

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

June 30 Mrs. Blanche Wallace at the Hornell Nursing Home, spent Thursday with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee. She will have a cataract operation soon.

Mrs. Dan Canty of Belmont came to her mother's Mrs. William McDonough Friday and they had a picnic lunch at Boyds Corners Park and visited Corning.

The Rev. Francis J. Erb Pastor at St. Mary's in Rexville and Joachim in Canisteo is transferred to Addison effective Wednesday.

Diplomas were given to the following graduates by John Hunt, President of the Board of Education at the Commencement Program at the School, Friday night: Leborah Cook, President; Joel Harris, Vice-President; Cindy Dennison, Secretary; Denise Smith Hoyt, Treasurer; Florence Mullen, Student Council Representative; Brenda Austin, Nathan Adams, Candy Babcock, Sylvia Crittenden, Kris Dytke, Polly Edwards, Ed ward Halsey, Jr., Teri Halsey, James Hink, Jr., Ronald Hoyt, Duane Losey, Larry Meehan, Joan Miles, Neal Pritchard, Ferd Sekoll, James Siebert, David Waters, Laura Wright, Donna York, and Rosa Morales our Exchange Student.

It was truly a Bicentennial Class with Red, White and Blue gowns and decorations. The Processional and Receptional were played by Juanita Piles and Scott Kickbush. The Invocation and Benediction were given by Elder Terry Smith. A Senior Instrumental Ensemble was played by Laura Wright, Deborah Cook and Cindy Dennison. Salutatorian Laura Wright gave the welcome and a resume of short comings of school. She also gave recognition and a yearbook to two teachers, Mrs. Margaret Murray who is retiring and Mrs. Virginia York to whom the yearbook was dedicated. They were given a red rose by Scott Kickbush. Deborah Cook and Denise Hoyt were co-edictorian speaker and Denise gave special recognition and a red rose to her mother, Mrs. Charles Smith for her understanding and love.

Awards were given to the Seniors by Principal Gary J. Moore, also by Student Council President Joel Good and Vice-President Scott Robbins, and by Mrs. Patricia McCaffrey PTA President. "Let There Be Peace" was sung by Lisa Reisman. Seniors were congratulated by friends and relatives in the cafeteria. Most had home parties and they visited each others parties.

The following Awards were given: Babe Ruth Award, boy, Duane Losey - girl, Polly Edwards; Lillian Bird Memorial - Debbie Cook; PTA - Science, Debbie Cook; Athletics, girl, Candy Babcock; boy, Larry Meehan; Agriculture David Waters; DAR Senior Citizenship, Debbie Cook; First State Bank, Polly Edwards; Betty Crocker Award, Laura Wright; Jerry Burd Memorial Scouting Award, James Hink; Dekalb Agriculture Award - Larry Meehan; Danforth Foundation Award, boy, Neil Pritchard; girl, Denise Hoyt; Bausch & Lomb Science Award Debbie Cook; Achievement Certificate Award, Polly Edwards, Denise Hoyt, Terri Halsey, Ferd Sekoll; G. Herman Burd Memorial Scholarship Award, Cindy Dennison $200; Greenwood Memorial Scholarship Awards, $200 each - Debbie Cook, Florence Mullen, Joel Harris, Ferd Sekoll, Alternate; West Greenwood Grange, Cindy Dennison; Humanitarian Award, Duane Losey; Service Key, Cindy Dennison.

The Rev. Thomas Burr is the new pastor for the Rexville St. Mary's Church and Canisteo Joachim Church starting over Wednesday, June 23. He is a native of Corning and was the Assistant Pastor at St. James in Rochester. We wish him well in his new assignment. Rev. Burr was well liked but his health was not strong enough for two churches.

In Addison his parish is one church St. Catherine's.

Mrs. Jennie White was in Syracuse when her brother Earl Atwell had heart surgery at Upstate Hospital in Syracuse, Erie, and died.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Horton and daughter, Laurie of Horseheads came Tuesday and her mother Mrs. Wyman Kruse and Gary Krusen went with them to Andover to the funeral. Mrs. Elton White attended the funeral Tuesday and was at the Mulholland Funeral Home in Andover for calling hours. Many from Greenwood visited the Funeral Home for Mr. Atwell.

Richard Wallace went to Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester Monday to visit a back specialist. He returned again this Monday.

John D. Rogers of the Eastside Stock Farm on the Canisteo Road, died Sunday, June 20 at the Bethesda Community Hospital, North Hornell. He would have been 88 on July 27. He was from a pioneer family born and always lived in Greenwood, son of John Dutcher Rogers, Sr., and Maryetta Oshin. The older members of the family were born on grandparents farm, Freeman Rogers at West Greenwood, where the great grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Donnison now live. His family bought the Randall Stephens farm in 1900 where John D. Rogers Jr., continued to live for 76 years.

