Greenwood Plans For Big "Sesqui"

Celebration of the Sesqui-Centennial anniversary of the founding of the Greenwood Township is now being planned by residents of Greenwood. The township, which was taken from the terrority of Canisteo, was formed on January 24, 1827.

24, 1827.

Participation in the Maple Festival at Andover is pianned as the beginning project of the Greenwood Sesqui-Centennial Committee. The group has made plans for a project to be kicked off at the Maple Festival.

Erwin Allen, Mrs. Arlene Hovey and Mrs. Gail Simonini were named as the committee to conduct the fund raising project. A new Suburban Woodmaster wood burning stove: a five speed bicycle: and a Fifty Dollar Bond will be the prizes of the project. The drawing will be held on August 13, 1977.

Mrs. Patricia Lampiner and

Mrs. Patricia Lamphier and Mrs. Elaine Allen are the co-chairmen to ready a Greenwood Sesqui-Centennial float for the parade. Mrs. Patry Hulse and Mrs. Mary Mullen were named to the booth committee for the Maple Festival.

the booth committee for the Maple Festival.

Many events are now being planned for the summer long event. A three-day celebration is scheduled for August 11. 12 & 13

The committees for the various events are being named by the General Chairman. Edward Mullen Committee Chairman reporting back to the meeting included Reginald Baker, who is keeping the local organizations informed of the plans; George McCaffery III. and Mason Burdick are preparing the initial plans for the forming of the Brothers of the Brush and Sosqui-Centennial Bells Chapters; and Diane McKenna who will co-chiar the arts and crafts show with Mrs. Geri Keil.

The events and chairmen named the arts and crafts show with Mrs Geri Keil.

The events and chairmen named at the Wednesday meeting Include Chicken Barbecue. Gary Moore Chairman: Prince and Princess Contest, Miss Mona Ells and Miss Joan Bennett: Midway. Brina Higgins; Old Fashioned Community Picnic. Mrs. Margaret Murray: Foot Race from Canisteo to Greenwood, Howard Kirsch: Model Air plane Air Show, Howard Moore Garden Tractor Pull, Roger Mills an Executive Committee made up of Mrs. Catherine Krusen, Gary Moore and Erwin Allen: a Historical Committee made up of Miss Catherine Krusen, Gary Moore and Erwin Allen: a Historical Committee made up of Miss Grace Young. Stanley Murray Clarence Stephens. Albert McCaffery. Daniel Redmond and Edward Mullen, Chairman. Mrs. Patsy Hulse was named to the sub committee to assist in patting to gether the history of Greenwood and Mrs. June Sekoll was named Chairman of Publicity.

A Poster Contest for the students, grade four through eight in and Mrs. Julie Staton has Chairman of Publicity.

A Poster Contest for the students, grade four through eight in the Greenwood Central School was discussed as a means of interesting the young children in the celebration. The High School Art students are being asked to participate in a contest to design the symbol for the Sesqui-Centennial It was suggested that the high school English students be asked to take part in the preparation of the historical material.

All committee chairmen and any person interested in assisting with the coming celebration are urged to attend the next meeting scheduled for March 9 at 7:30 pm. at the Greenwood Town Hall.

Any person with antiques or

Any person with antiques or historical material relative to Greenwood, is asked to contact the chairman of the historical committee, Edward Mullen.

Mrs. Charles M. Flewellyn

Mrs. Charles M. Flewellyn
Mrs. Grace Flewellyn of R.D.
Harrison Valey, Pa., died Thursday, February 24, 1977 at Jones
Memorial Hospital, in Wellsville,
after a short illness.
Born in Harrison Township on August 1, 1902, sne was a daughter of Arthur and Minnie Allen Woodward. On Oct. 31, 1921, she was married to Cnarles M. Flewellyn, who survives.
She was a member of the Christian and Missionary Alliance
Church of Harrison Valley.
Surviving, besides her husband are two sons, Gary Flewellyn of Weedsville, and Craig Flewellyn of Harrisburg; two daughters, Miss Betty Flewelyn of Harrisburg, and Miss Joni Flewellyn of Rochester,
ten grandchildren; a sister, Mrs.
Gladys McCutcheon of Harrison Valley; and several nieces and nephews.
Friends were received at the Wildman Funeral Home Inc., of

nephews.
Friends were received at the Wildman Funeral Home Inc., of Whitesville, N. Y., where funeral services were held Saturday at 11 a. m. The Rev. Ralpit Gardiner of Harrison Valley, officiated. Burial was in Whites Corner Cemetery, Pa.

