

Greenwood News

James Hink, in Germany with the Armed Forces since May, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hink, Sr., Sunday, August 20 on his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCaffrey and family of Syracuse came for the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffrey and took their son, Mike home after a week here.

Frank Barnhart of Hornell spent some time with his grand mother, Mrs. Grace Barnhart.

Recognition was not given last week to Mrs. June Rollins who organized the Parade and Franklyn Krusen who built a driller from metal parts given by several people to resemble one that was made in the Greenwood Foundry, also Kenneth Dilts who furnished two flower arrangements in logs at the Museum.

The Town Board wishes to express appreciation to Mike Simolini who made the wooden letters "Town Hall" and installed them as a Scout Project.

The Primary Election will be held at the Town Hall next Thursday, September 8 — Noon to 7 p. m.

The Greenwood Ambulance was sent three times on Wednesday to take Robert Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Murray to the St. James Mercy Hospital with head injuries after he fell off a truck which had not quite stopped. To take Mrs. Marian Ryan to the St. James Mercy Hospital with a heart attack, and to take Mrs. Addie Baker to Bethesda Community Hospital after a poor spell.

Mr. Joe Ryan, a son and a daughter from Huntington, Long Island, flew into Edmira Thursday and spent to Monday, to see his mother Mrs. Marian Ryan. The Misses Rosetta Brown and Gina Ahearn went to visit their cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kernan and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bianco and two children have returned from a week's vacation in South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdett Huise took their son, Mike to meet a group in Rochester, Wednesday to fly to Wisconsin for a Dairy Tour, sponsored by the (SILCO) Harvert Store Tour. They returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Agnes Sherman Mrs. Maude

Holt, Miss Grace Young, Mrs. Lauretta Jensen worked a while Wednesday at the Cancer Booth at the Eugene Baker and Dennis O'Dell went with Mrs. Sherman. Mr. and Mrs. Jon Jensen and family went and took his mother Mrs. Lauretta Jensen to the Cancer Booth.

Miss Christina Maria Gallese of Hornell, became the bride of Ronald C. Greene of Dansville July 30 at the St. Ignatius Loyola Church.

The Rev. J. Mans performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with peach gladioli, orange Fuji mums, apple blossom Carnations, yellow Pom Poms and daisies. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Gallese of Arkport. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Evelyn Greene and the late Gerald Greene of Greenwood. Nancy Hann of Hornell was the organist and Kenneth Gilbert of Dansville, was the vocalist and guitarist.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her floor length gown of Tiffany jersey was styled with a V-neckline, Grecian bodice, A-line skirt, and an Eton jacket with silk braid. A garden hat accented with two white roses and bridal tulle completed her ensemble. She carried a shower bouquet of orange roses, baby's breath and white statice with peach ribbons.

Miss Ilona Baker of Corning was maid of honor for her cousin. She wore a voile gown with apricot maize and green stripes styled with an Empire bodice, halter neckline and matching coverlet. Her yellow picture hat with yellow streamers was fastened up on the side with a maize rose. She carried a wicker basket of yellow carnations, roses and pom poms, white daisies and baby's breath with yellow streamers. The bridesmaids were Lisa D'Angelo of Caledonia, niece of the bride; Mrs. Claudia Gallese of Montour Falls, sister-in-law of the bride and Paula Babcock of Hornell. Their gowns were like the maid of honor's and their hats were trimmed with apricot roses and ribbons. They carried wicker baskets of apricot daisies and carnations, yellow pom poms, orange roses and baby's breath with peach ribbons.

Roger York of Rochester was the best man; Ushers were Stephen Gallese of Montour Falls, brother of the bride, John Hunt of Chicago, Illinois and Freeman Denton of Dansville.

The reception was at Ponce de Leon Restaurant, Hornell. Music for dancing and dinner, was by the Six Million Dollar Band. Vases of baby's breath and apricot daisies decorated the tables.

The bride is a graduate of Hornell Senior High School and Corning Community College. She is dental assistant at the Bath Veterans Administration. The bridegroom is an alumnus of Greenwood Central School and Corning Community College. He is employed by the New York State Electric and Gas Corporation in Dansville.

