TO THOSE WHO CARE:
It is very hard for me to find the words to express our family's feelings to all those who in any way helped us at the time of Toby's tragic death. Just thank you is not enough. He had so many friends.

To The Friendship American Legion Post 1168 and it's Auxilliary for the honor and respect they showed this family; we will be forever grateful. I have never seen such a beautiful group of men nor have I ever heard Taps so flawlessly sounded yet so final. Toby would have been so proud. He was so proud of his heritage and our flag, any disrespect to it or any man who served his country upset him terribly.

To the Wellsville V.F.W. Post and its representatives, we thank you.

To the Friendship Firemen and their Auxilliary for their endless acts of kindness for the prayer at the funeral home and the lovely casket they provided us, you will be in our hearts always.

To the Allegan Firemen, Police and Ambulance Squad, what would we do without men like you? Our sincere gratitude, and to State Trooper Engalis who had the most difficult part of his job to perform to tell us the tragic news and for all his help.

To Father Bromelov for his prayers, kindness, beautiful service and strong shoulder to lean on when in need, a true friend of this family.

To all those who sent such beautiful flowers, cards, prayers, food and to the hundreds who called who couldn't, we are so touched and understand.

To the uncle, cousin and dear friends who helped his brother carry him to his final resting place, GOD BLESS YOU ALL.

Only God knows why Toby was taken from us. We loved him so if ever a man built a memorial for himself it was Toby. He left behind not only a lovely home built with love, sweat and tears for a truly beautiful family, he also left no doubt in anyone's mind who knew him how important his love and respect for his entire family was. He worked and tried so hard. He was so young and had so much to live for. It seems so unfair. We will always ask WHY?

I will continue to fight for the things in which I believe and the way our family was brought up and in Toby's memory for his children's rights so that they will have a better cleaner community and country in which to live because I am his mother.

HI-HERALD

of these same resolutions. Less homework? More free time for students? Yes, teachers are guilty too. The old sayings are soon replaced with, "there's always next year."

Feature

by Pam Kniffen
So here we all are again — right back in school. Some are glad to be back and some are, to put it nicely, just a little less than glad. Yes, we're all hitting the old books pretty hard. How long that will last is some what questionable. We all get kind of used to the glamour and high excitement of the summer months and then all of a sudden, the leaves are all falling off the trees and school bells are ringing in our ears. It's hard to shut them up when Mom hollers at us in the early hours of dawn to get out of bed or we'll be late for school. That's not exactly what I'd want to wake up to in the morning, but everybody had to go through it at one time or another and as far as I know nobody's died yet.

School's not ALL bad. I mean, there's always lunch to look forward to. No, not really, some people have a real thirst for knowledge and just won't quit until they're smart enough. If it weren't for those people there wouldn't be anybody to be compared to — what would the teachers do if they couldn't say, "Well, he can do it, so you can too". And then you get to thinking, "Hey, he's not getting away with that. I can do it and I can do it better." And that's how it starts. And it doesn't end until graduation for most. Even though you spend thirteen years of your life getting up at dawn, you'll look back and see that it was all some how worth it.