Andover Lions 5th Annual Maple Festival

Lion Don Baker, President of the Andover Lions Club, has an-nounced that the 5th Annual Alle-gany-Steuben Maple Festival will be held on April 2 & 3 in and around the Andover Central around the Andover Central School.

Past President Dale Creen and current President Don Baker Co-Chairmen for the 2-day, funfilled Festival, have selected the committees and respected heads All plans have been completed rooms assigned, and points up the fact that the fine organization evidenced will surely make this year's Festival one of the biggest and best yet.

evidenced will surely make this year's Festival one of the biggest and best yet.

Almost every organization in Andover and many of the surrounding communities will have booths and displays which will fill every available room in the school Many dealers, collectors wares according to consignment Chairman Bob Goodridge.

Coordination of the Allegany Steuben Maple Producers will be handled by Howard and Clifford Green. As in the past, the Maple Producers will be handled by Howard and Clifford Green. As in the past, the Maple Producers will also lake part is displaying the rudiments of Bee Keeping and Honey Production Maple Products of all kinds will be sold by the Andover Lions Club in a designated room.

The Andover Rod & Gun Club will serve their plentiful and hearty Pancake Dinners throughout the entire Festival in the ACS Cafeteria.

The Tree-Tapping Ceremony

out the entire Festival in the ACS Cafeteria.

The Tree-Tapping Ceremony will be held on Saturday morning March 26, next to the Presbyterian Church, where the Queen Contestants, local dignaturies, Lions and the press will gather to tay the Official Maple Tree. The public is invited to participate in this opening ceremony. After the ceremony Lion John McCormick and his committee will begin tapping the trees throughout the Village the committee will begin tapping the trees throughout the Village and start the Sugar Shack which is located on the Catholic Church Grounds. The Sugar Shack will be in operation continuously thru out the Festival and FREE samples will be given to each visitor A Saturday Night Round and Square Dance will be held for the public in the ACS Gymanatsium.

From Our Files 50 YEARS AGO

October 15, 1926 J. H. Backus, Publisher

The Hotel Joyce, formerly the American House, has been newly remode.ed and refurnished inside and out. A beautiful picture appears in this week's News.

pears in this week's News.

Arthur Lynn Cooper, son of Wm and Eliza Keeler Cooper, was born Jan. 30, 1873 in Jasper, N. Y. and died October 8 at his home on Greenwood St., Andover. He is survived by his mother, whom he made his home; one sister, Mrs Frank Taft of Jasper and one brother, Reed, of Elm Valley. Burial was in Jasper.

300 Masons attended the District

ial was in Jasper.

300 Masons attended the District of Allegany County Convention held at the new Masonic Hall in Andover. State Lecturer R. W Henry G. Meacham and District Deputy Grand Master A. D. Fuller were present. The First and Second Degrees were exemplified. A 6 o'clock banquet was served by the local Eastern Stars, after which the Third Degree was exemplified. A Charles A. Bines was instantly

which the Third Degree was ex emplified.
Charles A. Bines was instantly killed Saturday, October 9, when he lost his balance and fell from the running board of a car. He was born in Andover, October 2, 1883, son of William and Hester Swain Bines. On December 21, 1904 he married Georgianna Howland and to them was born one daughter, Georgianna, Mrs. Bines died after the birth of her daughter. On Nov. 9, 1911 he married Martha Updyke of Independence with with the daughter, Georgianna survive with one brother. William of Andover and one sister Mrs. Paul Caple of Hornel. Burial was in Hillside Cemeery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Knox, widow of Preston Knox, died October 7 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John E. Cannon of Pleasant Ave. Mr. Knox died in 1888. She is survived by three sous, Fred and Earl Knox, both of Wellsville and William of Los Angeles. Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. F. W. Pfluger of New York City and Mrs. John E. Cannon of Andover, Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Wellsville.

