

HI-HERALD

Editorial

by Berneta Wilson

Holidays have always been this country's happiest occasions. Over the last 201 years many holidays have come into existence. We celebrate Saint Patrick's Day for the Irish, Christmas and Easter for the Christians, and the birthdays of the most famous United States Presidents, such as George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. One man who became famous during the Civil War was left out. His name was Jefferson Davis.

Death Of A Good Friend

by Berneta Wilson

Here I am again standing alone. I am not totally alone. I have other lockers standing around me. Over the past year I have been your depot for many strange articles. Since September you have decorated me and given me your own special touches. I have felt like your best friend. I was the hiding place for your secret notes and that history report you have been looking for for months. Many things have been done to me. People stop to stack your books so they will fly out at you when you open my door. The time you could not open me, you took that big foot of yours and kicked me right in the handle. Boy did that smart! I bet it really hurt you when the school made you pay for a new handle.

To Mr. Carmody

A teacher, friend and counselor a heart that's made of gold A gentle sense of caring in all that he has told A man of dedication of spirit and of pride A lasting glow of loyalty the honest do not hid. The hallway will seem empty without you standing there. The classroom will be darker without your thoughts to share. We've grown to love and trust you it's hard to say good-bye To say you won't be missed would be the perfect lie.

Boys Baseball

by Scott Richardson

The boys baseball fell victim to a Scio fifth-inning rally as they lost 10 to 3. Andover got off to a good start with a one run lead after 2 innings. Pat Atwell started on the mound but was relieved by Tim Mead. Tim and Pat each went 1 for 3 at the plate. The boys draw a bye in the first round of sectionals. They will begin play at a date yet to be announced.

Library Council News

by Becky Lang

The Library Council has received the audio visual equipment from the Campbell Soup Contest. A record player with a public address system, a portable cassette tape player/recorder, a listening station, and a listening station with eight headphones, are the four products they received. This audio visual equipment will come into good use for the school. The Library Council is holding their picnic this year at Sceny Brook. The picnic will be taking place Saturday, June 11.
