Babe Ruth News

Belmont overwhelmed a young giddy Andover Club at Andover, Monday, June 7 by a 14-5 score after 5 innings.

Belmont collected 14 runs, 12 hits and allowed 2 errors. Andover came up with 5 runs, 3 hits and 4 errors.

Mike McNeill, Ron Glover and Kevin Ordway each added singles in loss. Eric MacMichael played an excellent game, behind the plate. The Andover pitchers showed signs of inexperience but you can be sure they will improve as the season continues.

Friendly Valley Homemakers Enjoy Trip

Members of the Friendly Valley Homemakers Club journeyed to Letchworth State Park, Wednesday as the closing event of their year's activities during the summer, and enjoyed a luncheon at the Glen Iris Inn, held in the Colonial style building erected in the mid 1800. Following the luncheon the group visited the historical interests including the Indian Center, Mary Jemison's Memorial and "long house", also viewed the scenic features overlooking the Genesee River and Falls. There were twenty-four present including Andover Club members and guests.