Prof. O. Simpson. Miss Viole Smith and Clifford Howland at-tended the last meeting of the County Athletic Association held in Belmont.

The Literary Society held their meeting October 8. The following took part in the program: Ruby Robinson, Rose Greene, Mildred Seely, Angilie Dodge, Earl Button Mary Gavin, Louis McAndrew Dorothea Snyder, Cecelia Gavir and Gerald Hann.

and Geraid Hann.

Our farmers are rushing their potatoes from the fields to the market. One of them told the News Editor that when he arrived at the station with a load of Potatoes at 7:30 A. M., Tuesday, he found he had to take his place in line back of 17 loads that had beaf him to it. Potatoes are going for $1.00 a bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. Llewllyn Clair well.

him to it. Potatoes are going for $1.00 a bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. Llewllyn Clair welcomed a son October 9 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Witter.

Rev. W. L. Greene has moved his family from Barney Street to the New Seventh Day Baptist parsonage adjoining the Church or Greenwood Street. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hardy of Independence have moved into the house vacated by Rev. Greene.

Harold Hardy has moved his barber shop equipment from Hor nell to Andover and opencd a bar ber shop in the Lynch Building or Main Street. Mr. Hardy has recently completed a course in Mar celling at the Manielli Shop in Hornell.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Backus and daughter, Laura Adelaide...ieft Sunday for Philadelphia, where they will visit her mother and attend the Sesqui-Centennial and the American Legion National Convention. Convention.

Miss Mary Boyd is the delegater from Anna W. McArthur Chaptes No. 242 of OES to the Grand Lodge sessions held in New York City that week.

Rev. W. L. Greene of the Seventh Day Baptist Church was called to West Clarksville Wednesday to conduct the funeral services for Mrs. Marthy Irish Burdick, the Obi Church. Mrs. Burdick was a former teacher at Andoves School.

Miss Edna Caple returned to her work in Larkin Co., Buffalo, afer a two weeks vacation with her mother, Mrs. F. L. Hann.

mother, Mrs. F. L. Hann.

The Annual Fair of the local Grange was held Wednosday afternoon and evening wih a Chicken Pie Dinner at 5 p. m., followed by a program consisting of a Pionc Solo, by Eva Rennells; piano duet, Mary O'Boyle and Edna Barrett; aquartette, Mary Horan, Gertrude O'Connell, Ruby Robinson and Rose Dawson, singing several selections: Charles Robinson, two vocal solos; Master Francis Mead of Elm Valley gave two recitations and a short drama was put on by local Grange Members.

LEO'S CLUB LIGHT BULB SALE!

Anyone Who Wishes To Buy A "THANK YOU" Pack Of 6 Light Bulbs FOR $2.50 Call: 478-8512 or .478-8287

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

VOTE

Hyland

Village Trustee

"Business Minded" -- A Good Investment 12:00 to 9:00 P.M. VOTE MARCH 15

WOODBURN MONUMENTAL WORKS

Creating masterpieces in stone and fine metal is the full time job of the Woodburn Monumental Works at 89 Greenwood St., in Canisteo, phone 698-4000: one of the region's most highly regarded monument makers.

monument makers.

It's a beautiful final tribute when your family selects one of the many fine designs in grante marble or bronze that this experienced craftsman has to offer. There's one of the area's largest selections to choose from and every stone has the touch of the master on it. Artistic quality and eternal beauty is what you get when you choose your monument from the outstanding collection available here.

available here.

The Woodburn Monumental Works is always available to help you select the monument or marker which best suits your needs and desires. Their orices are exceptionally reasonable and their work is among the very best. As the editors of this 1277 Review we urge all area residents to make this fine monument works their first choice when it comes to his vesting in an eternal tribute.