James F. Mulholland Honored With Apron Presentation

R.W. Howard Burdick made the Apron Presentation in behalf of Andover Lodge No. 558 F & A M to honor R.W. James F. Mulholland who was appointed as District Deputy Grand Master for the ensuing Masonic Year by W.M. Albert W. Schneider, Grand Master of Masons in the State of New York.

"Jim" was Master of Andover Lodge No. 558 in 1969, just 20 years after his father James B. Mulholland was Master of the Andover Lodge.

An interesting side-light in this Masonic History occurred when then Past Master James B. Mulholland presented the derby hat he wore to Master "Red" Allen when he was elected as Master of Andover Lodge in 1952 and then in turn, "Red" presented the same derby hat to James F. Mulholland when he became Master in 1969. Who knows, perhaps, "Jim" will be able to present the same derby to one of his sons at some point in time in the future?
