MEN-WOMEN

Enlist in the Army and start college at the same time.

Over 1000 colleges and the Army have an educational plan called Project Ahead. It's a way to enlist in the Army and start your college education at the same time.

If you qualify under Project Ahead, you choose a participating school before you enlist. You'll take courses taught by accredited colleges right on post, with the Army paying up to 75% of the tuition. And after your enlistment's over, you'll be able to continue your education with further financial assistance under the G.I. Bill.

If you're interested in starting on your college degree while you're working at a good job, call us.