After a wedding trip to Virginia, the couple are living on Poky Moonshine Road, Wayland.

The Rev. Richard McCleery officiated at the double-ring ceremony for the marriage of Miss Barbara Jean Ritter to Terry Kevin Murphy, both of Canisteo in the Canisteo First Methodist Church, August 6. Seven-branch candleabra and twin arrangements of gladioli and carnations decorated the sanctuary. Mrs. Willard Mlott of the Jasper Road, was the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Betty Ritter of Denver, Colo. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Murphy of Canisteo, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Heckman of Greenwood.

Judy Frio of Rochester, was maid of honor. Kathy Murphy of Freehold, N. J., and Susan Smith of Canisteo, were bridesmaids. Rick Osborn of Canisteo, was best man. Andy Murphy and Guy Forden of Canisteo seated the guests.

Given in marriage by her mother the bride chose a candlelight satin gown, trimmed with lace. It was styled with V-neckline, bishop sleeves with wide cuffs and set-in waistband. Her floor-length veil caught to a Juliet cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and stephanotis. The maid of honor wore a peach Quiana gown with ruffled cape collar and Empire waistline. The bridesmaids wore similar turquoise gowns. Each attendant carried a white rose trimmed with lace to match her gown.

A buffet luncheon was served to about 150 guests during the reception at the Coachlight Steak House in Hornell.

The bride selected a two-piece jump suit for a wedding trip. The couple is living at 14 W. Main St., Canisteo.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Canisteo Central School. She attended State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred and is a cashier at the Canisteo Big M Store. He is employed at Kenneth Kemp Plumbing and Heating Inc., Hornell. Among the guests were those from Colorado, New Jersey, California, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cady, Miss Brenda Cady, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Williamson and five children, Mr. and Mrs. John Cady and two sons of Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cady and three children of Cameron, attended the annual BKF family picnic Sunday at Conesus Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cobb of South Hadley, Mass., came Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hussey. Mr. Cobb returned home Sunday and Cheryl stayed part of this week with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Streeter, son, Perry and daughter Jennifer left Saturday, August 20 to return to their home at Pleasant Plains, Ill. The children were here a month and parents two weeks, also visiting her family, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCaffrey and sons, Jeffrey and Gregory of York and Mike McCaffrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCaffrey of Syracuse, spent last week with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffrey.

M.P. James Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, Sr., is home on a 30-day enroute leave from Fort Campbell to Alaska where he plans to drive through.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Donaldson and son, John, left early Wednesday to return to their home at Rockledge, Florida, after spending the summer in town. They went to Rochester last Thursday on business. George Donaldson is working in Rochester, staying with Tom and Nancy Greene. John starts school in Florida, August 29.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shaut took Mrs. Joseph Fitzpatrick to Rochester, Wednesday for a fitting of a leg brace.

Mrs. Florence Moore went back to Honeoye Falls, Friday with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Val Fenti. Another daughter, Mrs. Walter Baker was flying from the Rochester Airport, Monday, to return to her home at Marlon, N. C. Mrs. Fenti brought her mother, Mrs. Moore home Tuesday.

Mrs. Mildred Clark is staying with her grandchildren, Mark, Rhonda and Shelly Bettinger in Canisteo.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Caffery and granddaughter, Laurie Jack of Canisteo, called on friends in town Monday.

12 year old Lisa Woodworth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Woodworth, played a special and for the offertory, Sunday, on the organ at the United Methodist Church.

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

IF YOU WANT EXPERIENCE
VOTE FOR THE INCUMBENT

TOM SAUNDERS
District Attorney

Republican Primary Sept. 8th, 1977

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

A VOTE For Mary is a Vote For YOU

1. Married 22 years
2. Mother 21 years
3. Former Teacher
4. Real estate sales - business woman
5. Republican Committee woman
6. Former school board member; president
7. Board member Allegany Co. Homemaker Service
8. Southern Tier West Crime Control Advisory Board

Mary is honest, hard working and responsible. Voters in Andover, Alfred, Almond, Amity, Burns, Ward and West Almond can vote for Mary in the Sept. 8 PRIMARY.

--- PULL LEVER 7B FOR MARY ORIANAS ---