THE BLIZZARD OF '77'

During the month of December to the beginning of January a big blizzard stirred up. The icy winds froze the village's water pipes and a lot of people had no water. The snow was so deep that it made walls on the side of the roads. There was no school in Andover for more than a week, not only because of the weather, but the gas shortage as well. Yes, it was a mean winter this year and we are getting over it. But there still are people without water. So don't be fooled by this good weather, it may change.

Albany Trip

by Lori Bridge

From February 28 - March 2 Cathy McCormick attended the Second Annual Lobbyist Conference in Albany. As the only participant from Allegany County Cathy met people from New York City and Rochester.

The representatives met with many people from their county representatives to Lieutenant Governor Mary Ann Kruppsak.

Cathy met with Assemblyman James Emery and Senator Jess Present, to talk about a bill she was lobbying and other problems and issues.

Among the other people that talked to the group were Ewald B. Nyquist, Commissioner of Education; Senator Joseph Pisani, Child Welfare Commissioner; Peter Edelman, Director of the NYS Division of Youth; Assemblyman Howard Lasher, Chairman of Assembly Child Care Committee; Fred Goosen, Executive Director Assembly Committee on Education; Robert Daggert, Legislative Liaison for the Education Department; Janet Andre, Director of Student Affairs, State Education Department; and the Honorable Stanley Steingut, speaker of the Assembly.

These people took time from their regular schedules to talk to Cathy and the group she was with. The students were also able to attend the Senate and Assembly Sessions and Assembly Education and Child Care Committee.

The trip, says Cathy, was an educational and fun.
