

Alfred Duane Stebbins

Alfred Duane Stebbins, 50, of Harrison Valley, died Friday, July 8, 1977 while on vacation in Bancroft, Ontario, Canada.

Born in Steuben County, N. Y., he was a son of Clair and Edna Paddock Stebbins. In January of 1949, he married the former Mary Louise (Edie) Dunham who survives.

Mr. Stebbins was employed as a machinist at the Turbodyne Corp. in Wellsville, N. Y.

Surviving besides his widow, are his step-mother, Mrs. Clair Stebbins of Wellsville; three sons, James L. Stebbins of Spring Mills, N. Y., John E. Stebbins and Dean A. Stebbins, both of Whites Corners; two daughters, Mrs. Elaine Moore of Knoxville and Mrs. Vicki Southard of Philadelphia; 10 grandchildren; five brothers, Dale Stebbins of Wellsville, Leon Stebbins of Macedon, Lawrence Stebbins of Florida, Bernard Stebbins of Rochester and Arnold Stebbins of Wisconsin; two sisters, Mrs. Ariouine Hornsby of Florida and Mrs. Donna Johnson of Wellsville and several nieces and nephews.

Friends were received at the Wildman Funeral Home Inc., in Whitesville, where funeral and committal services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Carl Christian, officiating. Burial was in Whites Corners Cemetery.

Carillon Concert To Be Held At Alfred July 19

Carillonneur Frank Della Penna of Columbia, Md., will give a re-cita of classical and modern works Tuesday, July 19 on Alfred University's Davis Memorial Carillon.

The public is invited to attend the concert, which is scheduled to begin at 7:15 p. m. The carillon is located next to Howell Hall on the central campus.

Della Penna's performance is part of a summer recital series whose cost is being underwritten by a grant from Dr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Rose of Alfred. The series honors the memory of Mrs. Rose's father, Dr. Ray Wingate, the University's first carillonneur.

James W. Chapman, instructor in music at Alfred, is the series coordinator.
