

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Whelpley

Whelpley-Wightman Exchange Wedding Vows May 29th

The Andover United Methodist church was the setting for the marriage of Joan Marie Wightman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Wightman of 22 Barney Street, Andover, N. Y., and Robert J. Whelpley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Whelpley of Voorhees Hill, Wellsville, N. Y., on Saturday, May 29, 1976 at 2 p. m.

The Rev. Ray Albaugh, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with Spring garden flowers centered with white candles, with other arrangements of red, white and blue flowers, completing church decorations. Gregory Hardy, nephew of the bride, served as acolyte at the altar. Mrs. Lawrence Godown, Andover, was organist and Mrs. William Smith, Andover, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white dotted swiss over crepe, with high round neckline, sheer yoke and full sleeves, all trimmed in lace, with princess lines, ending in a flounced hemline, featuring high waist tied over a detachable train. Her Camelot headpiece, chapel veil was edged in lace and she carried red roses.

Matron-of-Honor was Mrs. David Hardy, Andover, sister of the bride and the bridesmaids were Mrs. David Kelleher, Wellsville and Miss Janet Whelpley, Wellsville, sister of the groom.

The Matron-of-honor was attired in red and white checked gingham with white eyelet yoke and sleeves, round lace collar and wide floun-ed hemline. She wore a white garden hat with red and white checked gingham streamers. The bridesmaids were similar to the Matron-of-honor in navy blue and white checked gingham. Each attendant carried a single red rose.

Dennis Whelpley, Wellsville, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Donald Williamson of Syracuse and John Whelpley, Wellsville, brother of the groom. Mark Hardy, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

A buffet luncheon for 100 guests was held at the Andover Masonic Temple. Mr. and Mrs. David A. Hardy entertained at a cocktail party at their home following the reception in honor of the bride and groom. The couple will reside at 105 Elizabeth Blackwell Street in Syracuse.

The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School and SUNY Ag-Tech at Alfred and is employed as a Registered Nurse with the Red Cross in Syracuse. The groom is a graduate of Wellsville Central School, Corning Community College and is now in his last year at Upstate Medical School in Syracuse.

Prenuptial parties included: A Dessert Shower by Mrs. Lawrence Corwin and Mrs. Allen Corwin; Dinner Shower at the Castle in Olean with bride's co-workers from Olean General Hospital by Dorothy Milne, Rebecca Tamburini and Mary Ellen Wojtanik; Rehearsal Dinner at Cameo Restaurant in Wellsville by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whelpley, groom's parents, ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills Jr., of Andover, R.D. 2, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lamphier of Canisteo R.D., Mrs. June Rollins of Canisteo R.D. presided at the organ and accompanied Mrs. Barbara Duke of Greenwood R.D., sister of the bridegroom, soloist.

Greenwood News

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor length gown of Miramist featuring a high neckline and yoke adorned with Venice lace which also appliqued the Empire waistline, long sheer sleeves and A-line skirt. Matching lace edged the hemline and chapel train. She chose a floor length mantilla of bridal illusion bordered in matching lace to complete her ensemble. She carried white and pastel colored daisies, white carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Ann McCormick of Andover R.D. was Maid-of-Honor, wearing a floor length A-line gown of peach colored crepe featuring white checked flowers and butterfly sleeves. The Misses Deb Baker of Andover and Eileen McCormick of Andover R.D. and Shelly Lamphier of Canisteo R.D. niece of the bridegroom were bridesmaids. Each was attired similarly to the honor attendant in gowns of blue, yellow and green. All the attendants wore wide brimmed white hats adorned with ribbons to match their gowns, and carried nosegays of white-pastel colored daisies with baby's breath.

Miss Julie Koebler of Andover R.D., cousin of the bride and Miss Michele Duke of Greenwood R.D. niece of the bridegroom, were flowergirls. They wore pink Empire waisted gowns with puffed sleeves.

Dale Lamphier of Canisteo, R.D. was best man for his brother. Ushers were Roger and John Mills of Andover R.D., brothers of the bride and Kerry O'Brien of Greenwood R.D.

A reception was held in the Wellsville Moose Club for 150 guests from Almond, Andover, Wellsville, Greenwood, Canisteo, Addison, Branchport, Rexville, Pine City, Long Island, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Texas. Music was furnished by Carlton Dart of Rexville.

The bride is a graduate of Greenwood Central School and earned her AAS degree in Human Services from Corning Community College in June 1976. She is employed in the activities department at the Wellsville Nursing Home. The bridegroom is a graduate of Greenwood Central School and BOCES in Welding. He is a welder at C E Air Preheater Co., Wellsville. The couple are living at her grandfather's Arthur Mills Sr. farm home in Andover R.D.

Awards Continued

Latin teacher, in recognition of sustained determination and enthusiasm in pursuit of knowledge.

Robert Hyland

Doris Church Award

Presented by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Byndas to the senior who has faithfully served and supported Andover Central School.

Nancy Stephens
Faculty Scholarship
$200.00

Awarded to: Gary Barden
1st Alternate — Kelly Shaw
2nd Alternate — John Davis

The Phil Fairbanks Ag. & Ind.
Mechanic of the Year Award

Given to the top student in the Ag. & Ind. Mechanic Class at BOCES

Eric Wilson

Freshman Athlete Award

Awarded to the Freshman Athlete of the year, by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Sly in memory of "Mike" Gath.

$5.00 — Patrick Atwell

do you know... about our customer service department?

If you have a question about your bill or want a change made in your service (such as a phone moved, an extension installed, or your directory listing changed) call our business office. If your phone is out of order, (the bell doesn't ring, you can't hear or be heard, or you have a continuing problem of any kind), call our repair service number.

Whatever your question about your service, look in the front information pages of your directory for the number to call. Helping you... an important part of Continental's job.

Continental Telephone System

An Equal Opportunity Employer

