In Memoriam

Dedication to my Mother, Mrs. Gordon Steadman, who passed away two years ago, July 16, 1975 from her daughter, Norma Gavin

Gone — But not forgotten Dear Mom,

I think of you when the sun shines, And when the dew is lifting from the ground,

I think of you when the birds sing And the roses bud in the spring And when I see a butterfly.

I know that you are near to reassure me and keep me from fear And when your great-grandchildren are playing

I think of you often too knowing how much you enjoyed them, And what a short time they had to love you.

But when the night is silent and the moon is bright and full, I know you are resting in heaven To await the dawn and the morning dew.

I Love You, Mom
Your daughter, Norma
