Halloween is approaching closer and closer every day. Then will be the time once again for the shaving cream and the soaping of people's windows. At Hallowe'en I think that a lot of people expect that kind of stuff that kids will be doing that special night.

Everybody goes around and "rips off" little kids candy which isn't very nice to do. Hallowe'en is supposed to be a very special treat to little kids and older kids should respect their kind of fun. This Hallowe'en might be better yet.

Andover Wins Last Home Game

Wednesday was a victorious day for Andover in their last home game of the season, winning over Friendship by a score of 5-2.

It was a hard fought game in all four quarters of play. Goals were scored by Pat Atwell (with three goals) making a total for the season of 23. The other two goals were scored by Eric MacMichael and Freshman Guy Milligan.

This last game of the season gave Andover a final record of 10 wins, 2 losses, and 2 ties.

Next will be the Sectionals which will start October 26. Come and cheer for the Panthers and hope for a Section 5 Championship.

Andover Takes 2nd Loss

Tuesday was a disappointing day for the Panthers when they lost for the second time this season. The Panthers just couldn't get it together, giving in to Scio 1-0.

New Teacher

Senior Interview

by Susan Dougherty

This week's "senior in the spotlight" is Wendy Sue Cahill. Wendy's parents are Anita Cahill and Richard Hancock. She lives with her parents, Anita and Frank Cahill in Andover, where her Mom is a beautician and her Dad works in Wellsville at Central Tractor.

Wendy has been active in Color Guard many years and also played Volleyball for one year.

Some of her hobbies include camping and traveling. She camps with her family, which she enjoys very much, and a while ago traveled to England with her aunt and uncle and family.

Wendy also has a married brother, Rick, and a nephew, Scott. Her sister, Cindy, lives in Washington with her daughter.

After graduation, Wendy plans to wed Andy Jackson and then raise a family. We know she'll succeed in anything she attempts. Best of luck, Wendy.

Senior Interview

by Tracy Richardson

On May 29, 1961, Merle and Joan Dibble had the last of their six children, and his name is Steve.

Steve has been active throughout his years at ACS, starting out with Cub Basketball in 7th and 8th grade, Varsity and J.V. Basketball for four years; Soccer for four years; Baseball for three years; and Band for five years.

Steve has no definite plans for after graduation, except to just take it easy for awhile. We wish you luck in the future Steve.
