Hugh Mills, 73, of Hornell, died Monday night at the home of his daughter, Cora Lyman of Almond, after a long illness. He was born in Ulysses, Pa., and lived most of his life in the Town of West Union where he worked as a logger for the George J. Burd Lumber Co. of Canisteo. For 23 years he was a foreman for the Marsh Oil Co. He moved to Hornell in 1967. He had worked in the pro-shop of the Hornell Country Club.

Survivors are his widow, Hannah Mills; five sons, Carlyle and Alvin of Hornell, Gerald of Ailentown, Robert of Milltown, Ind., and Charles of Rochester; four daughters, Mrs. Milton Leyman of Almond, Mrs. Robert Croon of Jacksonville, Fla., Mrs. John Grimaldi of Savona, and Mrs. Robert O'Dell of Greenwood; one brother, Glenn Mills of Westfield, Pa.; two sisters, Mrs. Jay Thompson and Mrs. Winfield Grant of Cuba; 34 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

The family received friends at the H. P. Smith and Son Funeral Home in Canisteo, Tuesday and Wednesday and the funeral was held there at 2 p. m., Thursday with the Rev. Arnold-Covey officiating. Burial was in the Greenwood Cemetery.

Contributions could be made to the Almond Ambulance Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Meehan of Rexville, were in Niagara Falls, January 16 - 20 for the New York Holstein Convention which was held at the Niagara Hilton Hotel.

Mr. Meehan was elected to the post of Second Vice-President of the New York Holstein Association for the coming year at the annual meeting. He has been a member of the State Board of Directors for the past six years and a member of the Executive Committee for the past four years. New York State Holstein Association has a membership of over 7,000 dairy farmers. Mr. Meehan has been a member of the Allegany Steuben Holstein Club for the last twenty years holding many offices.

Mr. and Mrs. Ornel Ogden recently bought the property of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher and moved there last weekend from Canisteo. He moved there from Rochester a year ago and was renting. Mr. Ogden is Manager of the Munro Muffler, a new business on the Hornell-Arkport Road near Nichols, starting a year ago. We welcome them to Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buttery and two daughters who rented the South Apartment in the Wilbur Donaldson house, moved to Canisteo last week.

The Sesqui-Centennial Committee met at the Town Hall Friday night with 15 present. They plan different things during the year with special events August 11 - 12 - 13. The Methodist Church celebration, with Bishop Ynekel of Syracuse, speaker, will be held April 24. The Chicken Barbecue will be in June to earn money for the special events, as a parade, in August. Principal Gary Moore will head up the Barbecue. Tentative plans are to have the Balas Busters Model Airplane Fans Southern Tier Club come to fly their models on the school grounds on a Sunday afternoon in August and the Ice Cream Social for refreshments. Also on the Saturday have joggers race from Canisteo to Greenwood to arrive here just before the Parade, which will be organized by Scott Kickbush and an assistant. Skeet McCaffery and Mason Burdick will be co-chair-
