

From Our Files

a party given by relatives and friends at the Bohndigs Club House in Seid, Saturday night, September 20. Over 100 were in attendance to enjoy a social evening and dancing. Refreshments were served during the evening and the honored couple was presented many cards and gifts.

Town Clerk, F. S. Potter, has received and placed on sale the Deer Licenses for the coming season which opens November 24 to 30. Licenses are available Sunday with a bag limit of one buck.

Miss Marilyn Hardy of Buffalo, daughter of Mrs. Berna Hardy, who has been employed for some time at the Hengerer Store in Buffalo, has had the honor of being chosen as one of the eight young lady employees to model gown in their fashion show which was held in the Hotel Statler Ballroom last Monday evening. The showing of gowns from the 18th Century progressing to those of today made it very interesting and it was attended by several critics including those from Vogue and Madameselle. With a setting of beautiful lighting and soft music it was a delightful occasion.

Miss Dorothy Dean, daughter of Mrs. James P. Dean, of Andover and Kurt E. Hoyer, son of Mrs. Anna Hoyer of Wellsville, were married September 23.

J. H. Kessler, Supervising Principal of Andover Central School, announced that Andover School will be closed next week, Sept. 30 to Oct. 4, to enable children to assist local farmers in the potato harvest.

September 27 a movie picture "Babes in the Woods" will be presented at the Presbyterian Church for the children of Andover. A collection will be taken to help defray the expense of the movie.

A six inch water main broke Tuesday evening about 7 p. m. in the center of the creek under the North Main Street Bridge. The Village Crew and Firemen worked all night to repair the break. The water was turned on about 7 a. m. Wednesday. The American Legion Auxiliary and the Firemen's Auxiliary served doughnuts and coffee to the workers during the night. The doughnuts being donated by Reynolds Market.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lagerson welcomed a son September 21 at Townsend Hospital in Gowanda. The young man has been named Jay Robert.

Mrs. P. W. Richardson and son John and daughter, Regina Ann, motored to Panesville, Ohio Monday where Miss Richardson entered Lake Erie College as a freshman.

Mayor E. J. Allen announced the Andover will revert back to Stand and Time along with other communities in the area, the last Sunday in September which is Sunday, September 29.

Corporal Fay Brown, arrived home Saturday on a 50-day terminal leave. Fay has been in the Service 19 months with 11 months overseas service in the European Theatre.

EFC Louis Wintenberg sailed from the U. S. Sept. 7 aboard the USS Sea Star for Fairbanks, Alaska where he will be stationed with Task Force "Frigid". An Army Ground Force Testing Unit set up to test all types of personal and operating equipment for the Army in sub zero weather this winter. He arrived in Whittier, Alaska on Sept. 12 and from there proceeded to Ladd Field Fairbanks, Alaska.

R. LeRoy Harder, 52, brother of Guy Harder, died Sept. 19 at Milwaukee, Wis. He was born in Wellsville July 2, 1894 the son of Emmett and Cynthia Whitney Harder. He is survived by his wife, Eva Dexter Harder; two brothers, Elton of Wellsville and Guy of Andover; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Stebbins of Wellsville and Mrs. Florence Glase Venouey of Butler, Pa. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Wellsville.

Miss Lyda Woodworth of Greenwood and Jacob Frank of Belmont were married September 11.

Members of Andover Exchange Club made an inspection tour to the Ed Kent Potato Farm on Pingrey Hill last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruger entertained at a family dinner Friday night in honor of the golden wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoard and the birthday of Donald Emery.

Mrs. Flora Warren of St. Petersburg, Florida has been a recent guest of Mrs. Eliza Hann of Elm Valley and called on many of her former neighbors in that place.

The 4-H Club for Boys over 19 held a meeting Sept. 20 and elected the following officers: President, Robert Burger; Vice President, Richard Bills; Secretary, Earl Gross; Treasurer, John Cannon; News Reporter, Ronald Atwell and Song Leader, Robert Dunham.

Paul Ryan and Wendell Vars left Thursday for Philadelphia, Pa. where they will continue their Pharmacy Course in the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science after two years service in the Navy.

Mrs. Helen Cox, Mrs. Louise Withrill and Miss Mary Mac, Donald of Niles, Michigan, were guests Thursday evening at the Wilson Barrett and Corwin families. They were on a 29,000 mile auto trip that included Quebec, Boston, New York, Niagara Falls and Detroit. Mrs. Cox is a grand daughter of the late David Corwin.