The family was invited to the home of Mrs. Robert Ordway in Canisteo after the service. Memorial gifts were given to the United Methodist Church and the Volunteer Firemen. Many from here visited at the Smith Funeral Home in Canisteo and went to the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Streeter and children Perry and Jennifer of Pleasant Plains, Ill., came Sunday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Streeter and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brown and other relatives for two weeks. The children will stay longer with their Streeter grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Donaldson and sons, George and John of Rockledge, Florida came Thursday to spend the summer on their farm at West Greenwood. John is visiting his sister in Greenwood.

Mrs. Redmond Goodno of Tonawanda, came Friday and was a weekend guest of Miss Grace Young. She presented a memorial Celtic Cross to the United Methodist Church, Sunday for dedication.

Lowell Nolan, Jr., returned home from the Bethesda Hospital, Wednesday. He is going to a specialist in Rochester.

Kathleen Bunday of Christian Hollow Road entered Bethesda Community Hospital, Thursday.

Clayton Hoyt entered St. James Mercy Hospital Thursday.

The Ambulance took Mrs. Richard Nye to Jones Memorial Hospital, Thursday morning. She is having surgery and was able to come home Saturday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard Dennis of Orange, Florida were in town Saturday as guests of Mrs. Louise Seibel, also dinner guest was Mrs. Jennie White. They called on Miss Grace Young and gave Mrs. Redmond Goodno of Tonawanda a gift.

Mrs. Ruth York of Andover attended the worship service at the United Methodist Church, Sunday and was a dinner guest of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York and Judy.

Sunday morning at the United Methodist Church, Robert Oyer was the featured speaker by transfer from Short Tract. Mrs. Redmond Goodno presented the Celtic Cross in memory of her husband and Clinton York presented ten new Bibles in memory of Mrs. John Meehan and Mrs. E. Grace Rogers. The gifts were accepted by Virgil Hussey Trustee of the Church. The pastor preached on Methodist Beliefs using a pamphlet for each one and communion was celebrated.

"THE METS" - Little League Team with "Pat" Howland, Manager, (left) who are in First Photo by Dale Greene

The next meeting of the Senior Citizens will be held at the United Methodist Church, Wednesday, July 7.

Tom Harkenrider, a member of the Busy Farmers and Farmerettes 4-H Sr. Group was chosen to take part in the District 4-H recognition trip to Rochester where they visited a television station and the Zoo. They were selected on the basis of the project demonstrations they gave this year.

Annette Ahearn and 19 other 4-Hers from Steuben County will attend the Annual 4-H Club Congress at Cornell University June 29 through July 1st. She is a member of the Busy Farmers and Farmerettes 4-H Sr. Group.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wallace attended Commencement at Andover Central School Saturday night for their grandson, Robert Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamphier visited her mother, Mrs. Claude Daggett and sister, Miss Charlotte Daggett at Delevan last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt and family attended a graduation and party at Arkport Saturday night for niece Bridgett Stillman.

Mrs. Robert Muller of Fairport attended Commencement Friday night, as guest of Miss Deborah Cook.

Mrs. Hulda McDonough was a dinner guest of Mrs. Josephine Kruger of Savona and friends at the Big Flms in Hornell, last Sunday.

Mrs. Gertrude Stephens went with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stephens of Canisteo to Mr. and Mrs. Barry Quinn and Katie at Honeoye Falls for a Sunday birthday dinner for Katie.

Mrs. Florence Moore entered St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell Sunday to have tests.

Mrs. Hulda McDonough spent Monday with Mrs. Catherine Ross at Church St. Court, Hornell.

July 7 The big news this week is the passing of the School Budget. There were 437 voters out to vote, with 254 yes and 233 no. Mrs. Robert McCaffrey, President of the PTA, wrote a letter to the Evening Tribune asking everyone to come and vote no matter what they voted. She may be credited in turning the tide. Those against printed a page ad in the Canisteo Peninsula telling the people to vote no. That is credited in gaining votes for both sides as it made those in favor get to work for the budget. Parents of children in school are relieved that the program set up can go on.

The Marching Band can complete the season schedule going to Wellsville Bicentennial Parade at 3 p. m., Saturday, July 3, to Andover Bicentennial Parade Monday

July 5, to Danville Gala Days Parade at 6:30 p. m. Saturday July 10, to Angelica, Allegany County Firemen's Parade, Saturday, July 17 at 7:00 p. m.

