TULIP TIME AT SPEEDWAY

This Saturday, May 8th, Holland International Speedway will present day long activities starting at 12:00 noon in conjunction with the 21st Annual Holland Kiwanis Tulip Festival. The activities at the Speedway will include helicopter rides, stock car rides for the kids and a full race program.

The highlights of the Tulip Festival is the giant parade starting at 2:30 p. m. The parade will be reigned over by the Tulip Festival Queen selected the evening before. It includes many bands and floats. Many local activities will also be offered including a giant flea market. The Kiwanis smorgasbord will start at 4:30 in the afternoon at the Holland Central School.

At 12:00 noon, helicopter rides originating at the Speedway on Hoand Glenwood Road will be offered to the public. Also during this time, the Speedway will hold an Open House offering stock car rides to children around the high banked 3/4 mile oval. Monies collected from both the helicopter and the stock car rides will go to the Holland Kiwanis Club for its support of many local not-for-profit groups.

Stock car activity will start with practice at 6:00 p. m. The 12 race program will then get underway at 7:30. Highlights of the night's activities will be the awarding of Holland Tulip Festival Trophies to the feature winner of each racing division.

General admission for the Tulip Festival races is $3.50 for adults, children 10 - 14, $1.50 and under 10 free.
