, Patricia Joyce, Norma Steadman, Duane Cornish, William Dougherty, Mareta Perry, Donald Northrup and John Horan.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ruger and