News That's Print To Fit

Hi Folks! In case some of you thought that sub-zero weather the first of the month was just a freak storm that wouldn't repeat itself until winter officially arrived — well, guess you were wrong as it was down to 10 degrees below zero Monday morning, December 13 — and didn't warm up very much all day. It did get around to warm up a little on Tuesday, and on Wednesday it actually got up above freezing so, guess we are having a heat wave!

Fourth of July Committee Meet

The Fourth of July Committee held its December meeting Tuesday evening, December 14, 1976 at the home of Mel Mickle with eight persons attending.

After much discussion, the theme for the 1977 Fourth of July Celebration was selected which members felt was appropriate for the "Bi-Centennial Celebration of the State which is: "New York State and its Glorious Past". This will afford a wide range of ideas and possibilities for the floats that local organizations will be requested to enter in the Parade.

A tentative budget was set at $3,000 which is $800 less than the actual amount spent this past year for the "Bi-Centennial Celebration". It was felt that cuts could be made in several areas although the same expenditure is planned for the Fireworks display.

Money making projects were discussed with tentative plans calling for a "50-50" Club in January; a 7 & 7 Party in February; and another "50-50" Club in March; a "Ham and Leek" Dinner on Sunday, April 17, 1977 (the week after Easter Sunday); and the annual Auction in May on Sunday, May 15, 1977 (the week after Mother's Day).

This year, more than ever, the Celebration Committee needs more assistance and participation in order to keep this important tradition of a local Fourth of July Celebration alive. After all, this is an annual event that allows every organization that participates to make a sizeable profit to help operate throughout the year — and the members of the Committee end up with nothing out a lot of work and the satisfaction of a "Friendly Community" working together to keep that wonderful "Andover Spirit" alive!
