Real Property Taxes

The six-week Allegany County Tax Sale publication for the 1977 unpaid taxes will start October 19, 1977. The Tax Sale is to be held in the County Treasurer's Office November 30, 1977, at 10:00 A. M. As we have over seven hundred and eighty parcels (780) that have not been paid, I am urging everyone who received their September billing, which was mailed September 22nd, to remit their payment to us as soon as possible. By doing so, they may avoid being listed in the publication and having additional advertising cost added to their taxes.

In addition to the 177 delinquent taxes, we have, at this time, one hundred and ninety-five (195) unpaid 1976 Tax Sale Certificates sixty-two (62) unpaid 1976 Tax Sale Certificates, and fifty (50) unpaid Tax Sale Certificates.

If anyone has an unpaid 1977 Tax Sale Certificate issued against their property, they should do whatever is possible to see that it is paid before November 21, 1977. If the 1974 Tax Sale Certificates remain unpaid after this date, then those parcels will be available to the public to bid on. This means that the owner could lose their property for non-payment.

Anyone having any questions about their unpaid taxes are urged to call the County Treasurer's Of ice at 716-268-7612, Extension 232.

JAMES F. MULHOLLAND, Allegany County Treasurer

SEPTEMBER 27, 1977
 CERTAINLY IN THE LIFE OF ANY COMMUNITY THERE COMES TIMES WHEN WE MUST TURN TO SOMEONE GREATER THAN OURSELVES. THIS WAS THE CASE THROUGHOUT THE WINTER OF '77, AND MOST RECENTLY DURING THE CONTINUOUS HAINSTORMS HERE IN WESTERN NEW YORK.
 WITH FLOOD WATERS DESTROYING MANY CROPS, AND DOING GREAT DAMAGE TO HOMES, DIFFERENT CHURCHES IN THE AREA ORGANIZED SPECIAL TIMES OF PRAYER. AND THEN THE UNPREDICTED SUNSHINE CAME!
 PRAYER TO A GOD WHO CARES DOES CHANGE THINGS!