Principal Gary Moore and the Board of Education members, John Hunt, Patricia Higgins, Charles Smith, James Tracy and Thomas Harkenrider have worked hard on the Budget and know the law on what is required: The Board and Clerk Doris Bennett met after election to reorganize. Virgil Hussey opened and closed the polls and Emmett McNeill and Doris Cheesman were Tellers to take the results. Twelve Senior Citizens helped as Inspectors of Election.

The Summer Recreation is being set up, expenses shared by the Town Board and Board of Education. One course advertised is Funtrition at Greenwood Central School July 15 - August 19 on Thursday, 9:30 - 11:30 is for ages 9 - 12 and 12:30 to 2:30 is for ages 12 - 16.

The Town Board gave money earlier to organize Boys Baseball Coaches Duane Coates and Bryan Higgins are practicing 9 - 12 year old boys on the school diamond Tuesday and Thursday. They scheduled a game at Jasper July 5 for 6 p. m. for the boys and will play Troupsburg. There will be a Tournament July 24 at Arkport. Steve Moore is Coach for the Peewee Team of boys ages 6 - 7 - 8. There are about 30 boys coming out.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dieterman and two sons of Kokomo, Indiana came Thursday and spent until Monday, July 5 with his mother Mrs. Clayton Holt. They came for the wedding of his sister, Debra to Henry Briggs, Saturday, July 3.

The Ambulance took Mrs. Margaret Birmingham of Rexville to St. James Mercy Hospital, Wednesday. She was reported better on Thursday though still on oxygen.

The Volunteer Ambulance Crew was called to the State Land Monday and at the same time got a call from Lowell Nolan Jr. The men called the Canisteo Ambulance to take Mr. Nolan to the Bethesda Hospital. Our crew went to the State Land and took Duane Prutsman of Jasper, who was hit by a falling tree, to St. James Mercy Hospital.

Thursday the Ambulance was called to take Mrs. Martha Kernan to Bethesda Hospital. She had fallen at home and neighbors found her.

Mrs. John McCaffrey and son, Jeffrey of York spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffrey last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt, Susan and Sandy and Mrs. Roberta Stillman took their Exchange Student Rosa Morales to Buffalo Airport Thursday to fly home to Nicaragua after her year here with the Hunt family and attending Greenwood Central School.

The Junior members of the Busy Farmers and Farmerettes 4-H Club enjoyed a picnic, games and a hike recently at Boyd's Corners Park in Jasper. Those attending were: Louann and Joe Ahearn, Camille and Kim Atherton, Cindy Butler Dan and Tim Harkenrider, Tess Helgeson, Mindy Lamphier, Pam and Pat Leonard, Mrs. Eleanor Lamphier and Mrs. Sharon Harkenrider were drivers.

Mrs. Eleanor Lamphier and Mrs. Valerie Atherton are taking ten weeks of Dog Obedience lessons at the center every Wednesday night. They started the class for 4-Hers and others at Greenwood Central School Parking Lot Monday nights, 7 - 8 p. m. with 12 - 14 in the class. This week was their third teaching class of the ten weeks. Harley Lamphier takes Mindy to Hornell every Wednesday night for her second year lessons. They are preparing the class so some will enter the contest at the Bath Fair the last of August.

Mrs. Robert Hooke and her mother, Mrs. Clayton Holt were hostesses last Saturday afternoon June 26 for a bridal shower for Miss Debra Teribury at the RLDS Church dining room. The honor-guest received many lovely gifts and refreshments were served to nine guests. Miss Teribury was married Saturday, July 3 to Henry Briggs of Arkport in the Arkport Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Brewster went to Harrison Valley last Sunday where the family celebrated the 25th wedding anniversary of their parents.

Dr. and Mrs. Dale Pease and son, Michael of Ames, Iowa, came last Tuesday, June 22 and spent until Wednesday, June 30 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pease at West Greenwood. He is Physical Education Director at Iowa State University at Ames. His sister Mr. and Mrs. Alan Boss and daughter, Rebecca Elaine of Williamson spent the weekend and helped prepare for the Open House Sunday afternoon for their parents' 41st wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kilbourn and family of Salamanca spent last Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray. Mr. Kilbourn and sons, Mr. Murray and Mr. Duane Coates and sons went to Wellsville for the air show.

Miss Patricia Alice Mills became the bride of Dean Robert Lamphier at a 11 a. m. service, Saturday, June 12, 1976 at the Greenwood United Methodist Church. Arrangements of gladioli, carnations and daisies surrounding lighted white candles decorated the church. The Rev. Ray Albaugh pastor, performed the doublinging

(Continued on Page 4)