Scott Kickbush reported on the Summer Band: 48 students registered for summer lessons, a record number. Attendance was not up to par but those who attended regularly made the program successful. Ten beginners started on instruments and will probably continue when school starts. Mr. Kickbush would like to commend the Marching Band members who attended the parades this summer.

We did not win a lot of money, but we did put in a good showing at parades. There was a lot of competition from larger schools and if we had been full strength we would have done better. There is on more parade in October at Mansfield State College.

The Band won the following awards this year: Prattsburg Band Festival we were First in Marching Competition, Concert Band Competition, and Majorettes, the only Band to win three firsts.

The Bath Dairy Festival, the Band won First in Marching Band five years in a row: First in Color Guard, the first time Color Guard ever won an award and beat out Guards from larger schools. 3rd Drum-Majorette, Sandy Dennison, Painted Post, 4th place Marching Band, the first time in the history of Greenwood that ever placed in this parade. We beat bands from Canisteo, Jasper, Prattsburg, Arkport and 5 other schools. Andover Fourth of July, 3rd place. We need more students in summer parades.

Wellsville Firemen's Parade, 7th place, need more students. Angelica County Fair, 4th place, very good showing at a big parade. A special thanks to all the chaperons bus drivers and band boosters for all their work. Our best showing of the summer was at the Greenwood SesquiCentennial Parade in which we did not compete. We hope many people in the community will go to Mansfield in October to see Greenwood compete. It is important that the community support their Band and be proud that such a nice bunch of students represent them and do a fine job.

The Boys Locker Room is now under construction and will not be available the first few weeks of school.

For the SesquiCentennial there were seven Belles groups, some quite active. The Alpha Belles with 17 members was sponsored by Greenwood Agway.
