Letters To Santa From The Second Grade

Dear Santa,
Please may I have a grader and building set and a B.B. gun and I don't care what else I get.
At school the work is easy.
I hope to see you in the Big N.
Thank You.

From:
Mark Hardy

Dear Santa,
Do you have any kids? Please bring me a doll house and Barbie and Ken dolls and camper. Will you please bring me a snowmobile suit and boots? Will you please bring me a Babe-that-away? Thank you.

From:

Mary Burton

Dear Santa,
May I have a car and boat and a December calendar and a dog and sled and a rabbit and nine kittens and a hat and mittens. Thank you.

Love,
Mark George

Dear Santa,
How do you get up the chimney? My Dad would like some gloves My mother would like a new coat. How is it up at the North Pole? I would like to live with you some day. Thank you.

Love,
Kelly Nesley

Dear Santa,
I would like a playdough ice cream truck. I'm in second grade.

I hope you can find my room. Did you really grow up with the name Kris Kringle? And was your wife really a school teacher. Thank you.

Love,
Vicki Jordan

Dear Santa,
I love you Santa. Santa, how do your deer get up on the roof? Santa, I love Rudolph, and all the reindeer. Santa, will you please get my Mom a purse and my Dad some shaving lotion, and me and my brother some toys. Santa, I love your cheesy pants and your boots and your nice pants. Santa, I love you. Thank you at the North Pole.

Love,
Michelle Clark

Dear Santa,
How is Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer? And how are your elves? Santa, please give me some toys. Give my Mom a bottle of perfume. She is a good Mom for the whole year. Santa, I am just like my Mom. Will you please get me toys like a Holly Hobby doll and a Holly Hobby Baking Oven? I thank you.
