About forty neighbors surprised Mrs. Elizabeth Hann and family Tuesday afternoon and enjoyed a thirteen supper on the Hann lawn. The gathering was arranged as a friendly get-together and also as a farewell to Mrs. Hann and her sons who are leaving this neighborhood and the house where they have lived for the past 20 years. They expect to move soon to the house on Grove Street which they are remodeling. The East Avenue gathering expressed genuine regret that the Hanns were leaving that section of the Village. It is of interest to know that of those living in that neighborhood now only two families were here when Mrs. Hann moved to her present home, those of Mrs. Martha A. Orvis and Mr. and Mrs. George Beebe.
