

HALL OF FAME

Bill Walker

Bill Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, has been named as a member of this year's Hall of Fame.

Bill's high school activities include band, choir, All-County Choir, and Area All-State Choir. This year, he is the Art Editor of the Yearbook. As a sophomore, Bill received the second place geometry award, and was recently named a winner of a Regents Scholarship. In his spare time he enjoys making poetry.

After graduation, Bill plans on going to Art School, possibly Syracuse University.

Senior Trip

by Becky Lang

The senior class just took a trip to Toronto, Canada. They had a lot of fun while they were gone on the trip. In Toronto the seniors stayed at Roshampton Place Hotel.

They went to many interesting places. They went to the Toronto Zoo and a lion safari. The class went to the Canadian National Tower. It is the tallest, free standing tower in the world. They went to the famous Eaton's Department Store. They visited a planetarium and rode on subways and trolleys. Some of the class attended St. Michael's Cathedral.

They also went to Ed's Warehouse and the Old Spaghetti Factory for dinner. The Toronto Blue Jays and the Calgary White Sox were having a baseball game which the seniors saw. The Blue Jays won 3-0. On the way back they went to Niagara Falls and Old Fort Niagara.

It doesn't seem as if they could do all those things within five days but they did. The seniors who went had lots of fun.

Advanced First Aid Course Offered

by Tim Slade

Mrs. Charity McCormick, School Nurse at Andover Central School is setting up a first aid course for teachers and coaches. This course will be taught by Mr. James Haugh. The course will help coaches meet the new requirements for first aid. Teachers have signed up for the course. It will be taught in May at Andover Central School.

Shadowing The Maple Festival

by Mike Lehman

On April 2 and 3 the freshman class shadowed at the Maple Festival. They observed the exhibitors. In class they have discussed the various occupations to be found at the Maple Festival. They observed entertainers, salesmen, craftsmen, collectors, demonstrators, maintenance crews, helicopter pilot, maple producers, people involved in the whole Maple Festival organization, and cooks and waiters.

The students compiled a list of questions they sought to answer while shadowing. After the Festival they share this information with each other in class.

"SPRING IS HERE?"

Spring began March 20th, but remember how hard it snowed that day? Since Spring began, we've only had two days that we could call Spring. Other than these days it's either been terribly cold windy, or raining, and yes, even snowing.

With Spring comes spring sports: baseball, softball, tennis and track. The students who participate in these spring sports, have also been disappointed by what is supposed to be "Spring weather". Let's hope that the real spring weather will well on it's way!

Tennis

by Scott Richardson

With the best turnout since its existence began, the Andover Tennis Team is looking as if they will be a big challenge for the other County teams.

22 people turned out, and Coach Cliff Bale is keeping only 13. He only lost two players to graduation. Andover, which went 4-6 last year, will "definitely do better record-wise this season", Bale said. Returning veterans are Brian and Charlie Weber, Scott Wilson, Brian Ennis, and Laura Dugan. New members include Steve Buckwalter, George Milligan, Janet Monroe, Sue Bliss, Clark Schweigart, Sue York, Tom Davis and James Grossman.

Let's get out and see our tennis team win this year!!!

National Honor Society

by Teresa Joyce

Members of Andover Central School's National Honor Society will attend a banquet on May 2, at the Castle Restaurant in Olean, New York.

The dinner will be attended by Allegany County high school principals, board members, National Honor Society members, and their advisors. Mr. and Mrs. Curville Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Conner Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. Knapp will accompany the Andover group. Miss Sheila Allen, a news correspondent for WBEN TV will be guest speaker for the event.

Girls Sports

Congratulations to Beth Palmer and Teresa Joyce for being named to the Allegany County All-Star Girls Basketball team.

Both Beth and Teresa are seniors at ACS and have played basketball for four years. Teresa was also selected as the Most Valuable Player in the Allegany South League and received a plaque for the honor.

Sophomore News

by Stephanie Lehman

Tot Spot

Miss Marjorie Johnston's Kindergarten have three birthdays to celebrate this April. Pam Buchenschutz, April 5; Tommy Copper on April 13 and Geraldine Lehman on April 21. Over Easter Janie Sherwood went to New Jersey. Billy VanStine took a plane ride to Binghamton last Sunday. Jay Empson was in the hospital to have his tonsils out.

Kelly Brainard of Mrs. Griffiths' Kindergarten, is celebrating her sixth birthday on April 20. All the children in Mrs. Griffiths' room took a trip to Mattison's Sugar Shack. This Kindergarten took third place in the Campbell Soup Label Contest. We congratulate you on your winning.

Paul McCormick was seven February 18. Barbara Heuring was seven March 23. David Baker went to the Wellsville Airport and rode in a plane. Karla Witwie also went to the Wellsville Airport and watched her father take flying lessons. Paul McCormick went to Syracuse to visit friends. Amy Window swallowed a quarter at lunch time. Robert Godown received a new nose. Bobby Walters has a new baby sister, Kelly. Meghan McGillivray won a bicycle safety contest. Saerry Manion's grandmother is in the hospital because of pneumonia.

Mrs. Diane Kelleher's First Grade would like to announce some news of interest. Over Easter, Stephanie Dain went to visit her Grandmother Dain. Shelly Drake has a new black-brown and white puppy named "Candy". Stephanie Dain has named her new poodle puppy "Snowflake". Susie Dugan has her cut off her foot and we are all very happy for her.