Mr. and Mrs. George McAndrew were dinner guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Corwin in Wells. Other guests were Mrs. Mary McDonough, Mrs. Helen Cox and Mrs. Louise Withrill of Niles, Michigan.

Weekend Special at the Andover Market Basket are: Apples 4 lbs. 25c; California Lemons 33c a dozen; Cigarettes all brands 13c a package; Grade A Fowl 69c a lb.; Haddock Fillets 39c a lb.; Red Perch Fillets 41c a lb.; Mother's Oats 26c. lg. box; Pure Granulated Cane Sugar 5 lb. bag 35c

Mrs. Merle Clark

Mrs. Gladys Clark of Belfast died in the Cuba Memorial Hospital, Sunday, January 30, 1977. Born in the Town of Greenwood, January 6, 1899, she was a daughter of Frank and Anne English McGraw. In June of 1921, she married Merle Clark, who survives. She had lived in Belfast for the past four years, previously residing in the Ripley and Whitesville areas.

Mrs. Clark was a member of the United Methodist Church of Limestone.

Surviving besides her husband are a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Padock of Mayville, N. Y., three grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. David Matteson of Ripley and Mrs. Vera Bowles of Corning; a brother, Colburn McGraw of Alfred; and several nieces and nephews.

Friends were received at the Wildman Funeral Home Inc., 931 Maple St., Whitesville, where funeral and committal services were held there at 2 p. m., Wednesday, February 2, 1977. Burial will be in Whitesville Rural Cemetery.

Alleg. Co. Association of Educational Secretaries To Meet Feb. 7th

The Allegany County Association of Educational Secretaries will have its February meeting on Monday, the 7th, beginning with a 6:00 p. m. dinner at the Castle Acres in Almond.

Mrs. Sharon Hoover, Elementary Principal at Alfred-Almond School will, with a slide presentation share her experiences and impressions of her recent trip to Russia.

President, Francis Gibbert will discuss plans for a workshop on February 21, at the Occupational Center in Belmont. This will be in conjunction with the Superintendent's Day Conferences for the teachers of the county.

Reservations for the dinner meeting should be made to Virginia Rood at Alfred-Almond.

Hi Herald Continued

Green is his mother. He has two brothers, Alvin 44 and Jim 15.

His hobby is working on cars (especially Chevies). After his graduation he would eventually like to set up an auto body shop in the area. Four or five months after graduation, he plans to be married to his fiancée Jane Nye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nye.

Justice Court Report For January

Thomas Barnett, Wellsville, N. Y., permit clinging to vehicle 12/28/76 — fine $10.00

Martha Geer, Andover, N. Y., passed stop sign, 1/2/77 — fine $10.00

Leo Davis, Andover, N. Y., failure to keep right, 4/29/76 — fine $15.00

Parking, 6 cases at $3.00 — $18.00

RICHARD SCHRADER, Justice

Use the Classified Ad Section

ANDOVER Rod & Gun Club Will Hold A

Valentine Breakfast Sunday, Feb. 13th

7:00 A. M. to 1:00 P. M. $2.50 per person

Menu — Pancakes, Sausage or Ham, Eggs, Home Fries, Juice, Coffee

Card Of Thanks

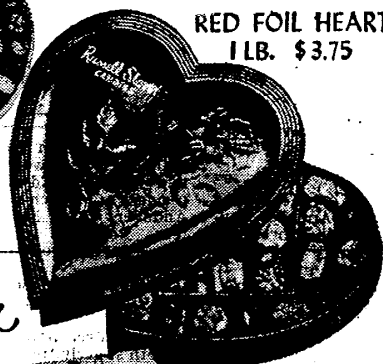

We wish to thank all of the relatives, neighbors and friends as well as the Andover Rescue Squad for their consideration, assistance, flowers, food and other acts of kindness at the time of our bereavement.

The Family Of WILDA ("Billie") SMITH

For Your Valentine Monday February 14

SATIN HEART 2LB. $9.45

RED FOIL HEART 1LB. $3.75

Russell Stover CANDIES

ASSORTED CHOCOLATES 1LB. $2.95

VARS PHARMACY

"Where Pharmacy Is a Profession"

Andover, N. Y.

Phone: 478-8332

PERM SPECIAL

During FEBRUARY and MARCH

AT

Connie's Beauty Shop

10 Church St.

Andover

Reg. Perms — $15.00

now $12.00

Reg. Perms — $12.75

now $10.00

Call: 478-8649

for Appointment